

AUBURNDALE SHOPPING AREA. This is another in a series being published in cooperation with CARLY REALTY illustrating Newton's title "The Garden City." Easily identified are the Burr School, Corpus Christi Church, the Railroad Station, Auburn and Lexington streets. How many other landmarks can you identify? Cut these out each week and you'll have the complete series.

OUR TOWN AFTER MIDNIGHT

By PAUL CONSIDINE

Saturday nights performance will be the big one at the Elks Charity Circus. That's when the fortunate ones attending the affair at Norumbega Park, will be the recipients of a new automobile, a Piper Cub airplane, 3 electric refrigerators, 3 late model radios and many other articles of "hard to get" merchandise.

So far as the circus is concerned, it's strictly a big league show. Sharkey the Seal, as usual, keeps 'em laughing and applauding constantly. Famous stars of the Big Top, the Millettes, the Flying Hartzells, Bozo the Clown, Winifred Colleano, Rudinoff's Horses, La Tosca, the Roomeys and 15 other star acts provide an hour and a half of continuous entertainment and thrills that make this year's Elks Circus the best attraction ever offered by the Newton Lodge. The proceeds will be used, as always, to assist the needy in our community.

CONVENTION . . .
Early evening trolleys have been crowded all week with Boston bound veterans and their friends. The high jinks in the Big City during the VFW convention attracted thousands from Newton.

Announce Results of Police Lieut. Exam

Announcement of the result of the examination held on April 15 for the lieutenant vacancies in the Newton Police Department was made on Friday by the State Department of Civil Service.

Sgt. Philip Purcell headed the list and the other eligible candidates are Sgts. Patrick J. King, Charles W. Walker, Richard L. Bannon, Bartlett Cullen and John H. Sheridan.

The result of the examination had been delayed by the filing of appeals by four of the candidates concerning their ratings. The appeals were denied by the Civil Service Commission on Tuesday of last week.

Sgt. Purcell, who heads the list, is at present in Washington where he is attending the F.B.I. school for law enforcement, having been selected by Chief Nicholas Veducchio to take the course. He was appointed a member of the police force on May 31, 1929.

Admiral Nimitz Shopped Here

While shopping with his wife and daughter in Newtonville on Friday, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, Chief of Naval Operations in the Pacific, was recognized as he was crossing Walnut street by John Dorenbaum, proprietor of the Washington Pharmacy, who with his clerk, William Shepard and Charles Morrison, went out to greet the Admiral.

On learning that the men were all veterans who had served in the Pacific, Dorenbaum having been a chief pharmacist's mate, Shepard, a former yeoman and Morrison a Seabee, Admiral Nimitz expressed pleasure at meeting them and during an informal chat told them he was looking forward to a family reunion at Wellfleet, Mass., where he was to spend his first week-end since the war at the home of his sister-in-law, and where he expected to be joined by his son, Comm. Chester Nimitz, whose submarine was due in port.

Admiral Nimitz took part in the impressive ceremony held aboard the USS Missouri in Boston on Monday which marked the first anniversary of the signing of the Japanese surrender.

Will Be Trained in Wilderness Exploration And Care and Use of Canoes

Robert E. Pettit, Scout Executive, announces that twenty two Senior Scouts and Scouting Leaders of Norumbega Council are on the Lake Kezar Chain of Lakes and Rivers for a one-week Canoe Trip this week. The Canoe Trip was the culmination of a Wilderness Canoe Training Project promoted by Don. W. Moyer, Regional Executive for New England, and his staff.

The project includes extensive training in the use, care and construction of a canoe; wilderness exploration cruises; specialized training in canoe trail camping; and a program of fellowship around the camp fire or on the water while singing the traditional voyager songs.

The group is headed by excellent leadership with Assistant Scout Executive John C. Adams; George Higgins of West Newton, prominent canoe authority; Donald Fifield, Scoutmaster Troop 7A, who is the Morale

Ability To Pay

Long after Henry Wallace, as head of our Department of Commerce, profoundly announced that auto manufacturers could pay huge wage increases without raising prices, people have based their thinking on ability to pay. How many have calculated the great losses which the strike caused employees and companies, and the cost to the country in higher costs of automobiles? Even though Wallace reneged in his position, companies with a surplus, and customers with cash on hand, have been legal prey to stand advancing wages, prices, rents, all on the often-wrongly-assumed ability to pay.

Whenever one ties the justification of increasing prices to the customer's ability to pay, let him clearly remember that he should write an equal truth in expecting cuts in pay and prices based on inability to pay as conditions change. However, if we could adjust our affairs and arrange increased production for increased compensation through cooperation of labor and management, the standards of living would permanently rise and the solution of the problem of scarcity and high prices would be in hand. Let's abandon the expression "Ability to Pay."

Mere high wages and high prices lead to no worthwhile goal. As Lord Keynes points out in the current issue of the British Economic Journal, this country has become a very high-priced and high-waged nation, ripe for easy competition by the other countries of the world. Fortunately both labor and business see the handwriting on the wall and we have hope of a period of better common sense.

Newton Men on N. U. Faculty

Among the 30 additional faculty members appointed to the teaching staff of Northeastern University as announced by Pres. Carl S. Ell, were four Newton men.

Howard F. Greene of 15 Angier circle, Auburndale, who formerly taught at Babson Institute, Bentley School of Boston University, will become associate professor and head of the department of accounting.

Other Newton men who have been appointed to the faculty are as follows: Reginald C. Thomas, 72 Madison avenue, Newtonville, who will teach biology; Wendell H. Thornton, 293 Mt. Vernon street, West Newton, economics; and Robert S. White, Auburndale, mechanical engineering.

The University will open its 49th year of academic instruction next week with its largest day college enrolment in history, 2563 undergraduates, many of whom applied as long as a year ago.

The College of Engineering will have 1344 students, College of Business Administration, 662; and College of Liberal Arts, 557. The day division for the first time will operate under the double platoon system, enabling 500 more students to return to college this year.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note).

Divide and Conquer

That monstrosity, Adolf Hitler, is not the only man who has found it extremely helpful to follow the policy of dividing and conquering his enemies. It is currently being utilized by the Democrats in their earnest efforts to head off a Bradford victory this November. How are they doing it? Listen.

Not so many years ago there was a District Attorney of Middlesex County named Warren Bishop, who had for one of his most important assistants County Commissioner William G. Andrews of Cambridge. Inasmuch as it is not considered good taste to speak too unkindly of those who have passed on, let me merely state one or two hard, cold facts. The late Mr. Bishop unquestionably made a rather poor record in more ways than one during his incumbency. As a result, a few prominent Republicans, including men like Robert T. Bushnell and one or two other prominent citizens here, made a thorough investigation and finally succeeded in drafting none other than our present Lt. Governor, Robert F. Bradford of Cambridge to run for District Attorney and restore that office to its proper place in the sun. Bob Bradford did a grand job, as even fair-minded Democrats will have to admit.

Let us proceed. The William G. Andrews referred to above has recently been busy himself with a series of moves which appear to be designed to give much aid and comfort to Governor Maurice J. Tobin. Bill Mullins of the Herald recently mentioned a rather nasty political circular which had come to his attention. Its purpose was quite obviously to hurt Lt. Governor Bradford. The fact that both our Lt. Governor and said William G. Andrews come from Cambridge and that many voters consider that a man who holds the office of County Commissioner in Middlesex County must perforce be a staunch Republican, makes the Andrews blast all the more harmful.

Active politics in Newton are now the order of the day. The Republican City Committee, headed by Rep. Whittemore of Newtonville, who succeeded Charles B. Floyd earlier in the year, is meeting tonight in the Hunnewell Club. It is quite possible that the matter which I have discussed at length in this column will come up for consideration. The vital importance of registration is certainly on the agenda and some of the old-timers will undoubtedly have something interesting to say.

Your columnist inadvertently referred to Calvin Coolidge in last week's quiz. Coolidge, of course, was born in Plymouth, Vermont, but he spent most of his life and made practically all of his reputation in Massachusetts. Here are the facts. Our state has given but four citizens to the nation as Vice-President. In addition to Coolidge there were Henry Wilson, the Natick cobbler, born in New Hampshire, but a resident of Massachusetts, when elected to the second highest office in the United States in the middle of the last century; John Adams, our first Vice-President, born in this state and living here when elected and finally, Elbridge Gerry, the famous originator of the phrase "gerrymander," who was our fifth Vice-President and who was born here and was also a resident when elected.

This week's question is: Name the last resident of Newtonville to be elected Mayor of Newton. Also, has any resident of Waban ever been Mayor?

Lt. Col. Key of London to Lecture On Christian Science

Lt. Col. Robert E. Key, of London, England, will give a lecture on Christian Science in First Church of Christ, Scientist, Newton, Monday evening, September 16th, at 8:00 P. M. His subject will be: "Christian Science, How it can be studied and applied."

Lt. Col. Key is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The church edifice is located at 391 Walnut Street, Newtonville, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Appoint 55 New School Teachers

Superintendent of Schools Homer W. Anderson has announced the appointment of 55 new members of the teaching staff including two new principals.

Alan Acorn, former assistant principal of the Mason School, has been appointed principal of the Underwood School and H. Edgar Pray of West Springfield, Mass., will be principal of the Bigelow Junior High School.

More than 60 positions have become vacant since the school committee suspended its meetings for the summer. This constituted the greatest turnover in the history of the city, and school department officials were forced to seek candidates throughout the country. The situation is believed to be a large extent due to changes in the teachers retirement system offering higher pensions to teachers who retire before 70.

Three other vacancies are still open, due to difficulty in finding qualified candidates. The places will be filled by substitutes until the appointments can be made.

Army Commendation Ribbon Received

Citation for the Army Commendation Ribbon was received this week from the Surgeon General by the former Nadylls Lamson Dalton of West Newton, now Mrs. Porter Shelley Wood of Cambridge. The citation reads in part: "... your service with the Medical Department has been exceptional when compared with others of the same grade of similar position, and I wish to commend you for your outstanding contribution as Officer in Charge of Physical Therapy for paraplegic patients, Thomas M. England General Hospital, Atlantic City, New Jersey, from March 1945 to May 1946."

Mrs. Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall B. Dalton of Sylvan avenue, received her secondary education in the Newton schools, and graduated as a pre-medical major from Vassar in 1943. The following year she was a laboratory technician with the Huntington Memorial of the Massachusetts General Hospital, leaving to take the Army Emergency Course in Physical Therapy given by the Harvard Medical School. She served her apprenticeship at the England General Hospital in Atlantic City, to which she was reassigned as a Second Lieutenant in the Army Medical Department, and was promoted to First Lieutenant ten months later. She has recently accepted a position as physical therapist in the new clinic being developed in Boston by the Bay State Society for the Crippled and Handicapped.

Newton in the Past

From the Files of The Newton Graphic

55 Years Ago

Newton Graphic, Sept. 4, 1891
The grounds around Army Hall are being improved in appearance this week by the addition of loam and reseeded.

The wet weather the first of the week caused a great rush of travel home, and the expressmen have had about all they could do this week, taking care of the trunks.

Some people complain of the occasional muddiness of the city water, which is due to the sewer men using the hydrants and stirring up things generally. But where do the shrimps come from?

The Hamilton school building has undergone many improvements. New ventilators have been added and the building has an improved appearance. Newton Lower Falls item.

50 Years Ago

Newton Graphic, Sept. 4, 1896
Signs of improvement are evident on all sides, and this week the ground in front of the old paint and carpenter shop on Centre place, Newton, was cleared.

of the rubbish that has been accumulating there for years. It gives the place quite a metropolitan air and the widening is to come after the next meeting of the city council.

The new Newton station is about completed and is admired by all for its simplicity of design and construction.

The city is cutting a large slice from the corner of Sargent and Centre streets, Newton, to avoid the sharp turn which has always been such a dangerous feature at this point.

Mr. Conant's greenhouse, situated between Beacon street and Windsor road, is fast nearing completion. Waban item.

The Annual Field Day for the benefit of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church, Newton Lower Falls, will be held next Monday, Labor Day. The usual list of sports will take place with dancing afternoon and evening.

Newton Secretarial School Opens Eighth Year in New Home

September 16 is the date set for the opening of the fall session of the Newton Secretarial School in its new home at 16 Summit street, Newton.

Mrs. Esther C. Mortimer, the Director, announces that the School, because of its enlarged facilities, will be able to render greater service to the people of the Newtons and of the environs than it has done during the past seven years. Extensive alterations, which include the installation of modern electric lighting equipment throughout the building, are nearing completion.

This year, the School has received a great many more calls for trained office personnel than ever before. The Director regrets that the School has been unable to serve better the many employers who have called for trained office workers of various types.

Mrs. Mortimer announces that the School will continue its policy of making available thorough training in business subjects, "without frills," to young people who wish to become efficient office workers in the shortest time required to acquire such training.

Newton Rotary Club

The Newton Rotary Club was royally entertained Wednesday, September 4th, by the Waltham Club. After an appetizing lunch, vocal selections by the Waltham Rotary Double Quartette, led by Russell Westwood, was thoroughly enjoyed. The host, President Jack Perry introduced President Phil, who in turn presented Judge Elijah Adlow of the Boston Municipal Court, who gave a most entertaining and inspirational talk on human relations.

It seemed to the speaker that the world is upside down, that it is "fashionable to be miserable and unhappy" and that the "Apostles of doom" have been quite successful in promoting this philosophy of life. To them, happiness can only be secured by a monthly government check. We need to get back to a realistic philosophy, which holds that man advances only by his own hard work, that all life is not ease and pleasure, that it is mixed with toil, suffering, and joy, that man is a being of dignity and worth with a deep responsibility for his own welfare and for the world in which he lives.

It is impossible to include in this report the real spirit and the humor of Judge Adlow's presentation. If you weren't there you missed one of the great events of the year.

Dining With Jane and Bill

Jane—You've got your head buried in a paper again, Bill. I thought we would have a nice evening chat together.

Bill—Huh? Oh, yes, well I'll be through in a few minutes. Oh, here's something that might interest you.

Jane—Well, read it to me. I wouldn't mind so much your spending so much time with the paper if you would look up once in a while and tell me what you're reading about.

Bill—Sure. Well this article is on more nutritious peas. The U. S. Department of Agriculture reports that as a result of testing 25 varieties of peas they found that the thiamine (vitamin B1) ranged from .065 mg. to a high of .433 mg. per serving. This would mean that a serving of one variety may furnish almost 7 times as much thiamine as the same size serving of another variety. Therefore, emphasis will be placed on breeding new varieties of peas for high vitamin content. This study is one of many similar studies undertaken by federal and state scientists for the purpose of making foods on American dinner tables furnish the most in nutritive value.

Jane—Yes, I've read they have been doing that for apples and tomatoes. It's interesting to think that they can actually cultivate fruits and vegetables to have a high vitamin content. Why apples which never were such a good source of vitamin C may be almost as good as oranges for that vitamin.

Bill—That part of nutrition interests me, too.

Robichaud—

(Sylvester) Robichaud, and came to the United States when very young. He studied for the priesthood at Joliet Seminary and the Grand Seminary, Montreal, and was ordained by Archbishop Bruchesi on December 22, 1900.

He served as a curate at Farnham, Quebec for three years and at St. Mary's Church in Marlboro, Mass., the following eight years. He was appointed parish priest of St. Jean L'Evangelliste Church, Newton and celebrated the first mass which marked the official beginning of the parish on May 14, 1911. In 1925 he officiated at the opening of the parochial school under the direction of the Sisters of St. Ann, and before he became ill he had started a fund for the erection of a new church for the parish.

Funeral services were held this morning. A mass attended by the children of the parish was celebrated at 8 o'clock and at 10 o'clock a solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Rosario Richard, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Waltham, assisted by Rev. Charles B. Mosian of the Church of the Assumption, Bellingham as deacon, and Rev. Leo P. Dumas of St. Louis' Church, Lowell, sub-deacon. Rev. Arthur Mercier of St. Theresa's Church, Dracut was the eulogist. Rev. Albert Michaud of St. Joseph's Church Waltham, thurifer, Rev. Leon Perras of St. John the Baptist Church Lynn and Rev. Philip Lefevre of St. Joseph's Church, Everett, acolytes. Rev. Sylvio Barrette, administrator of St. Jean L'Evangelliste Church, was master of ceremonies. Archbishop Richard J. Cushing was present, also many clergymen of the diocese. The St. John's Seminary choir sang.

Burial will be in St. Francis deSales Seminary, Waterville, Me. Fr. Robichaud is survived by a sister, Miss Anne Marie Robichaud, a brother, Victor Robichaud and several nieces and nephews, all of Waterville, Me.

Brattle Hall Observes "Newton Week"

Brattle Hall at Harvard Square, Cambridge has for many years been famous for its Broadway stage plays, brought to Boston with a new play given each week.

Now for its 80th Anniversary play, Brattle Hall invites prominent Newton families to attend the theatre to see "Kiss and Tell." This well-known comedy ran more than a year in New York and was hailed as one of the great comedy hits of recent years.

All next week, at every performance, only Newton residents will be present. The purpose of Newton Week is to invite those who have not been to this famous Cambridge theatre recently to see the work of the only professional stock company in America. It is hoped that after seeing "Kiss and Tell," many Newton residents will want to follow the plays all season, each week.

Brattle Hall has a distinguished history. Stars of stage, screen, and radio appear on that stage in person, and the famous Boston Stock Company, celebrates its 80th Anniversary Week next week.

The theatre is located directly at Harvard Square, where there is ample parking at all times. Every evening at 8:30 this time-honored playhouse is filled to capacity. The excellent acting company includes Mary Malone, George Keymas, Martha Hoskins, Robert Herrman, and twelve other stage personalities. Of especial interest to Newton residents is the fact that Brattle Hall has secured one of Boston's most popular actors, and a new resident for many years, Edmund M. MacCloskey, who will appear with the company all next week.

be open on Wednesday and Friday mornings from 10 to 12.

For the opening week, Miss Ethel Woodberry and her West Newton committee will have Monday, Mrs. Edwin Rogers and another group from West Newton, will be in charge Wednesday and Mrs. Arthur Allen will bring helpers from Newton Centre on Friday.

Our Newton Graphic readers are invited to have a share in this shop which is run for the benefit of our Newton-Wellesley Hospital, by doing their part towards keeping up the stock which is to be sold. The articles which meet with the quickest sale are china, glass, silver, vases, and in fact anything which may be used for home decoration. Such goods are on display in the Shop window, but never for long, as there are always customers waiting for such. Curtains, rugs and tables linens are also in constant demand as well as clothing especially for children.

As usual the facilities of the Hospital truck are available for collections each Wednesday morning by contacting Mrs. Raymond Perkins, Big. 8123 by noon of the previous day.

If you, our Graphic readers are interested in our Hospital, please do not fail to do your part in keeping the supply of goods equal to the demand.

THE IDEAL FERTILIZER

FOR LAWNS, GARDENS, FLOWERS, TREES, AND ALL PLANTS

NOW IS THE TIME TO GIVE TIRED GRASS A FRESH START!

Supplied in 25, 50, and 100-pound sift-proof bags.

Re-vitalize "summer weary" grass with a full application of Milorganite. Unlike most plants, grass grows vigorously in the fall. Provided extending and fertilizer is restored by generous feeding, Milorganite is the ideal fertilizer to use because it contains all the elements needed by grass. Golf Clubs use more Milorganite than any other fertilizer. They know from long experience that it is the ideal fertilizer. Profit by their example. Fertilize with Milorganite. This fall for greener, more luxuriant lawns now and NEXT year, too.

"MILORGANIZE" HEALTHY PLANT GROWTH

To those who are awaiting delivery of their New Oldsmobiles

Series "70" Club Sedan. GM Hydra-Matic Drive optional at extra cost.

A Word of Appreciation... and a Suggestion, too!

We know how anxious you are to get your new Oldsmobile. And there's nothing we'd like better to do, right now, than to say to every Oldsmobile buyer: "Your car is here. Come get it!"

But frankly, it just isn't possible to do that. There still aren't enough new Oldsmobiles to go around. Due to shortages in materials and unavoidable limitations on production, the output of new cars still is behind schedule. And our allotments are far below the figures that we originally anticipated.

We want to assure you, however, that everything possible is being done, both here and at the factory, to get your car in your hands promptly. And we'd like to take this occasion to thank you sincerely for the patient and considerate way in which you have borne with us during this period of waiting.

Meanwhile, we have an important suggestion: Don't neglect the car you drive today.

Our Town—

Waltham and surrounding cities and towns. The El', concerning which many of us have grown occasionally, turned in a first class job of transportation, especially during the wee small hours, when hundreds of weary revelers turned their thoughts in the direction of home . . .

Extra trolleys were in operation every night and morning with each of them arriving here with a goodly load. Some passengers alighted in the fond belief they were in Cleary Square, or, maybe, Fields Corner, Dorchester, but no one minded too much, at that stage of the waning moon, and usually a good samaritan guided them to an El' car traveling in the direction of home, so's they might try it again.

FRENCH SAILORS . . .

Traveling along the Worcester Turnpike in Newton Highlands, about 3:45 a.m. Thursday, this department picked up two bewildered French sailors walking in the general direction of New York. Assuming they'd seen a couple of local belles home and were lost, the suggestion that, perhaps, their ship was at South Boston or Charlestown, brought forth a torrent of French. We just couldn't understand one another. So, aware that one of the Newton Police Department's more or less streamlined officers worked, occasionally, in Newtonville Square, two worried Frenchmen and a tired wanderer of the night drove down there, so's to catch up with Officer Leo Gagnon, who speaks the language fluently and could straighten matters out . . .

FRENCH IS FUN

As a matter of fact, much of Gagnon's fun in life, he attributes to his familiarity with the French language. There was that time in Waban, for instance, when leaving an affair up there, four French gals, stepped into a doorway to escape a shower, and between puffs on cigarettes, rehearsed their experiences of the previous evening. Leo, a poor fifth in the same doorway, was utterly ignored other than they substituted French for English . . . That is, he was ignored, until one of the gals confessed she was a bit perplexed about a certain situation. Then, as the others paused in mental search for a solution, Leo suggested one.

Four exclusive creations in hats were ruined as eight high heels tapped hurriedly away in the downpour!

However, to get back to the French sailors, Gagnon wasn't working when we reached Newtonville, so we continued on to Newton Corner. There, a member of the V.F.W. with a smattering of French, decided the sailors would find their ship at the South Boston docks and, although he lived on Parsons street, West Newton, put them in his car and at last sight, they were on the way to Southie.

FIRES, FIREMEN AND FALSE ALARMS . . .

Three false alarms were sounded in Newton, last night, within 45 minutes. The writer, visiting at Fire Alarm Headquarters, was present when the final one came in over the box circuit there, at 2:15 a.m. Two veteran firemen in charge, Carl Eschelbach and Arthur Pierce, working as a team, Eschelbach calling the box number and Pierce sending it out via transmitter to every Newton fire station, had the box number ringing in Wellesley, Needham, Boston, Waltham, Watertown and Brookline stations, also, within 10 seconds. The Newton apparatus responding to that particular alarm, they explained, would be rolling out of their respective fire houses within 30 seconds.

According to Eschelbach, a member of the Department since 1912, and Pierce who signed on in 1922, Newton's Fire Alarm Headquarters is one of the most efficient in the country. Should Edison Electric Power fail, a big gas engine starts operating automatically, so that Newton's fire alarm system is never at the mercy of the elements.

Space doesn't permit a description of the many electrical boards, recording devices and the all around mechanical perfection at Centre street headquarters. You'd enjoy reading about it, and understand all of it, too, we're sure, could it be jotted down! However, can you imagine being sound asleep in bed, one moment, and then find yourself bouncing around on the hurricane deck of a racing fire engine 30 seconds later? Uh, huh. It takes us 30 seconds to get our eyes open, too.

Newton Archers

Seventy archers representing clubs from several states attended the annual club and open championship tournament of the Newton Archers on Labor Day at the Newton Centre Playground. Mr. K. C. Simonds was Field Captain, and as president of the club, presented thirty-six prizes in the various divisions and specialty rounds to club members as well as visitors.

Outstanding events of the day was the announcement of a new ladies' champion, Miss Dorothy Stevens of Wellesley Hills. Close runner-up for second place was Miss Theima Phillips who has been club champion for several years. Third place went to Mrs. Lester Turner.

Adrian Matthews retained the men's championship, with Russell (Pat) Moore placing second. Third place winner was Lester Turner.

Among the Junior group Raymond Buell easily took top honors to become the new junior champion. Second, Allan Billingsley; third, Kenneth Morse. The Mariner Junior Handicap cup was awarded to young Billingsley.

In the women's division the 50 yard range prize was won by Lenice Simonds, 50 yards, Lena Lewis; 40 yards, Grace Harrison; 30 yards, Elizabeth Warner. In the men's division, 100 yards, Henry Schreiber; 80 yards, Everett Annis; 60 yards, Harold Black; 50 yards, Eugene Small; 40 yards, Fred Noyes.

Prizes for the highest three places in all groups were awarded visitors, with Mr. and Mrs. James Waterman of Springfield winning top position.

In a specialty event of instinctive shooting first place prizes were taken by Blanche Simonds and Pat Moore in the adult group, Allan Billingsley for the juniors.

CHECKING UP ON HEALTH

If we read in the paper that a train hit an automobile and a man was killed, we are shocked at the tragic waste of life and wonder why the automobile driver did not take time to "stop, look and listen."

It is just as tragic when people fail to take time to check up on their health. Each year many lives are lost because people take chances with health.

There are some diseases which have no specific outward symptoms in their early stages, yet they are deadly diseases and, if unchecked, will cause death. Tuberculosis, the disease which kills the greatest number of persons who die between the ages of 15 and 45, is one of these.

Unfortunately, tuberculosis does not ring a bell or put up a "stop" sign when it first takes a person. The first signs of danger appear only after the disease has made considerable headway. Nevertheless, there is a way to check up on tuberculosis before it has had time to cause grave injury.

The way to keep ahead of tuberculosis is to have periodic chest X-ray examinations.

X-ray pictures of the lungs will reveal the presence of tuberculosis while it is still in its early stages, before outward symptoms appear and when it can be treated effectively. For tuberculosis, even though it is a serious disease, can be checked in its early stages before the lung has been badly damaged. The less damage done by the time treatment is begun, the greater are the chances of recovery.

If we wait for the first symptoms of the disease—loss of weight, a constant tired feeling and a persistent cough—the disease will have progressed to the point where the "cure" will be a long process.

It does not take long to have a chest X-ray. The X-ray itself actually takes only a few seconds. A few minutes taken out of a day may save months of treatment in a hospital. Neglecting to take time to have periodic chest X-rays is as foolish as failing to heed "Stop, Look, Listen" signs at a railroad crossing.

It is just plain, common sense to have periodic chest X-rays. This is the only way to find tuberculosis when it first attacks. There is another advantage, too. If our lungs are sound and healthy, the X-ray will reveal this, too. And it is mighty good to be certain we are not harboring a disease.

Fish and Game Notes

Fishing activity has been almost eclipsed by an overwhelming interest in the pheasant release program. According to James F. Power, Director of the Division of Fisheries and Game, stocking has been well ahead of schedule and the birds that are now being released are more numerous and in better condition than in previous years. More than one conservation officer has reported that the pheasants he has released are of an unparalleled quality. This, despite the fact that the Division has by no means recovered from production slashes brought about by the war, should be an extremely happy message to bird hunters and, while there is certainly no super-abundance of quail, the fact that the pheasant population has been vigorously increased should certainly satisfy the bird men.

We hear from Conservation Officer Leon E. Myatt of Framingham that he has just made his releases of young pheasants and he tells us that the hunters in his area should be pleasantly surprised. Moreover, on checking some of the duck breeding areas in the district, he has encountered an enormous quantity of these amphibians and is sure that this will be a merry season for duck hunters. Although Leon is loathe to broach the subject to nature lovers, he would like it honestly understood that the public is not to pick up young squirrels, rabbits, raccoons and other mammals. All of these animals are protected by law and there is a heavy fine for taking them in closed season. Leon asks that people refrain from handling these animals as it too frequently brings about estrangement from the mother and subsequent death.

From Conservation Officer Ed Jensen's observations, rabbit hunting should have a very good season. He advises that he no more skirts their covers without seeing many young rabbits bounding about. This should be an excellent sign of this summer's having been a good breeding season for rabbits.

Savings Banks Offer Life Insurance 'Over the Counter'

Evidence that savings bank life insurance is primarily being purchased by a section of the public which is not being actively cultivated by life insurance agents is shown in preliminary results of a recent survey by the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council of Massachusetts, made public today.

In response to the question "How recently have you been interviewed by a life insurance agent?" Approximately one in five said "never" and a total of 53.1 per cent had not been interviewed within the last year. An additional 21.8 per cent had not been interviewed by a life insurance agent within six months.

The survey was conducted by mail among 5000 recent adult purchasers of savings bank life insurance and the preliminary tabulations were based on the first 840 replies received.

Because the saving bank life insurance plan of merchandising differs from that used by most insurance companies in that policies are purchased "over the counter," one purpose of the study was to determine to what extent solicitation for other types of life insurance is reflected in the issue of savings bank policies.

Of the 641 persons in the preliminary study who reported that they had been interviewed at some time by life insurance agents, 533 said that their decision to buy new insurance had not been the result of the interview. Including the 161 persons who had never been interviewed, a total of 86.7 per cent indicated that they sought their policies on their own initiative.

The policyholders were asked to rank four features of savings bank life insurance in order of importance in their decision to buy. Nearly three out of four, or 72.4 per cent, gave first place to "lowest cost." Absence of "sales pressure" was first with 14.2 per cent and second with 36.5 per cent more.

The survey also disclosed that savings bank life insurance is an important source of new contacts for the banks, with nearly half the policyholders reporting that they did not have a savings account at the bank where they bought their insurance.

Commenting on the survey, Clyde S. Casady, executive vice president of the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council of Massachusetts, said:

"This study gives ample proof that the savings bank is developing their own markets for life insurance, which to a large extent are supplementary to, rather than actively competitive with, those of other life insurance organizations.

"During the last four months more savings bank life insurance has been issued than for any corresponding period since the system was established in 1907. In these times of inflated living costs and high taxes, the low cost of savings bank life insurance, made possible by the over-the-counter method of distribution, has an increasing appeal, particularly in those groups which are evidently not being actively cultivated by others."

ELKS HELP ARMY RECRUITING

NEWLY ELECTED Grand Exalted Ruler Charles E. Broughton, of the BPO Elks (left) warmly endorses the program adopted by the 800,000 members of our 1450 Elks lodges to aid the U. S. Army in its new recruiting drive, as reported to him by Judge James T. Hallinan (right), chairman of the order's National Veteran Service Commission. Said Mr. Broughton, publisher of the Sheboygan, Wis., Press, "We must have a substantial, well trained and well equipped army during these critical times and the Elks are pledged to secure one recruit per month for each 100 members." Police Chief Nicholas Vedicchio, exalted ruler of Newton Lodge of Elks, has endorsed the Elks participation in the recruiting program in Newton.

Urges Vet Housing Violators Be Reported

Violators of the Veterans' Housing Program building restrictions can and should be held in check by the veterans of World War II in whose behalf the restrictions were imposed, Regional CPA Compliance chief John Brownell declared today.

Brownell appealed to veterans and all other supporters of the Veterans' Housing Program to report suspected violators of the housing order to his office at 40 Broad street, Boston. "All complaints will receive prompt attention. Needless work for this office can be cut to the minimum, however if the complainant will first determine whether or not the builder of the suspect construction has displayed either the yellow CPA authorization sign or the red, white, and blue sign issued to all authorized home construction by FHA."

"The only exception to this rule is that FHA does authorize certain home maintenance and repair jobs of more than $400 without issuing a placard, but in most cases these jobs are of such a nature that the essentiality is obvious.

Brownell said that his office has investigated more than 6000 complaints since the federal building ban went into effect on March 26.

"While there is a considerable quantity of apparently unnecessary building going on now, investigation generally shows that the building was either started before March 26 (in which case we have no way of stopping it) or has been authorized by CPA for one reason or another.

"Anyone, particularly veterans for whose housing relief the order is intended, who knows of any construction which is apparently unauthorized by CPA or FHA should immediately report it to the nearest office of the CPA Compliance Department. I promise you that a prompt investigation will be made," Brownell said.

A CPA Compliance office is located in Boston.

Dr. Hitchen Will Preach at W. Newton Unitarian Church

Next Sunday, at the West Newton Unitarian Church, Dr. Herbert Hitchen, the minister, will preach his first sermon since his return from a two months' visit to Europe. As Director of the Department of Foreign Churches for the American Unitarian Association, he flew to England in June, and spent June and July in Czechoslovakia, Austria, Holland, Belgium and England, conferring with the Liberal religious leaders, visiting and speaking at churches, and investigating the post-war conditions.

He attended the conference of the International Association for Liberal Christianity and Religious Freedom at Cambridge, England, and spoke at a mass meeting in London over which the British Home Secretary presided. His sermon subject will be "Worm's Eye and Bird's Eye Views."

Given Scholarships At Wheaton College

Mary Audrey Newton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Newton of 166 Cabot St., Newton, and Renate G. Lieberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo F. Lieberg of 220 Newtonville Ave., Newton, have been awarded scholarships by Wheaton College for the coming year, which will open on Sept. 18.

Miss Newton has been granted one of the six Eliza Baylies Chapin Wheaton Scholarships which were founded by Mrs. Wheaton and since continued by the Trustees. She will return as a sophomore.

Miss Lieberg will hold the Ida Josephine Everett Scholarship, established in 1920 by the Association Class of 1915 in honor of Miss Everett. She will enter upon her junior year.

Hotel Beaconsfield Reopens Hunt Room

The formal opening of the new air-conditioned Hunt Room, the Hotel Beaconsfield's popular cocktail lounge and gathering place for residents of Brookline and Newton will be held Tuesday, September 10 at 6 p. m. That evening from 6 to 9:30 the Oval Dining Room will serve a sumptuous Swedish Smorgasbord and thereafter the Smorgasbord will be served Saturdays from 5:30 to 8.

The Hunt Room has been paneled with oak as a charming contrast to its "hunting pink" or red leather chairs and comfortable lounges which form a cozy and informal gathering place before a huge fireplace. Manager Douglas M. Boone, who is, by the way, a descendant of the famous Daniel Boone, (so he ought to know what is what with a Hunt Room) has been collecting hunting trophies and prints as appropriate and charming decoration on the paneled walls.

Sparkling entertainment by the celebrated organist John Kiley will be offered each night from 6 to 12 in the Hunt Room, beginning next Tuesday. Kiley who is six feet six inches tall, is studio organist and program director at the broadcasting station, WMEX; staff organist at Keith Memorial Theater, organist at the Boston Garden and organist at St. Stephen's Church in the North End.

The Beaconsfield is situated at 1731 Beacon street, Brookline on the Reservoir-Beacon Street, carline.

Barrows - MacDill

White gladioli and ferns decorated the Church of the Redeemer, Chestnut Hill, last Friday, for the marriage of Miss Katherine Ross MacDill and Thomas Shepard Barrows, son of Col. and Mrs. Ralph Gillet Barrows of Brookline. The Rev. Frederick N. Morris, of Newton Centre, performed the eight o'clock ceremony and a reception followed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Leslie MacDill of 40 Beacon street, Chestnut Hill.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Cyril Hamlen Jones, the bride wore her grandmother's wedding gown of ivory satin and a veil of heirloom lace. She carried a bouquet of cream colored roses. Mrs. Richard Spindler, of Philadelphia, was the matron of honor, and Miss Jean MacDill was maid of honor for her sister, Miss Joan Perrin and Miss Mary Frances Ludwig, both of Chestnut Hill; Miss Barbara Barrows, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Peggy Verges of Brookline, Mrs. Britton Chance of Cambridge and Miss Mary Davidson of Washington, D. C. were the bridesmaids.

Richard Shepard Barrows, of Cambridge, was the best man for his brother and the ushers were Anthony Lee Shepard of LaJolla, California, Minot Shepard of Cambridge, Alexander Coombs of Duxbury, and David Taylor and Britton Chance, both of Philadelphia.

The bride was graduated from Milton Academy and Smith College, and is in her final year at the Boston Museum School of Fine Arts. Mr. Barrows is a senior at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he is a member of St. Anthony Hall and the Number Six Club. Mr. and Mrs. Barrows will make their home at 89 Rawson road, Brookline, after September 15, when they return from a cruise along the coast of Maine.

Baldwin - Fitts

A wedding of Newton interest which took place in Durham, New Hampshire, was that of Miss Dorothy Fitts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perley I. Fitts of Durham, and Warren Charles Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Clyde Baldwin of 91 Neholm road, Waban. The Rev. Arnold A. Brown performed the noon ceremony on August 29, in the Community Church of Durham.

Miss Sylvia Fitts was maid of honor for her sister and the bridesmaids were Miss Jean Foulkrod and Miss Mathilda Walsh, both of Durham. John Osgood, of Waban, was the best man and the ushers were Richard Sanitary of Amherst and Robert deLong of Allentown, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Baldwin was graduated from the University of New Hampshire in 1945 and is a member of Kappa Delta, Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Upsilon Omicron. Mr. Baldwin attended Haverford College and served in the Army for three years. He is a senior at the Harvard Medical School.

Berry - Miller

At a double ring ceremony, Miss Eunice Mae Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Miller of Cattaraugus, New York, became the bride of Edward R. Berry, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Berry of 150 Beechavenue, Waban. The Rev. John C. Winget, D. D., superintendent of the Methodist District in Lynn, officiated at the four o'clock ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The bride's gown of white rayon embroidered jersey had a net skirt and her fingertip veil of net fell from a coronet. She carried white roses and gypsophylla. Mrs. Bruce G. Harris of New Britain, Connecticut, was the matron of honor, wearing a blue rayon jersey gown and carrying yellow roses. Lt. Philip P. Bourne, Jr., U. S. Army, was the best man and Bruce G. Harris was the usher.

The bride served for two and a half years in the WAVES in Washington, D. C., and Oklahoma. Mr. Berry was in the Army for two and a half years, serving for two years in the South Pacific. He is now attending Bryant and Stratton Business School. Following a wedding trip to the White Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Berry will live in Waban.

Driscoll - Norton

A recent wedding in the Church of Our Lady, Newton, was that of Miss Jayne Carol Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lucille Norton of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Frederick H. Driscoll, son of Mrs. Katherine Driscoll of 336 Centre street, Newton. The Rev. Francis X. Bransfield performed the four o'clock double ring ceremony on August 24th, and a reception followed at the bridegroom's home.

The bride wore white poplin and carried white roses. She was attended by Miss Ruth McCann, of Milwaukee, who wore light green and carried peach gladioli. Richard Keough was the best man for Mr. Driscoll.

The bride served as a yeoman, first class, in the WAVES, and recently received her discharge. She and Miss McCann, also a WAVE, were stationed in Washington, D. C. Mr. Driscoll served for three years in the Navy and was recently discharged as a gunner's mate, third class.

Following a wedding trip to Cape Cod, Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll will live in Newton.

Bastow - Allen

At a home wedding on Tuesday afternoon, August 27th Miss Noel Jeanette Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percival Allen of 131 Rowe street, Auburndale, became the bride of Charles V. Bastow, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vernon Bastow, of Erie, Pennsylvania. Dr. Ralph Rogers, minister of the Auburndale Congregational Church, performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white styled with a rayon satin bodice, short sleeves and a tulle skirt. Her veil was fingertip length. Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Gifford N. Hartwell, Jr., of Holden, who wore blue taffeta. Donald Bastow, brother of the groom, was best man, and Gifford N. Hartwell, Jr., brother-in-law of the bride, and Richard Bastow, also a brother of the groom, served as ushers.

The bride, a graduate of Cambridge Junior College and the Kathleen Dell School, served in the WAVES for 21 months. Mr. Bastow attended Pitt Center School of the University of Pittsburgh, and served with the Navy for 3½ years in the Pacific theatre. Mr. and Mrs. Bastow will make their home in Erie.

Arbuckle-Mamishian

Miss Lillian Mamishian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haig Mamishian of 32 Champa avenue, Newton Upper Falls and William Wilson Arbuckle, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Arbuckle of 15 Pennsylvania avenue, Newton Upper Falls were married on Saturday, August 31. The Rev. W. Henry Shillington officiated at the 4:30 o'clock ceremony in the First Methodist Church.

The bride wore a gown of white silk Jersey with a finger-tip veil. She carried a white Bible with a shower of white gardenias. The matron of honor, Mrs. Michael Mamishian, sister-in-law of the bride wore a gown of yellow taffeta and carried a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers.

Michael Mamishian, brother of the bride was best man. The ushers were Miss Anna Tennant, cousin of the groom, and Miss Julia Mamishian sister of the bride. They wore orchid gowns and carried bouquets of yellow roses. Mrs. Mamishian wore a gown of aqua crepe with a corsage of yellow roses while Mrs. Arbuckle chose wine velvet with a corsage of talisman roses.

The church was decorated with gladioli, white snowballs and white candles. Mrs. Grace Alardye Holland, aunt of the groom was soloist accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Remond, organist. A reception in the Parish Hall followed the ceremony.

Following a wedding trip to New York and Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Arbuckle will live in Newton Upper Falls.

ONE SPRAYING STOPS MOTH DAMAGE

OR YA-DE MAKES GOOD YOUR LOSS!

Good Housekeeping says "YA-DE is the most widespread, 1st. have ever used."

Here are YA-DE's points of superiority:

• Odorless

• Inexpensive

• Non-Inflammable

• Harmless to Fabrics

• Unaffected by Dry Cleaning

• Guaranteed for Five Years

YA-DE has been called a "miracle mothproof"

One spraying of YA-DE on your clothing, rugs, furniture, etc., and your moth worries are over for years.

YA-DE is so good it is backed by a 5-year written guarantee. This guarantee is like an insurance policy in that if moth damage occurs within 5 years, YA-DE will repair, replace or pay for the damage. And the important thing is that YA-DE costs less and is easier to use.

MOTHS EAT ALL YEAR 'ROUND

As long as the temperature in your home is 55-degrees or more, moths will eat your clothing, woodens, rugs, furniture, etc. YA-DE provides year 'round in or out of storage protection. When you buy wooden articles - no matter if it is January or July - you should treat your purchase with YA-DE at once! Remember, Moths do more damage than fire and you need YA-DE's "insurance like" protection.

BUY GUARANTEED YA-DE NOW!

RECENT DEATHS

Howard Whitmore

Funeral services for Howard Whitmore of 54 Carver road, Newton Highlands, retired Boston attorney and president of the Episcopal Club of Massachusetts, were held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock in St. Paul's Church. Rev. Richard C. Cartmell, the pastor officiated, assisted by Rev. Holmes Whitmore of Milwaukee, a brother of the deceased, and Rev. Samuel Tyler Jr. of Wellesley. Burial was in Mt. Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge.

Mr. Whitmore died on Sunday, September 1, at the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary. He was in his 74th year and was born in Quincy, Illinois, the son of Charles Edward and Ada Jane (Holmes) Whitmore. He was graduated from the Newton High School with the class of 1891 and was a member of the football team. He graduated from Harvard College and Harvard Law School and was admitted to the bar in 1898. He later became associated with the firm of Ropes, Gray, Best, Coolidge and Rugg.

He had been a resident of Newton for 60 years, was a member of the Massachusetts Bar Association and served on the Newton Draft Board during World War I. He was a past master of Zetland Lodge of Masons.

In 1922 he was elected alternate lay delegate to the Episcopal general convention at Portland, Oregon and for the next two years was a delegate to the synod of the New England province.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Helen W. (Hinckley) Whitmore, two sons, Howard Whitmore Jr. of Newton Highlands and Holmes H. Whitmore of Wapole, New Hampshire, a daughter, Mrs. Miriam Walker of Long Island, New York and two brothers, Rev. Holmes Whitmore of Milwaukee, Wisconsin and Charles E. Whitmore of New York.

Timothy J. Kinchla

Funeral services for Timothy J. Kinchla of 77 Wildwood ave., Newtonville were held Tuesday morning, a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated in the Church of Our Lady, by Rev. Francis X. Bransfield assisted by Rev. John J. Quinlan, deacon and Rev. Arthur Norton, sub-deacon. Rev. Richard McHale of St. Patrick's Church, Natick was seated in the sanctuary. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham with prayers by Fr. Norton.

Mr. Kinchla died on Friday, August 30, following a short illness. He was in his 39th year. He is survived by one son, Ronald, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kinchla, two sisters, Miss Mary Kinchla and Mrs. Edward Cannon of Newton and three brothers, George of Detroit, Michigan, Paul of the Merchant Marine and Edward Kinchla, U. S. Navy.

LOOK WHAT YOU CAN GET for only

$10 a month,
for ten years

$3,000.00 STRAIGHT LIFE INSURANCE DEATH BENEFIT
(CASH VALUE $360.30)

$736.59 CASH SAVINGS! (PLUS INTEREST)

Under our new "packaged savings" plan, one simple monthly payment continued for ten years, will provide both substantial cash savings and the life insurance protection that every family needs.

It's simplicity itself! All you have to do is decide how much you can afford to deposit monthly, bring it in to the bank (or mail, if more convenient) and we will divide it between cash savings and insurance
in whatever proportions best suit your particular needs.

This example shows what can be accomplished with a regular deposit of only $10.00 a month for ten years (at age 30). Other "packaged savings" plans may be worked out for a larger - or smaller - monthly deposit; for a longer or shorter period than ten years, for paid-up life insurance or an endowment policy, instead of straight life insurance. The plan is completely flexible—may be tailored to fit your needs!

It's easy to understand, too—but because it is different, there may be questions you'll want to ask.
"Must I continue the plan for the full ten years?" (No, you may stop at any time) "Do I get interest on my savings deposits?" (Yes, at our current rates) "May I make weekly instead of monthly deposits?" (Yes, plans may be arranged for as little as $1 a week), etc., etc.

To answer these and other questions, a new booklet has been prepared. Stop in or write for it now, so you can get started on this streamlined
"packaged savings" program today.

Rev. John T. Golding New Rector, Church Of the Redeemer

The Rev. John T. Golding, who served as a chaplain in the USNR, from January 1945 until May 1946, has been appointed rector of the Church of the Redeemer, Chestnut Hill, and will begin his pastorate Sunday, September 15.

Mr. Golding was born in St.
Joseph, Mo., in 1909 and is a graduate of Haverford College and the Episcopal Theological School. He was ordained in June 1934 by Bishop Sherrill, after which he studied at Munich and Marburg and later took postgraduate work at the Union Theological and General Theological Seminaries in New York.
He has served as assistant chaplain at Columbia University,
as a staff member of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York and as lecturer and head of the department of philosophy
at Bard College, Columbia University. In 1939 he became rector of a parish at Martha's Vineyard and three years later was rector of St. John's Church in Glocester.

His wife, the former Josephine Barber, is the daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. Courtenay Barber of Chicago and Edgartown, Mass.

Postmaster Advises Veterans to Use Registry Service

In view of the large number of veteran's terminal pay applications now being received in the mails here, and because of the fact that many applications are being accompanied by records of importance, Postmaster Patrick
J. Connelly yesterday urged that veterans use the postal registry service to provide maximum protection, through issuance of a receipt on mailing and the fact that the postoffice secures a receipt for registered mail on delivery.

While applications must be sent by first-class mail, the postmaster said, it is wiser to make use of the registry service and it is being observed that thousands are availing themselves of it.
The staff of postal clerks at the local postoffice has been increased to accommodate veterans desiring to register their applications and accompanying papers.

Leland Lyons Attains Rank of C.L.U.

Leland F. Lyons of 46 Holly Road, Waban, has attained the rank of C. L. U. (Chartered Life Underwriter) according to an announcement made by
the Boston Life Underwriters
Association to which he belongs.

Possession of this hard-earned designation testifies to two important accomplishments. First,
the holder has accepted certain basic professional standards, and secondly, the designation provides the insuring public with a yard stick by which to measure,
at least in some degree, the kind and quality of professional service it may expect from those who hold this designation.

The Boston Life Underwriters
Association is a non-commercial organization which seeks to promote cooperation and good fellowship among the members and brings to them the best in educational lectures by life insurance leaders, thus enabling them
to better serve the public.

The Association is pledged to preserve the right of the American public to be served by the life insurance agent, through creative, intelligent salesmanship, fundamental to the American system of free enterprise.

NEWTON FIRE DEPARTMENT

FIRE PREVENTION SERVICE

Fire losses increase about fifty percent from September to December and usually remain at a high level during all of the cold season. A large portion of these fires are started from defective heating units and chimneys.

Now is the time to check over your heating unit for any defects and remedy them so that it will be in a safe and efficient condition for the coming winter.

Poor and defective chimneys and flues are largely responsible for more fires in the home than any other single cause.
Hundreds of lives and thousands of dollars worth of property are lost each year due to this unnecessary cause. Most of these fires could have been prevented by common sense in proper and careful construction of the chimneys and by keeping them cleaned.

Chimney fires are usually caused by an accumulation of soot, due to imperfect combustion of the fuel and neglect to clean the chimney. The continuous burning of railroad sleepers that have been treated with creosote or woods that have a high resinous content will foul a chimney fairly fast, unless it is cleaned periodically.

All chimneys connected to home heating units, to be reasonably safe from fire, should be cleaned at least once a year. There are several reliable chimney sweeps listed in the New England
Telephone Directory that do this work.

If you have the necessary equipment it can be done by attaching a rope to a brick wrapped in a piece of carpet or burlap
bag or chains and lower and raise it several times on each side of the chimney till it is clean. When this is done inspect the chimney to see that the lining and bricks are secure and safe.
If you discover any cracks or other defects have them corrected
at once.

After you have cleaned the chimney from the top be sure to remove the soot and dirt at the bottom either through the clean-out door if one is provided, or by removing a few bricks. When this is done be sure to close the door or cement the bricks in place securely.

A clean chimney seldom catches on fire. Let us make Newton a city that is free from fires from this unnecessary cause.

Newton Kiwanis Hears B.C. Coach

With the pigskin booters already warming up for the coming season, the Newton Kiwanis Club appropriately heard B. C. backfield coach, Eddie Doherty
review the prospects of his eleven for this Fall. Coach Doherty, former B. C. star, Notre Dame coach and Navy Veteran was introduced by Fire Chief John Keating, Chairman of the Program Committee.

The coach emphasized the schedule as one of the most difficult that B. C. ever faced, meeting teams such as Wake Forest with last year's squad returning complete; King's Point, outstanding Merchant Marine Academy
eleven; Villanova, who is placing much emphasis on football
this year; Georgetown, with many stars back from the Services; Alabama, last year's Rose Bowl champs with their whole star squad back; Tennessee who always plays hard football, and lastly their old rival, Holy Cross, always the big attraction.

Boston like all college elevens has many returning veterans on the squad although several key positions have been assigned to new men. He stated the veterans are all in good physical condition but need plenty of practice

to get in good football trim.
With the quality of the opposition this season, Coach Doherty
is not over-optimistic about B.
C.'s record and said that over-confidence and early season de-fusions of grandeur are a team's worst handicaps and lots of luck
will be needed to produce a winning aggregation. An expert on the "T" formation, it is probable that he will try to develop this successful formation at the Heights.

Chief Nicholas Vedeccio induced Arnold Worth of the Newton Savings Bank into the Club membership.

Visiting Kiwanians were Benjamin F. Louis of Wellesley and Norman N. Guy of Madison, N.
J.

President William Sullivan presided and announced among important coming events, participation by Club golfers, headed by James F. Riggs, in a tournament at Hyannis, and a joint meeting with Newton Rotary at the Brae Burn at which Senator Saltonstall will be the speaker.

Warburg Speaker at 1946 Appeal Dinner

Edward M. M. Warburg, son of the late banker and philanthropist Felix M. Warburg, will address the Keynote Dinner of the Greater Boston 1946 Combined Jewish Appeal on Monday night, September 9, at the Hotel Bradford.

General Chairman Herman
Gilman, in making the announcement, stated that every key volunteer worker in behalf of the Boston campaign of which the United Jewish Appeal is the major beneficiary, is expected to attend the dinner.

Another national figure scheduled to speak at this major campaign function for leading workers is Henry Montor, executive vice chairman of the UJA. Mr.
Montor is overseas at present
but is expected back in this country for the Keynote Dinner
when he will report on current conditions of Jews overseas.

Mr. Warburg, who is national chairman of the Joint Distribution Committee which his father helped found, is presently directing the largest single UJA drive
in the country, the $35,000,000
campaign of the United Jewish Appeal in Greater New York. He is also national co-chairman of the UJA.

Besides his nation-wide reputation as a leader in Jewish philanthropy and Jewish communal causes, Mr. Warburg is among the best informed men in America on the plight of displaced Jews. While serving with the U. S. First Army, in which he rose from enlisted man to captain, he set up the first Displaced Persons camp on D-Day.

Plus-Six. Later, when the allied armies advanced through France,
he helped establish 20 additional DP camps serving over a million persons.

Following his release from the Army about a year ago, Mr. Warburg conducted a special study
for the Joint Distribution Committee on the plight of homeless Jews in Europe. When he came back he accepted the chairmanship of the JDC as well as of the United Jewish Appeal for Greater New York.

Mr. Warburg was graduated from Harvard College in 1932 and taught at Bryn Mawr College.
A patron of the arts, he inau-gured the American Ballet and was active in numerous art institutions. For the past decade, however, he has concentrated his energies in behalf of philanthropic causes.

Besides his activities with the United Jewish Appeal and the Joint Distribution Committee,
Mr. Warburg is a member of the Board of Governors of Hebrew University in Jerusalem and is chairman of the Executive Committee of the American Friends of Hebrew University.

OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES!

We're not suggesting that you pitch
a teepee on our doorstep. But we know how much you, like so many other car owners, want B. F. Goodrich Silvertown on your car, and we know
why. Because you have heard that:

1. The new, better synthetic rubber developed by B. F. Goodrich makes Silvertown run cooler, wear longer than prewar tires.
2. The 35% stronger tire body is made possible by a new, stronger
cord, more cords per inch in the top ply, and an extra shock-absorbing breaker strip.
3. The new wider, flatter "road level"
tread puts more rubber on the road
to share the wear and provide quicker stops, better traction, and more safety on the turns.
4. More than 2,000 tests and 17,000,000 miles of the toughest kind of actual road service developed that the new B. F. Goodrich Silvertown out-wears prewar natural rubber tires.

President Walker of Newton-Wellesley Hospital Makes Challenging Statement

Ralph Schoonmaker To Conduct Community Chorus

Ralph Irwin Schoonmaker, director of public school music in Medford, has been appointed conductor of the Community Chorus of the City of Newton, according to an announcement by C. Hassler Capron, chairman of the governing board.

The first meeting of the season will be held in the auditorium of the F. A. Day Junior High School, Walnut street, Newtonville, on Tuesday, evening, Sept. 17, at 7:45. Plans will be announced for the coming winter and spring, and a complete rehearsal schedule will be drawn up for the first concert to be presented in December.

Mr. Capron has announced that all residents of the city are eligible to join the Community Chorus, and that there is a special need for tenors and basses.

Other members of the governing board include Miss Adelaide B. Fall, secretary; Warren W. Oliver, treasurer; Orville O. Clapper, Roy S. Edwards, Mrs. Kenneth J. Waite and F. Ewing Wilson.

Additional Funds Needed to Meet Increased Cost of Food, Wages, Etc.

Mr. Clifford H. Walker, president of Newton-Wellesley Hospital, in a statement made this week vigorously directs the attention of the people of Newton and Wellesley to the need of larger awards in 1947 from the Community Chests.

"Despite every effort," Mr. Walker said, "to attain economy of operation and repeated increases in its rates and charges, the burden of increased costs in every field—food, supplies, equipment and the like—and the necessity of increasing wages and salaries in practically all departments of the hospital has resulted in an estimated deficit for the year 1946 over and above the amount of existing Community Chest and Wellesley Hospital Fund grants of approximately $45,000.

"The meeting of this deficit gives rise to the most serious problem ever faced by this institution. The hospital is without resources of its own to meet it. Its only unrestricted endowment funds have been reduced to approximately $30,000 and cannot be further drawn upon because there are not only possible, but probable, and even existing urgent demands upon these funds for expenditures necessary to effect efficient and economical continuance of its activities.

"In general all hospitals are meeting the same or similar problems and difficulties involving increased costs of operation. Everyone realizes that costs of food, supplies and equipment have increased markedly and are continuing to increase. It should also be realized that the relatively low compensation traditionally paid to hospital workers will not, under present economic conditions, retain all present employees and will not attract efficient new ones. Furthermore, justice and fairness to those who serve us loyally and faithfully in our hospitals urge us to wish to reward them adequately. It should be understood that the paid personnel of a hospital includes not only nurses and technicians, but laundry, kitchen and housekeeping workers as well.

Republican City Committee Holds Lively Meeting

One of the best-attended and most enthusiastic meetings in the history of the Republican City Committee was held at the Hunnewell Club, Newton, on Thursday evening, September 5, 1946. Mr. John S. Whittemore of Newtonville, chairman of the City Committee, presided.

The Committee voted to give returned veterans and new residents of the city all possible information regarding registration and personal assistance in accomplishing the same.

The various Ward Committees were well represented and it was the consensus of opinion that every member was "rarin' to go" during the coming week of the campaign.

Community Fund This Year For Red Feather Services

Newton Chairmen of Educational Div. Entertained at Home of Mrs. Thresher

The Village chairmen of the Educational Division in Newton for the 1947 Greater Boston Community Fund Campaign were entertained at a morning coffee by the Newton chairman, Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, at her home, 667 Chestnut street, Waban, on Wednesday (Sept. 11). Guests in addition to the Newton chairmen in attendance at the meeting were Mrs. Edward P. Wells, chairman of the Greater Boston Metropolitan Educational Division, Mrs. George Willard Smith, chairman of the Central Area which includes Newton, and Miss Marguerite W. Stoddard, executive secretary of the Educational Division.

Mrs. Wells advised the Newton Chairman in charge of the participating members in the campaign this year, explaining that the Fund is reverting to a Community Fund from the War Fund, the partners this year for the first time in six years being Red Feather Services only. Miss Stoddard discussed the program for the Educational Division for the coming campaign and emphasized the need for the campaign.

OUR TOWN AFTER MIDNIGHT

By PAUL CONSIDINE

It begins to appear that, so far as beaching's concerned, the summer's definitely over. There is but little traffic Capeward, over route 128, as compared to the steady week-end streams racing for the cool waters down there during the interval since our alleged New England summer set in a few months ago.

Offhand, it seems that vacationing, hereabouts, reached its peak during the month of July. Resurrected jalopies, scrapyard bait, most of them, vied with sleek 1946 model cars for the fast moving outside lanes, in the weekly trek to New England's various beauty spots of Vacationland. One Sunday morning, at six by the clock, this writer counted twelve stalled cars at the side of the road, suffering from motor trouble, or the effects of hard driving on worn tires, during a ride from Newton Highlands to the Dedham line. An early start was mandatory for the harder brethren who drove the more ancient vehicles for, on an average, (Continued on Page 9)

Fr. Barrette Succeeds Late Fr. Robichaud As Parish Priest

The appointment of Rev. Sylvio W. Barrette as parish priest of St. Jean L'Evangeliste Church, Newton, to succeed the late Fr. Joseph E. Robichaud, was announced on Friday by Archbishop Richard J. Cushing.

Fr. Barrette who has been serving as administrator of the parish was born in Lowell in 1898. He was graduated from Assumption College in Quebec and from St. John's Seminary, Brighton. He was ordained to the priesthood in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston by the late Cardinal O'Connell. He served in the Sacred Heart Church, Amesbury, St. Stephen's Church, Framingham, St. Jean L'Evangeliste Church, Newton, St. Catherine's Church, Graniteville and St. Mary's Church, Marlboro before returning to the Newton parish last Spring as administrator.

60th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. Stafford of 38 Richardson Street, Newton, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on Saturday, September 7. They were married in Michigan and came to Newton in 1900 where they have since made their home. Mr. Stafford is a retired business man. A lawn party was held in their home of their son, Professor Henry H. Stafford of Windermere Road, Auburndale. Mr. and Mrs. Stafford received many cards, beautiful flowers and gifts. The Staffords also have a daughter, Miss Katherine K. Stafford, who makes her home with them in Newton, and two grandchildren.

Hoyt Succeeds the Late Geo. A. Bacon As Alderman

Franklin K. Hoyt of 136 Woodland Road, Auburndale was elected Alderman - at - Large from Ward 4 at the meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night to fill the vacancy caused by the death of George A. Bacon. The vote was unanimous with 18 members of the board who were present voting for Hoyt, two aldermen being absent. Alderman Arthur H. Cox of Ward 4 put Hoyt's name in for nomination and it was seconded by Alderman Wendell R. Bauckman of Ward 5.

Mr. Hoyt, a resident of Newton for 38 years, was born in Indiana September 11, 1907. He was graduated from the Newton High School in 1925 and from Phillips Academy, Andover in 1926. He received his A. B. degree from Harvard University in 1930. (Continued on Page 4)

Wake Up Newton

Massachusetts is a little state, fifth in size, but she handles more retail trade than 39 other states, with eight of the 103 cities over 100,000 and seven of the 113 cities 50 to 100,000. Only four metropolitan cities pass Boston in population. The Bay State stands 10th in average size and 9th in total Federal income tax payments. She is 8th in manufactured products, 7th in total Internal Revenue receipts, yet her industrial record was once even brighter.

Why is all this? Heritage? Schooling? While rugged New England and climate build character we ponder as we tour the Western states and read markers where Jonas Brown trekked overland from Worcester in 1842 whether we lost a precious store of intestinal fortitude to other parts. How much have we suffered by raising fine young stock and not supplying development at home to hold them with us? We have pioneered in capitalizing industry elsewhere, and we hold the bonds of many other states and cities, covering the cost of their modern development. Our educational institutions have graduated many leaders who are settled elsewhere.

In the old records of City Hall are entries recording where Newton paid its members of the Colonial Army while Washington was struggling for financial support. Newton has always led in paying its way, has always been an inherently sound community, yet today we are struggling to have our cities handle their present-day traffic and parking problems. Does the same influence that caused our young men to move out still tend to retard wide local advancement so that our young folk trek to more modern parts where conditions are more courageously dealt with?

WAKE UP NEWTON and resume leadership in caring for present-day needs. That is the spirit of our citizens. Let's tackle the off-street parking problem realistically.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

President Truman

Last Sunday I had the privilege of entertaining one of our real old-time residents. We eventually got around to discussing political matters. I asked my friend, whose affiliations in the political world were unknown to me, how he sized up President Truman on the basis of his record to date. His comment was exceedingly interesting. It was to the effect that the President seemed "definitely inadequate to his task." I thought that that was a most kind and Christian comment. In his younger days this fine gentleman might well have spoken more vigorously, but still in a kindly manner.

My own feeling at this moment is that Justice Douglas of the Supreme Court, who was the other man whom the late President privately endorsed PRIOR to the 1944 Democratic convention, would have proved far more satisfactory. So would Secretary of State Byrnes, currently doing an outstanding job in Europe. Byrnes has reason to expect the green light from F.D.R. However, the late Sidney Hillman would have none of Mr. Byrnes and that ended our Secretary of State's aspirations.

What is wrong with this country today? Primarily, the lack of vigorous, two-fisted leadership. I'll admit that some of the old Roosevelt haters are in a delicate and embarrassing position right now. They used to object most strenuously to F. D. R.'s dynamic and almost dictatorial manner of carrying on the affairs of state. However, we all had the satisfaction of knowing precisely what our President thought about any and all important problems and policies. Whenever he got in a jam, whether in national or international affairs, we had supreme confidence that Mr. Roosevelt would DO something. Frequently, too, it required courage, of which he had plenty.

What's the story now? Personally, I never know just what Mr. Truman is going to do about anything. All I do know is that on labor matters he will invariably lean over backwards and appease any and all labor leaders if it is humanly possible. Here we have our shipping tied up, to the detriment of UNRA and the hungry people in foreign lands, a bad truckmen's strike in New York, the serious threat of a light and power tie-up in Pittsburgh, to say nothing about some vague threats of a general strike throughout the country. The OPA is with us again, the black market is all set to worry the life out of us, we have a shortage of meat, sugar, white shirts, mens' suits and, worst of all, we are so short of proper housing for our world war two veterans that the divorce rate in this vital group of citizens is jumping up and up. Veterans are living in army barracks, tourist cabins, renovated hen-coops, attics, trailers and, in fact, about anywhere except in a real, honest-to-goodness house or apartment. Shame on us all for permitting such a wretched state of affairs for so long a time.

All this has been going on for many, many months. Despite that fact, President Truman saw no reason for postponing his much-publicized eighteen days vacation, during which he at home, including all war veterans, were regaled with stories about the President's skill as a fisherman, his ruddy health and his enjoyment of the White House buffet, Mr. George Allen. Incidentally, he slapped New Englanders in the face by changing his plans at the last minute and deserting this neck of the woods for warm Bermuda.

And Congress? What can we say about these gentlemen, who left Washington for no other reason than that they insisted on going back home to repair their shaky political fences? They would have been much smarter had they stayed in session long enough to do SOMETHING, however little about both the shortage of housing and the terrible labor situation. I suggest to my readers that they watch closely what happens in November. I predict a lot of Congressional casualties at the polls. The average voter is a very patient man; so is the poor white-collared sufferer. Both have their limits, however, and the professional politicians may suddenly wake up this fall and discover what these limits are. Let us hope so.

Republican City Committee
In connection with what one of Governor Tobin's special writers in a Boston paper had to say this morning, I would like to make a few brief comments. This writer stated flatly that Lt. Governor Bradford could not seem to find any issue to use against His Excellency. That is a laugh.

Anybody who attended the meeting of the Republican City Committee a week ago could have provided this sadly uninformed political writer with a great deal of information. For example, many of us feel that the wiping out of the Saltonstall state surplus of about $19,000,000 is quite an issue all by itself. There are also those who feel strongly about the political beheading of men like our own Julius Warren as Commissioner of Education. Reason: job needed for a deserving Democrat. It's as simple as that. Again, a study of appointments by the Governor will show some rather horrible errors of judgment.

Truly, the boom on Brighton Hill is great! Land is not only selling fast, but even stone posts find ready purchasers. Mr. H. D. Copley has bought the posts at the entrance to Copley street, to ensure that they shall remain there.

Mr. N. P. Coburn is soon to retire from the firm of William Claflin, Coburn & Co., one of the oldest and largest shoe firms in the country. It was founded by Lee Claflin in 1815. Mr. Coburn retires from active business with the respect of all with whom he has ever been drawn in intimate contact.

The old bank building (Newton) has begun its weary travel up Washington street, and the street will be blocked up for six weeks.

Our village is greatly favored by the new artificial stone platform at the railroad station. We congratulate ourselves on the slight inconvenience of the changes, compared with those of the lower villages. Auburndale item.

With bridges over the railroad tracks at Church street, Richardson street, Centre place, Centre street, Washington street and St. James street there ought to be no serious trouble in getting from one side of the tracks to the other. Whether, as some think, the depression of the tracks is to do away with all distinction between the different sides remains to be seen. Newton item.

Free postal delivery is again being agitated by the residents of Newtonville, and a petition in its favor, which has been in circulation for several days, is being largely signed. All parts of the city have been entitled to free delivery for years, but the system has been put in operation only in Wards One and Seven and a portion of Ward Two. Plans for free delivery in the remaining wards have been prepared by the department inspectors, and are now on file, but nothing has been done in the matter. It is now proposed to prepare a petition for circulation in all parts of the city, and to obtain, if possible, 15,000 signatures.

The Newton Constabulary will have a Field Day at Norumbega Park on October 1st, next. The affair will be for the purpose of a reunion and also to enable the men to receive their honorable discharges from the hands of His Honor, the Mayor.

The attention of real estate owners is called to the proposed new zoning ordinance on which a public hearing will be given at City Hall on September 19. As the greater part of the city will undoubtedly be restricted to single residences, practically every owner will have an interest in the establishment of the zoning system. It is understood that the committee in charge of the matter will endeavor to hold local meetings in each ward to learn the wishes of the citizens in regard to manner in which the various districts will be outlined.

Former Alderman Gets Army Discharge

Eugene A. Cronin, has received his honorable discharge from the U. S. Army and has returned to his former position with the Clapper Company, West Newton. Before joining the army in 1942 where he held a lieutenant's commission, Cronin was a member of the Newton Board of Aldermen. He became associated with the Clapper organization about 14 years ago.

The former lieutenant is married and his wife and child are making their home with her mother in Canada, where they will remain until a home is found for them in Newton.

Incidentally, this was the largest meeting of our G.O.P. City Committee in many years. Registration was the chief topic of the evening. Local Democrats are hereby tipped off that this is going to be a tough year for them in Newton.

Weekly Quiz
The answer to last week's quiz is as follows: The last resident of Newtonville to serve as Mayor of Newton was John A. Fenno in 1893-1894. Mr. Fenno was our ninth Mayor. According to our City Hall authorities (and there are none better), there has never been a Mayor from Waban. This week's question is: "Who was the first Mayor of Newton and what village did he reside in? Also, name the man whom Edwin O. Childs, Esq. defeated the FIRST time he was elected Mayor, thirty-three years ago." ATTENTION: We offer a prize of a carton of cigarettes or a box of grade A candy to the first reader who phones or writes in the correct answer to the above question.

Regaining lost health is usually a painful process. It involves suffering, expense, loss of time from work and interruption of normal activities.

Keeping healthy is painless and can be a lot of fun. It involves following a few common sense rules and applying the knowledge science has made available to prevent illness.

The person who had the good fortune to be born healthy and who lives in a community which has adopted sound measures for the control of disease is off to the best start. He should capitalize on his advantages by forming good health habits.

It does not take much effort to learn to eat wisely, exercise properly, get sufficient rest and have routine physical examinations, but it is on such simple things as these that health often depends.

Strong bodies are able to resist disease. To build strong bodies it is necessary to eat foods which contain the vitamins and minerals the body requires for nourishment.

These basic food needs are contained in fresh fruits and vegetables, milk, eggs, fish and meat, butter and other fats, bread and whole grain cereals. These are essential foods and should be included in the daily diet of every normal person. Monotony can be avoided by varying the selection of foods within these classifications. Why not substitute fish for meat occasionally, custards for milk? Vegetables should be selected from both the green and yellow varieties.

Essential to maintaining good health also are sufficient rest, proper exercise and personal cleanliness. Disease is spread by germs, which may be carried to the mouth by the hands. The hands should always be washed carefully before preparing meals and before eating. Soap is a good disinfectant. Soap and water used freely in the home will save many a doctor's bill.

One of the wisest health rules to follow is to have regular physical examinations. A physician will detect signs of impending illness and suggest remedies before serious damage is done to health. There is nothing to be gained by taking chances with health.

Red Cross Donates Surplus Supplies
To Newton Agencies

Mr. Charles B. Floyd, Chairman of the Newton Red Cross, has announced that the Newton Chapter has recently given away certain materials to other Newton agencies in order to avoid waste due to deterioration and that useful articles may not lie idle. The Newton-Wellesley Hospital has received medical supplies such as iodine, ether and novocaine, 1200 triangular bandages, and some surgical dressings. The Public Health Department has also taken medical supplies, and through them, the schools are to be the recipients of stretchers, blankets and splints. The Boy Scouts were given splints, surgical dressings, and kits.

Mrs. Billings Harris, Executive Secretary of the Newton Red Cross, reports that the Chapter keeps well-equipped to handle any disaster emergency, but that the above were surplus materials. In the interests of conservation they should be placed where they would be put to good use.

Request Lowering Of Saw Mill Brook
In Newton Centre

A public hearing was held before the Board of Aldermen on Monday night on a plea from Walter A. Devine, town engineer of Brookline, that the lowering of Saw Mill Brook in Newton Centre was essential to the 1,000 home building project in that town. Devine told the Board that he had been authorized by the Brookline selectmen to state that the town would lower all contiguous brooks in the area in a move to provide adequate drainage for the John Hancock Life Insurance Co. project. The entire district he said is improperly drained and a mosquito breeding area.

Attorney James P. Gallagher, representing Arnold Hartman, owner of the land around Saw Mill Brook, spoke in favor of the lowering, relocating and widening of the brook from Vine street, north and south.

James H. Goddard who has lived at 116 Vine street for the past 25 years, said that he had selected the site as a home because of the natural beauty of the brook and the waterfall, and that there were no more mosquitoes near his home than in any other part of the city. As a taxpayer, he stated, he resented city money being spent for the benefit of real estate men, but if the project was for the public interest he would not oppose it. He pleaded, however, that the work be done in a manner that would not destroy the scenic beauty of the brook.

On a hearing on the petition of the Middlesex and Boston Street Railway Company for a gasoline station on Commonwealth avenue at the corner of Auburn street in Auburndale, Francis P. Turner, attorney for the railway company, stated that the company desired to move their station less than 200 feet to the best. The petition he explained resulted from the sale of most of the land now used as a parking space, as well as Norumbega Park, to Thomas Gill.

Hearings were held on the following petitions for construction of sewers and drains, which were favored by most of the abutters:

Drain and sewer in Charles street, from Elliot street to Margaret road, Ward 5.

Drain and sewer in Frances street, from Elliot street to Margaret road, Ward 5.

Drain and sewer in Margaret road, from Elliot street to Suban place, Ward 5.

President Jamieson announced that for the remainder of the year meetings of the Board will be held on the first and third Mondays of each month and committee meetings will be held on the Thursday evenings preceding the full board meetings.

By this plan of holding committee meetings on a night previous to the full Board meeting it is hoped the extra long Monday night sessions can be avoided.

During the "Y" summer program, from June 24th to August 24th this year, more than one hundred boys were taught to swim and passed their one length beginner test.

Gymnasium classes for boys will start on Monday, October 7. The schedule to be announced later.

Announce Opening Of Red Cross
Work Rooms

Mrs. Charles E. Spencer, Jr., chairman of Production for the Newton Red Cross, announces the following openings of work-rooms in the various villages throughout Newton: Elliot Congregational Church, Newton, September 16; Newton Center Woman's Club House, Newton Center, September 18; Second Congregational Church, West Newton, September 19; Methodist Church, Newton Upper Falls, October 9; Union Church, Waban, October 9. The Auburn-dale and Newtonville work-rooms will open sometime in October on dates to be announced later. The first delivery of materials to Newton Highlands will be made on October 9 and they will be given out any day thereafter at the home of Mrs. Perry Wood, 1 Bowdoin street.

Red Cross volunteers who work at the Chapter House, at 21 Foster street, Newtonville, will be pleased to know that lunches will be served for their convenience each day at one o'clock.

Cooperative Bank League Convention
Opens September 11

The 58th annual convention of the Massachusetts Co-operative Bank League opens at the New Ocean House in Swampscott, Wednesday, September 11. Several hundred delegates from all parts of the Commonwealth, representing 175 co-operative banks, will attend the three-day meeting which will be devoted principally to study and discussion of present-day financial and real estate trends. Inflationary prices, the continuing scarcity of building materials and other aspects of the housing shortage will be closely scrutinized by the bankers, with a view to combating and correcting undesirable conditions, whenever and wherever possible. The plight of the homeless veteran, caught between desperate need and sky-rocketing prices, will receive particular attention.

Among prominent speakers invited to address the several sessions of the convention are Claude L. Benner, vice president, Continental American Life Insurance Company; John S. Gwin, executive secretary, Massachusetts Bankers Association; Henry P. Irv, president, U. S. Savings and Loan League; and F. Earl Wallace, commissioner of banks, Massachusetts. Warren W. Oliver, president of the Massachusetts Co-operative Bank League, will preside.

The business sessions of the convention will terminate with a panel discussion on the subject of "The Shape of Things to Come," featuring national authorities on real estate and home financing, to be followed by the election of officers and the annual banquet.

Newton Newcomers Club

The Newton Newcomers Club met Friday, September 6, at the Newton Center Women's Club, for their usual program of desert and bridge. The business meeting was presided over by Mrs. Carl A. Albrecht. Plans were made for the golfers to meet on Tuesday September 10th at 10 a. m. at the Ponkapoag Golf Club. It was announced that the next meeting would be the annual guest day—Friday, September 20, at the Newton Centre Women's Club.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent playing bridge. Prize winners were Mrs. M. J. Flaherty, first prize; Mrs. J. P. Maloney, second prize; Mrs. W. A. Swallow, third prize, and Mrs. Edward Humphrey, fourth prize.

WILL BOSTON BE DESTROYED?

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 19, 20 and 21, we are holding three Afternoon Conferences at Babson Park, Wellesley, to explain what can be done to prevent World War III and also in what and where investors should keep their money until permanent peace is assured. Admission is free to these Conferences which will begin at 3 P. M. on Thursday and 2:30 P. M. Friday and Saturday. Here are questions to be discussed:

Is Russia delaying the Peace Conference until she can make atomic bombs?

Is Russia using her iron curtain to prevent a peoples' revolution in the meantime?

Is Russia trying to break up the British Empire which is our best ally together with China and possibly India?

Facts lead us to believe that only some miracle can prevent World War III. Furthermore, if World War III is started by Russia, Boston and certain large U. S. Cities are sure to be DESTROYED. Before it is too late, investors should now insure against what this will mean to Government Bonds and the banks of these large cities.

Men's Club of Newton Highlands

The Executive Committee of the Newton Highlands Men's Club held its first meeting of the season last Tuesday evening at the home of its former president, Donald K. Tarbell. Under the leadership of the new president, Earl M. Dushuttle, the Committee has varied and extensive plans for the ensuing year, including numerous events in addition to the regular monthly dinner and entertainment. These will be announced in advance as the season progresses.

The Club will meet on the first Tuesday of each month in the Congregational Church Parish House, beginning on Tuesday evening, October 1st. The first meeting is to be featured as "Bring-a-Guest" night and all members are requested to invite and bring that new neighbor for an evening of good fellowship. The Dinner Committee announces new and postwar arrangements that promise more and better food of the type men enjoy.

Col. Edwin H. Cooper D.S.C. has been engaged to provide the entertainment for this meeting, with a lecture presentation of his natural color motion pictures taken during the war. Following the dinner, the entire evening will be given over to Col. Cooper and his lecture will include "Palestine Today" and like interesting and instructive features. Those who have seen his pictures will need no urging to be present. To the others, we say, come and enjoy a delightful and profitable evening.

The soft ball group of the Club has now closed a successful summer and bowling will soon start its fall season. It is understood

Rotary Club

Reuben H. Markham, foreign correspondent for the Christian Science Monitor, spoke at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club Monday noon at the Brae Burn Country Club. His subject was "What is Russia Doing Today in Southeastern Europe?"

Mr. Markham was one of the few correspondents who was admitted to the Russians after the war to the Balkan countries, but within a short time he was ordered to leave on the basis of absolutely false and invented charges. Mr. Markham has spent about 30 years in Bulgaria and Rumania and is intimately familiar with these countries and their language, so that he could observe first hand what was going on under the Russian regime. He gave a very vivid description of his personal experiences as well as the bloodshed, cruelties and destruction perpetrated in the name of the Communists. He pictured the new force of Russian National Communism as differing only from Hitler's National Socialism in the clench of the fist. While he thought that war was not imminent, nevertheless, due to the fact that we are clashing all over the world with the Russians on widely separated fronts, a showdown is unavoidable, and he urged us to support our government in its new forceful policy towards Russia. We as Americans should not only stand up to preserve our way of life here, but hold out a ray of hope to the rest of the Communist dominated world in its return to freedom.

that the Club will bowl on Monday nights at the Needham alky.

Dining With Jane and Bill

Margaret—Jane, you're a doll to be so patient with my endless questions. It's trouble enough for you having me as a guest without my pestering you about learning to cook.

Jane—I don't mind it a bit. Remember, I was a newlywed myself once and had as many—if not more—questions than you.

Margaret—Fred's really been sweet about my attempts and failures, but I think he was a little peeved when I served the cabbage last night. You see, I had overcooked it and it turned pink. Woe is me!

Jane—There's really nothing to cooking vegetable, Margaret. Just remember these few simple rules:

- 1.—Use as little water as possible (just about an inch in the bottom of the pan).
- 2.—Have your water boiling before adding the vegetables.
- 3.—Cook your vegetables in a covered pan.
- 4.—If there is water left in the pan, save it for gravy or soup.
- 5.—Don't overcook the vegetables. Say, I have a timetable here from the Newton Nutrition Center. Let's take a look at it.

	minutes		minutes
Asparagus	15-20	Spinach	5
Beans, snap	20-30	Summer squash	15
Beans, lima	15-25	Corn on cob	5
Beet greens	5-10	Young beets	30-45
Broccoli	15-25	Young carrots	15-20
Brussels sprouts	15-20	Older carrots	20-25
Cabbage	5-15	Onions	30-40
Peas	10-20	Turnips	15-20

Margaret—That's simple enough to follow. Many thanks, Jane. Now I'll be able to serve Fred vegetables fit for a king.

sized that, because of the changes mentioned by Mrs. Wells, the work of the Educational Division this year is most important.

Mrs. Thresher urged that as many engagements as possible be scheduled during October and November with Newton organizations holding meetings in that period and that contacts be made with the churches and schools for the widest possible publicity. She also discussed the window display program and said that posters and display cards should be used to the fullest degree possible in store windows, banks, railroad stations, etc., so that during the campaign there would be no person in Newton who was not aware that funds were being raised for the yearly needs of the 330 Red Feather Services in Greater Boston.

Chairmen of the Educational Division in Newton for the 1947 Campaign are as follows: Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, Chairman; Miss Katharine Harlow, Assistant Chairman; Mrs. Albert W. Walker, Chairman for Schools; Mrs. Winslow R. Howland, Village Chairman for Auburndale; Mrs.

Newton Women to Be Hostesses at Boston YWCA Open House

Mrs. Samuel A. Levine, 40 Ledges road, Mrs. Kirtley F. Mather of 155 Homer street, Mrs. Lucius E. Thayer of 27 Estabrook road, Mrs. Theron B. Walker of 43 Bowdoin street and Miss Louise M. Walworth of 100 Homer street, Newton, members of the Board of Directors of the Boston YWCA, will be hostesses September 16 and 24 from 5:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Boston YWCA Open House which will preview the many coming activities and officially open the fall season. They will act as guides for the men, women and children of Greater Boston who will be taken through the eight floors of the building on 140 Clarendon street and shown the spacious swimming pool, demonstrations and exhibits of pottery, crafts, music and drama in the "Workshops," demonstrations and movies in the gym and modern dance studio, and floor shows and entertainment in the "Chatterbox" soda bar.

USCG League Holds First Fall Meeting

The first Fall meeting of the Lt. Com. Carl U. Peterson Chapter, U. S. Coast Guard League of Newton was held last Friday evening.

Announcement was made that the annual convention will be held in the Hotel Bradford, Boston, on Saturday, November 2, followed by a banquet and dance in the evening. The national convention will be held in Philadelphia, Pa., on Nov. 6, 7 and 8.

George Dwyer, senior vice-commander, presided at Friday night's meeting in the absence of Commander Charles Keith. J. K. Goggin is the adjutant and C. Elliot Smith the paymaster. A discussion was held on six bills affecting Coast Guard veterans to be brought before the next session of Congress and resolutions were passed approving these measures. Following the business session refreshments were served. Two members who are residents of Springfield, were present.

The chapter meets the first and third Fridays of each month at 251 Washington street, Newton. Any former member of the U. S. Coast Guard is eligible for membership.

Pedestrians are becoming tougher all the time, and they may yet succeed in avoiding extinction. The other day a St. Louis jaywalker, who was bowled over by a street car and then run over by a truck, got up and knocked down a traffic cop who bawled him out.

Perhaps if the politicians would quit worrying about getting Catholics or Jews or Protestants on the ticket and concentrate on naming statesmen, the country would be better off.

Sherman Paper Wins Statewide Safety Contest

An announcement has been received by Sherman Paper Products, Newton Upper Falls, reporting that this company was a winner in a statewide industrial safety contest, sponsored by the Associated Industries of Massachusetts, according to a report by Harold T. Pillsbury, Director of Personnel. The Sherman Company, which was winner of the classification that included large manufacturers of paper products, had no reportable accident and no lost time in the month of July, either for accidents occurring in that or previous months.

The Sherman Company, which employs nearly 600 people, has been staging an extensive safety drive under the leadership of D. S. Roberts, Director of Operations. In addition to the large scale installation of safety devices, a joint management-labor committee has been established, which meets immediately after accidents, to investigate their cause and prevention; also meeting periodically to discuss and correct potential hazards.

Parade of the Poets

The Last Rose of Summer
'Tis the last rose of summer,
left blooming alone;
All her lovely companions have faded and gone.
No flower of her kindred, no
rosebud is high
To reflect back her blushes, or give sigh for sigh.

I'll not leave thee, thou lone one
to pine on the stem;
Since the lovely are sleeping, go,
sleep thou with them.
Thus kindly I'll scatter the leaves
o'er the bed
Where thy mates of the garden
lie scentless and dead.

So soon may I follow when friendships decay,
And from love's shining circle
the gems drop away;
When true hearts lie withered
and fond ones are flown,
Oh, who would inhabit this bleak
world alone!

ONE SPRAYING STOPS MOTH DAMAGE

OR YA-DE MAKES GOOD YOUR LOSS!

Good Housekeepers say "YA-DE is the finest mothproof I have ever used."

Here are YA-DE's points of superiority:

- Odorless
- Colorless
- Inexpensive
- Non-Inflammable
- Harmless to Fabrics
- Unaffected by Dry Cleaning
- Guaranteed for Five Years

YA-DE has been called a "miracle mothproof."

One spraying of YA-DE on your clothing, rugs, furniture, etc., and your moth worries are over for years.

YA-DE is so good it is backed by a 5-year written guarantee. This guarantee is like an insurance policy in that if moth damage occurs within 5 years, YA-DE will repair, replace or pay for the damage. And the important thing is that YA-DE costs less and is easier to use.

MOths EAT ALL YEAR 'ROUND

As long as the temperature in your home is 55-degrees or more, moths will eat your clothing, woollens, rugs, furniture, etc. YA-DE provides year 'round in or out of storage protection. When you buy woollen articles — no matter if it is January or July, — you should treat your purchases with YA-DE at once! Remember, Moths do more damage than fire and you need YA-DE's "insurance like" protection.

Recent Weddings

Greeley - Davenport

Saturday afternoon in Trinity Church, Newton Centre, Miss Evelyn L. Davenport became the bride of Richard F. Greeley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis S. Greeley of Hudson. The Rev. Frederick M. Morris performed the ceremony and a reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin E. Davenport of 44 Montvale Road, Newton Centre.

Lace outlined the neckline of the bride's princess gown of white slipper satin, with tiny bow of satin from the sweetheart neckline to the bottom of the skirt which ended in a train. Her fingertip length veil was of illusion, caught to a cluster of orange blossoms and she carried white gladioli and stephanotis. Miss Shirley Davenport was the maid of honor for her sister and the bridesmaids were Miss Mary Eleanor Greeley and Miss Edith Davenport. The honor attendant wore a white faille gown with a full skirt, round neckline and cap sleeves, while the bridesmaids wore white nylon off-the-shoulder gowns. All attendants carried white gladioli.

Herbert Stratton Greeley was the best man for his brother and the ushers included Louis Paine, Robert T. Ross, Harold E. Moussette and John E. Nichol.

Mrs. Greeley graduated from Simmons College, and Mr. Greeley, who served three years with the Army Medical Corps, attended Tufts College and Harvard University.

Tower - Williamson

A wedding of Newton interest which took place Saturday in Ridgewood, New Jersey was that of Miss Shirley Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Williamson of Ridgewood and Richard Binney Tower, son of Mrs. C. Lothrop Tower of 119 Hancock street, Auburndale. The ceremony was performed in the West Side Presbyterian Church. Wearing a gown of white satin, trimmed at the neckline with illusion and styled with a long train, the bride was attended by Mrs. William Given of Verona, New Jersey, as matron of honor. Miss Peggy Duncan of Jackson Heights, New York was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss June Hiller of Marion, Miss Ellison Keller of New York City, Miss Janet Banks of Ridgewood, and Miss Louise Schweinler of New York. They all wore gowns of pale pink faille while the flower girl, Ellen Day Tower of Los Angeles, California, wore a white frock trimmed with pink.

William D. Leo of Bronxville, New York, was the best man and the ushers included F. D. Tower of Auburndale, J. T. Tower of Los Angeles, F. Williamson, and R. A. Williamson, both of Ridgewood, and A. W. Phillips of Providence, Rhode Island.

Mrs. Tower attended Skidmore College and Mr. Tower attended Vermont Academy and Dartmouth College. Following a trip to Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. Tower will live in Hanover, New Hampshire.

Calkins - Brady

Miss Virginia McCormick Brady and Lt. Evan Calkins, U. S. Army Medical Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grosvenor Calkins of 49 Farlow road, Newton, were married on Saturday at "Barking Waters," the summer home on Long Lake, Michigan, of the bride's parents Dr. and Mrs. Leo Brady of Baltimore, Maryland. The four o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Raymond Calkins, D.D., of Cambridge, uncle of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin, a veil of duchess lace caught to a Juliet cap of seed pearls, and carried white orchids. Her sister, Miss Lucy McCormick, was maid of honor, wearing a gown of silver gray faille and carrying red roses. Mrs. McCormick wore a gown of powder blue with a corsage of gardenias while Mrs. Calkins chose soft green with a corsage of white flowers. Lt. Calkins' small niece and nephew, Susan and Thomas Lightbody, of Shaker Heights, Ohio, were the flower girl and ring bearer. Captain Hugh Calkins, U. S. Army Air Forces, who is on terminal leave, was the best man for his brother.

The bride attended Bryn Mawr and Vassar College and was graduated from the University of Michigan. She is in her second year at John Hopkins Medical School. She made her debut in 1944 and is a member of the Baltimore Junior League. Lt. Calkins was graduated from Milton Academy, Harvard University and Harvard Medical School in 1945. He is a member of the Hasty Pudding Institute of 1770, Alpha Omega Alpha and the Boylston Medical Society. Lt. and Mrs. Calkins will live in Maryland, where he has been assigned to the research laboratory at the Edgewood Arsenal.

Miss Ell to Be Bride of Mr. Strong

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Ell, daughter of the president of Northeastern University and Mrs. Carl Stephen Ell of Newtonville, to Judson Scott Strong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Marston Strong of Great Neck, Long Island, will take place on Saturday, Sept. 21 at Newtonville.

The eight-thirty ceremony will be held at the Methodist Church with Rev. Hamilton Gifford and Dr. Herbert Prince officiating. A reception will follow at Brae Burn Country Club.

The bride, a lieutenant commander in the WAVES, served throughout the war and is now on terminal leave. Mr. Strong was a lieutenant in the Navy and served in the Dutch Indies. There will be several parties for them before the wedding, and the night before the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Ell will entertain for the wedding party.

Mrs. John Nichols will be matron of honor for the bride, whose maid of honor will be Miss Marjorie McMullen, and whose bridesmaids are Mr. Strong's sister, Miss Drury Strong of New York, Miss Elizabeth Armstrong, Mrs. Louis Chamberlain and Mrs. Richard Loud of Chicago, Miss Deborah York of New York and Miss Margaret Royhl of Chicago.

Mr. Strong and his bride will live in New York.

ON THE INSIDE

by MARVIN R. GOULD

During the past week almost every "teen ager" in the entire city of Newton put in an appearance with his buddies or his "gal" at the Elks annual charity circus held at Norumbega Park.

The show was really tops, one of the greatest ever seen by yours truly. Micky Sullivan and his Circus Band added just the right amount of flavor and undertone throughout the entire 14 performances. Bozo, the Clown, and his men in white did a splendid job in keeping the capacity crowds in a gay spirit. Eugene, the Great, Miss Bernice, Win Colleano, and the flying Hartzells kept the crowd breathless with their acts of daring several feet above ground.

The feature act "Sharkey the Seal" was not only amusing but showed just what "patience and fortitude" on the part of Mark Huling, Sharkey's owner and trainer, could do to educate an ordinary seal straight from the Pacific Ocean.

The Newton Lodge of Elks did a wonderful job and all the praise that this reporter can give them is well deserved. One dozen orchids to Nicholas Vedduccio, Exalted Ruler, and all of his fellow Elks.

Once again school has started and "Teen Agers" throughout Newton are once again entering the classrooms of N.H.S. Though this year yours truly is not a student of N.H.S., keep reading this column and through the aid of several friends who are students I shall endeavor to keep my readers "On The Inside" with Newton's teen agers.

Read this column next week for a complete schedule of all N.H.S. sports activities through the season '46-'47.

Poole - Davis

A very pretty wedding was held in the garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Boynton of 47 White Pine road, Elliot Hill, Newton Upper Falls, on Sunday, September 8, when Miss Edith Catherine Davis of Lynn, niece of Mr. Boynton, was married to Clyde E. Poole of Vinalhaven, Maine.

Rev. Harry F. Loud of the Congregational church of North Easton, a personal friend of the bride's father, officiated at the double ring four o'clock ceremony.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a gown of teal blue crepe with a corsage of yellow orchids. A reception attended by 95 guests was held in the garden. The bride was a member of the faculty of Burdett College. Mr. and Mrs. Poole will reside in Vinalhaven, Maine.

—One of our much-married friends says he knows all about remote control, as his wife uses it on him every time he goes downtown alone.

Mattix - McLean

Miss Stuart T. McLean, daughter of Mrs. Arthur McLean of 44 Pettee street, Newton Upper Falls and Dwight R. Mattix, son of Mr. Fred Mattix of Oskaloosa, Iowa, were married at the home of the bride last Saturday. The 3:30 o'clock ceremony was performed by Dr. George L. Murray of the Presbyterian church of Newton.

The bride wore a gown of aqua crepe and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations. Miss Effie McLean, sister of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a gown of yellow crepe and carried a bouquet of yellow daisies with an orchid center. Murray Rogers of Methuen was the best man for Mr. Mattix.

Mr. and Mrs. Mattix will live in Newton Upper Falls when they return from a wedding trip.

—The Census Bureau says there is no shortage of potential husbands. But they have to be persuadable as well as potential.

Sweetser - Thompson

Announcement has been made by Mrs. Herbert E. Thompson of 25 Pleasant street, Newton Centre of the marriage of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth D. Thompson to Albert G. Sweetser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sweetser of 160 Lincoln street, Newton Highlands. The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. Thompson. The wedding took place Saturday at the summer home of the bride's mother in Newcastle, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweetser will make their home in Middletown, Connecticut, where Mr. Sweetser is a member of the faculty at Wesleyan University.

—An old custom in some Alpine regions requires the making of a cheese on the day a child is born. Portions are eaten on special occasions in the life of the child and adult but some is always saved to be served on the day of the funeral of the person in whose honor the cheese was made.

National Service Life Insurance Explained to Vets

"Never in the history of the United States have there been so many misconceptions and misunderstandings about a factor of such importance to the veteran and his family concerning his future security; because never before have so many citizens had the opportunity of owning as large an insurance estate so cheaply as that allowed by the new National Service Life Insurance Act of 1946," said Andrew C. Farnsworth, chairman of the research committee on special state problems of the Massachusetts Civic League.

Mr. Farnsworth, in company with Winslow H. Adams, veteran, and experienced Boston insurance representative, and Robin M. Hartmann, a veteran, appeared last week on Connie Ford's program over radio station WOOP, to explain and clarify to the veteran his rights and benefits under the new National Service Life Insurance Act recently signed by President Truman.

"The liberalization features of this new law concern eligibility, beneficiaries, modes of settlement, conversion rights, and a new disability clause," it was stated.

"Not only is this National Service Life Insurance cheaper than comparable commercial insurance but it is creditor proof and covers without restrictions, travel, occupations, residence, and any service with the armed forces. Also veterans who have never taken advantage of this opportunity during their previous military service may now do so.

"Before the new law went into effect, this insurance was available only to persons in active service. But now, the veteran who had a record of active service at any time between October 8, 1940, and September 2, 1945 can apply for this insurance coverage. He is also able to designate any beneficiary, including the estate of the insured, if his policy had not already matured by the date the new law went into effect. In the past, the beneficiary could be only a member of a restricted group of close relatives.

"Now the veteran's policy may be settled by a number of different methods, any one of which he may elect; whereas formerly, there were unpopular restrictions on how he could provide for his beneficiary with the proceeds of his insurance policy.

"The new legislation provides three permanent plans for converting the term policy; also additional benefits are available in the form of monthly disability income payments which can be included in the policy, at extra cost, at the insured's request.

"A press wireless strike threatens a ban on foreign news. If this includes a ban on foreign propaganda it won't be so bad.

THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"Substance" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, September 15.

The Golden Text, "Wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the Lord is his treasure," is from Isaiah (33:6). Other Bible citations include: "My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee; so that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding; . . . then shalt thou understand the fear of the Lord, and find the knowledge of God" (Proverbs 2:1,2,5).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The time has come for a finite conception of the infinite and of a material body as the seat of Mind to give place to a diviner sense of intelligence and its manifestations,—to the better understanding that Science gives of the Supreme Being, of divine Principle, and idea" (p. 285).

RECENT DEATHS

Joseph A. Kelly

Military funeral services for Joseph A. Kelly, husband of Ann (Reed) Kelly, of 129 Norwood Avenue, Newtonville were held from his home on Monday morning.

A solemn requiem mass was celebrated in the Church of Our Lady at 9 o'clock by Rev. Francis X. Bransfield assisted by Rev. Daniel J. Taglino as deacon and Rev. Arthur I. Norton as sub-deacon. Burial was in St. John's Cemetery, Hopkinton with prayers by Rev. Joseph Bracken of St. John's Church.

A delegation from Sgt. Daley Post V.F.W. was led by Commander Alden C. Dinsmore. Delegations were also present from the Boston and Albany Railroad Trainmen and the Holy Name Society of which the deceased was a member. County Commissioner Edwin O. Childs and Dr. T. Morton Gallagher were among those attending the services.

Mr. Kelley who had been employed as a freight conductor by the Boston & Albany Railroad met with an accidental at Framingham on September 3. He was a veteran of World War I.

Brs. Julia Buchanan

Mrs. Julia McCormick Buchanan of Moravia, N. Y., formerly of Newtonville, died September 4 in the Auburn City Hospital where she had been recuperating since July 11 from a broken hip. Long prominent in church and civic affairs in the Finger Lake region, Mrs. Buchanan was also well known in this city where she frequently made her home during the winter.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Francis J. Flagg of Newtonville, Mrs. Thomas E. Young of Bloomsfontein, South Africa; Mrs. D. Hollander Hall of Pippass, Ky., and Mrs. Frank Thompson of Utica; six grandchildren, Julia Buchanan and Nancy Ferard Flagg of New York, Mrs. Milan Heath of Auburndale, Mass., Mrs. Henry Cate of West Newton, and Celia Buchanan Young of Boston, and Franklin Buchanan Thomson of Utica; also three great-grandchildren, Milan, Thomas and Melville Heath of Auburndale.

Timothy J. Noonan

Funeral services for Timothy J. Noonan, husband of Margaret (McNicholas) Noonan of 919 Walnut street, Newton Highlands were held from his home this morning. A solemn requiem mass was celebrated in the Sacred Heart Church, Newton Centre at 9 a.m. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

Mr. Noonan died on Monday, September 9 following a brief illness. He was in his 74th year and was born in County Limerick, Ireland, the son of Timothy and Ellen (Lane) Noonan. He had been a resident of Newton for 45 years and was employed by the city for 35 years. He was a member of Middlesex Court No. 60, M.C.O.F.

Surviving him besides his wife are three daughters, Mrs. Matthew King, Mrs. Raymond Leary and Miss Helen Noonan and a son, Timothy J. Noonan, Jr.

Joel F. Pollard

Joel Franklin Pollard, 94, formerly of Newton Highlands, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Merritt Potter (Marion Pollard), September 4. Mr. Pollard was born in Hubbardston, Mass., Sept. 8, 1852. As a young man he went to Boston and then lived for 45 years in Newton Highlands. He made his home in Portland for the last nine years. He has been a member of the Congregational Church in Newton Highlands since 1894. His wife, Inez E. (Hodge) Pollard, died in 1925.

Committal services were held at the Pine Grove cemetery in Hubbardston, Sept. 7, attended by members of the Hodge and Pollard families.

Katherine F. Thomas

Funeral services for Mrs. Katherine F. (McDonald) Thomas of 26 a Dalby street, Newton were held from her home on Wednesday morning. A solemn requiem mass was celebrated in the Church of Our Lady by Rev. Francis X. Bransfield assisted by Rev. John H. Quinlan, deacon and Rev. Daniel J. Taglino, sub-deacon. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

Mrs. Thomas died at her home on Saturday, September 7, following a brief illness. She was born in Cambridge and had resided in Newton for 20 years.

She is survived by her husband, Harold J. Thomas, a son, Harold J. Thomas, Jr., a daughter, Norma L. Thomas her father, Maurice J. McDonald of Boston and a sister, Mrs. Frances Merriam of Allston.

fully half the trip's elapsed time was spent underneath the worn-out cars . . .

MADE THEIR OBJECTIVES . . .

They made their objectives, however, and usually managed to have themselves a good time despite the mental and physical hazards of the approaching journey home. During the wee small hours, here, a dozen requests for the lend of a jack, a push, or information as to the whereabouts of the nearest garage were the order of almost every Monday morning. Ailing cars left where they balked, worried mamas and exhausted papas alighted from the owl trolleys, in Newton Corner, with assorted little drooling juniors draped over them, fore and aft, bewilderedly wondering as to how and when, if ever, they'd reach the old homestead . . .
Now, that summer's gone, they can rest for another year
amid the comforts and pleasures of home, restoring the tissues, preparatory to the great day, along about next May 30th, when once again, the same grinning papas, starched mamas and the inevitable brood of freshly scrubbed juniors, with possible additions, once again will sally forth in the eternal search for greener pastures on the other side of the hill.

HOW IT'S DONE . . .

For the past two days, Boston papers have reported the results of Newton, Brookline and Metropolitan police efforts in apprehending the thieves who stole and wrecked an expensive 1946
sedan on Bishopsgate road, Newton Centre, early Tuesday morning. To date, four men are held in heavy bail, alleged by police to be involved in the theft. So far as news reporting's concerned, that ends the case for the time being . . .

However, it seems reasonable to suppose that the average human, reading newspaper accounts of crime and various felonies, may sometime wonder as to what went on during the search for the culprits, what led the searchers unerringly in the direction of the offenders and, particularly, with a couple of million possible suspects to choose from, how they usually narrow the search down to a few.

ESCAPED IN FOG . . .

In the case of the stolen car on Bishopsgate road, it all began when Metropolitan Police Officers Thomas Hamilton and Patrick
O'Neill, cruising slowly through the heavy fog on Hammondpond Parkway, at approximately 2:25 a.m. Tuesday, suddenly discovered two cars parked abreast, directly in their path. The cruiser was evidently sighted at the same time, for its motor roaring, one of the parked cars raced away into the fog. Mentally noting the number of the other car as they passed, the M.D.C. officers pursued the fleeing car to Beacon street and Bishopsgate road, where they saw it smash against an abutment, crash head on into a large boulder, then rebound across the street to knock down a telegraph pole. With the area thrown into darkness, plus the heavy fog, the occupants of the wrecked car escaped.

Telephone calls from Bishopsgate road residents to Newton Police Headquarters resulted in an ambulance, three cruisers and all available Newton police officers being rushed to the scene by the officer in charge, Sergeant Walker. Under the command of Sergeant Thomas McCormack, Newton police officers Cunningham, Gauguin, Whelan, Cassavant, Mahoney, Cornish, White, Concan-non and Motherway, with Metropolitan and Boston police, scoured
the neighborhood until dawn, without success, for the two men known to have been in the stolen car.

CONCANNON SUSPICIOUS . . .

In the meantime, shortly after the crash, the car passed by the M.D.C. officers on Hammond Pond Parkway, appeared on the scene. Concannon, the senior officer in Division One cruiser, suspicious of the occupants, questioned them as to what they knew concerning the stolen car. It was Concannon's opinion at the time, he said later, that they were remaining in the vicinity so's to pick up, if possible, the men who'd escaped from the wrecked automobile on Bishopsgate road. They had no information to offer, according to Concannon, other than to say they'd been having motor trouble and that the driver of the stolen car had pulled up alongside with an offer of assistance.

Checking the registration and the operator's license, the car was allowed to proceed, but later in the day both men were arrested by Newton police and held in $2,000 bonds. Rearrested immediately by Brookline police the men, with two others, were held in heavy bail in that town.

DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS STOLEN . . .

That's the case to date. The suspicions of a Newton cop and the alertness of two M.D.C. men broke it wide open, according to police, and it happened in our town after midnight. An army of cops scoured Newton Centre while the good citizens up there
slumbered peacefully—as did the gentleman most concerned—
Mr. George J. Abdell, 135 Beverly road, Brookline, the owner of the wreck that once was a sharp 1946 sedan. Mr. Abdell, when awakened by Sergeant McCormack, sleepily informed that har-rassed minion of the law that he was entirely unaware his car had been stolen. Informed by McCormack that the pieces were up on Bishopsgate road, he turned his eyes toward Heaven, muttering continuously in an undertone. Mr. Abdell was probably praying.

Gov. Tobin Heads Committee for Nurses' Memorial

A campaign to raise funds for the erection of a practical and permanent memorial to nurses and other women serving in the medical profession during World War II, will be headed by Gov. Maurice J. Tobin who will hold the position of honorary chairman for Massachusetts, according to a recent announcement by Martin E. Adamo, New England chairman.

The campaign will be opened by ceremonies at the Parkman Bandstand on Boston Common

September 16. Other committee members include Dr. Joshua Roth Liebman of Brookline, Archbishop Richard J. Cushing of Brighton, and Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill of Boston.

The dinner is sponsored by the Women's Wear Division of the CJA.

Gilman General Chairman Jewish Appeal Campaign

Herman Gilman of 53 Park avenue, Newton, general chairman of the 1946 Greater Boston Combined Jewish Appeal campaign, will be honored with a testimonial dinner at the Pinebrook Country Club on Monday night, September 16, by the Women's Wear Division of the drive, it was announced today.

President of the New England Apparel Industries, Mr. Gilman has been active in community affairs for over a decade during which time he served as captain and chairman of the Women's Wear Division. The testimonial is being given in recognition of Mr. Gilman's many years of faithful service to the community and for his services as a leader of the Combined Jewish Appeal of which the nation-wide $100,000,000 United Jewish Appeal for refugees, overseas needs and Palestine will be the beneficiary.

Oscar Cohen and Joseph Warshaw, co-chairmen of the Women's Wear Division will serve as co-chairmen of the testimonial dinner. Included in the program will be a golf tournament which will be open to all attending the dinner.

The principal speaker will be Quentin Reynolds, noted war correspondent, author, and radio commentator who recently returned from a three-month tour of Europe. He will report on conditions of displaced and

Bonus Kept State from Lowest Debt

(Special to the Citizen)

STATE HOUSE—But for the $20,000,000 cost of the state veterans bonus, Massachusetts would have recorded the lowest direct debt in its history, it was revealed today as the State Comptroller's office neared completion of additions and subtractions to show the status of state finances.

A $9,000,000 reduction in the $19,000,000 surplus left by former Governor Saltonstall was explained by Comptroller Fred C. Moncewicz to be due to a lower state tax levied on cities and towns, increased legislative spending and decreased taxation revenue.

Including this year's $5,000,000 state tax, a total of $60,000,000 was collected from taxation while collections reached $64,000,000 during the 1945 fiscal year when a $12,800,000 state tax was levied.

A highway fund surplus of $7,000,000 in 1945 declined to $1,600,000 but $12,000,000 was spent for highway purposes in contrast to $7,600,000 expended during 1945.

Legislative appropriations reached $71,000,000 this fiscal year while $57,000,000 was appropriated during the 1945 year. An additional million in federal grants was accepted by Massachusetts during the 1946 fiscal year—a total of $26,017,000.

Money spent by the state which will be repaid by cities and towns totalled $51,021,000 while the 1945 figure was $52,670,000. Highway fund expenditures nearly doubled to $37,746,000 over the $19,238,000 spent during the 1945 fiscal year.

Asks Release Of Housing Materials

Regional CPA Director William P. Homans today called upon all persons holding building materials for enterprises such as race tracks, theatres, and other entertainment projects whose completion or expansion have no chance of receiving CPA approval, to release these materials for the construction of veterans' housing.

"Portions of some such projects were barely started before the Veterans' Housing Program Order Number 1 took effect on March 26 and cannot legally be completed without authorization. Why use any more materials on them under these circumstances?" Homans asked.

Babson to Hold 33rd Annual Business Conference

This year, the 33rd Annual Business Conference will be held on the Babson Institute campus in the Richard Knight Auditorium, Wellesley avenue, Wellesley Hills, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 19, 20 and 21. The general theme of the Conference will be "Is the Bull Market Over?" An unusually large number of reservations have been made by investors and businessmen from all over the country, to attend the proceedings, indicating a large amount of interest in the Conference this year.

The opening session of the Conference will begin at 3 P. M., Thursday, September 19th with an Open-Forum discussion on the subject of "Has the Bull Market Culminated Due to Fear of World War III or to Some Other Causes?" This Open-Forum discussion will be led by leading "bulls" and "bears" of the investment world, who will express their frank opinion on the sudden instability which has developed in the stock market. After these experts have had their say, the meeting will be thrown open for a general discussion, in which the audience will be encouraged to express their ideas, pro and con, on the present market. A considerable number of the Boston investment fraternity are expected to take an active part in the proceedings which will be open to the public.

The meeting will be presided over by Mr. Arthur C. Babson. On Friday, September 20th, the afternoon session will commence at 2:30 P. M., with Mr. Dwight G. W. Hollister, President of the A. P. W. Products Co., Inc., presiding. The general theme of this meeting will be "How Would World War III Affect Investments, Real Estate and Commodities?" Speakers scheduled for this afternoon meeting will be Dr. Leonard M. Spangenberg, economist, who will speak on the subject "Business and Commodity Outlook," Dr. Oscar S. Brinkman, Washington Correspondent, will speak on "The Political and Labor Outlook" and Mr. H. C. Baldwin, financial expert will speak on the "Outlook for Stocks and Bonds."

Following the presentation of these addresses, the meeting will be thrown open for a general question period in which the speakers will answer questions from the audience. The final meeting of the Conference will commence at 2:30 P. M., Saturday, September 21st.

Kenneth J. Merrill Jr. Ranked to Rank of Major

Kenneth J. Merrill Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Merrill of 542 California street, Newtonville, who was seriously wounded in France on December 15, 1944, while serving with the Army Combat Engineers, has been promoted to the rank of major at the Valley Forge General Hospital, Phoenixville, Pa. where he is still a patient.

Major Merrill enlisted in the Army in April 1942. He attended Officers' Training School at Camp Belvoir, Va. and was sent overseas in October 1944. He was awarded a Bronze Star and the Purple Heart medal with citations. Before entering the Army he attended Newton High School and Tilton Academy.

Newton Centre

Herbert M. Thurston, 39 Paul street, Newton Centre, has been notified by the American College of Life Underwriters that he is one of three New England Mutual representatives to be awarded a College of Life Underwriters designation. Mr. Thurston was among 128 candidates, from all over the country, who qualified this year after five comprehensive examinations.

As in past years, this final meeting will be presided over by Mr. Roger W. Babson. The general theme of the meeting will be "Will Boston Be Destroyed?" Speakers of wide reputation will discuss the grave implications of atomic energy as it has affected the lives of those in Nagasaki and Hiroshima, and what may be in store for suburbanites with the atomic "genie" at large in the world. Among the speakers will be Lt. Col. Charles W. Sweeney, USAAC, who was the commanding officer of the atomic bomb attack on Nagasaki, as well as an observer during the attack on Hiroshima. He and other speakers have messages of vital and terrible importance to tell the audience.

St. Francis Guild

On Tuesday evening, September 17th, Miss Mary Driscoll and Miss Jeanne Wright, Home Lecture Consultants of the Boston Consolidated Gas Company, will conduct a demonstrated lecture under the auspices of the Guild of Saint Francis, in the Sacred Heart School Hall, Newton Centre, at 7.45 o'clock. Numerous prizes, including Corey coffee makers and Vitamin Cook Books, will be awarded.

Miss Evelyn Kirkpatrick, Kitchen Planning Consultant, will conclude the evening with an illustrated lecture, on the New Freedom Gas Kitchen.

Mrs. Joseph I. Supple, chairman of the evening and co-chairman Mrs. Brenden J. Whittaker, extend a cordial invitation to all Guild members and their friends. Refreshments will be served.

Remember the old days when the best comeback to a wise crack made at your expense was "So's your old man?"

It is estimated that the U. S. would be producing about 16 million pounds of beef less per year than at present, were it not for the bovine tuberculosis campaign which was started a quarter century ago.

OUTWEAR PREWAR TIRES

A taxicab is a machine to get you places... and translates miles into money. Delays are costly... That's why taxi drivers are so fussy about their tires. Before B. F. Goodrich offered the new Silvertown tire to the public, over 17 million miles of tests were run on taxi fleets, police cars, and on the B. F. Goodrich test fleet. From these tests, came proof that the new B. F. Goodrich Silvertown was a superior tire that outperformed, outran, outlasted, and outwore prewar tires—even at high speeds. How? The tread itself was broader, flatter... covered more road surface... reduced the wear at any one point. To hold this tread, a better cord was used and by using more cords per tire, a stronger tire body was perfected. Supplies of this new tire are still limited. However, we'll do our best to keep your car rolling until we can get new tires for you.

Street Construction Program Planned for Ten Year Period

Newton's 1946 Halloween Program Launched at Enthusiastic Meeting

This year's plans for Newton's fifth annual Halloween celebration got off to a good start, last night, at a meeting of the Supporting Committee at the Newton Centre Playground House.

These city-wide Halloween parties have been exceedingly successful; and if the plans outlined at the first committee meeting are any criterion, this fall's events should surpass those of previous years.

It is estimated that more than 12,000 children, from kindergarten through high school, will participate in approximately 45 gatherings staged throughout the city.

Mr. William G. Reed, of Waban, is general chairman, and will be assisted by numerous committees, comprising more than 1400 volunteers drawn from every quarter of the city. Mothers, fathers, teachers, business and professional men and women are offering their time and energy wholeheartedly in order to make the parties better than ever before.

Mrs. Ragna Hougaard, supervisor of recreation, who initiated the plan for the five Newton Halloween parties, and has engineered all of them since, is again chairman of the program committee.

Whitney Cushing's Water Colors at Home Bazaar

The Home Bazaar, located near the Newtonville Post office at 883 Washington St., Newtonville, is currently featuring an art exhibit of water color and oil paintings of land and sea scenes and portraits. The exhibition will extend through Saturday, September 21st.

The artist is a Newton veteran, Mr. Whitney Cushing, a former B-24 pilot, who now resides at 15 Woodside Rd., Newtonville.

On Monday, Mr. Cushing plans to leave for Sarasota, Florida, where he will continue his studies at the Ringling School of Art where he plans to major in portraits.

The public is cordially invited to attend the exhibition between the hours of 9:30 to 5:30 daily through Saturday, September 21st.

Following a series of conferences between Mayor Paul M. Goddard, City Engineer Willard S. Pratt, Street Commissioner Harold F. Young and members of the Public Works Committee of the Board of Aldermen, announcement has been made of an extensive street construction program involving a period of ten years. The cost of this program which includes the rebuilding of more than 70 miles of streets will be between $6,000,000 and $7,000,000.

The streets which are to be rebuilt have been divided into two classes: Class A, streets carrying the greatest volume of traffic, will be built of cement concrete; Class B streets, less heavily traveled, will have a bituminous macadam base and bituminous concrete surface. Listed in each

By PAUL CONSIDINE

A gent we know up Auburndale way, one of the most regular guys in the world, but, well, a member of the gossipy brotherhood, has been keeping this department in hysterics, off and on, for years. A male, definitely a male, with the manners of a gabby old maid, or bachelor girl, as they're referred to these days, he's never so happy as when, in the center of a group of women, he listens with free wheeling eyebrows, to the gals' weekly offerings concerning current doings in the respective neighborhoods.

The stories we've caught up with about this character leave most of us limp. A prize, if ever there was one, he visits the homes of friends, usually at meal time, criticizes the lack of seasoning, salt or what have you, in the various courses, offers the opinion that the living room rug clashes with the general color scheme and is sure—in a high soprano—that the picture of grandpa, the one with all the money, should be banished forever from the den...

The right HOME-FINANCING for you

For most of us, buying a home takes a good deal of thought. We want to make sure that it's the right home, in the right location, at the right price. When we are satisfied on these points, there is still one highly important question we should ask ourselves:

"WHAT IS THE RIGHT FINANCING PLAN FOR ME?"

Through its knowledge and experience in financing homes in this area, this bank has developed modern home-financing plans that just fit your needs. If you're thinking of buying a home, or refinancing a mortgage, stop in now at this bank. It will cost you nothing to have a friendly talk with our experienced staff—and it could save you time and money.

Community Fund Campaign Dates Are November 7-21

Enrollment of Organization Near Completion Here

The Campaign for 1947 needs of the Greater Boston Community Fund Red Feather Services will be held in November this year, one month later than the campaign of last fall. The house-to-house campaign in Newton will open with the Newton Community Chest dinner for 200 or more workers at the Newton High School on Thursday, November 7. The period of the campaign in Newton will be from November 7 to November 21.

Prior to the house-to-house campaign will be advance solicitation by the Advance Gifts, Mercantile, Manufacturing, and Municipal Divisions which will start on October 23. It will be the aim of these divisions to have their solicitation completed before the launching of the general solicitation.

Enrollment of the various divisions is well underway. All chairmen, assistant chairmen, and other top leaders have been appointed, and the month of September has been set aside to complete the enrollment of workers. Approximately 40% of the entire campaign organization has been completed and enrollments are coming in this week at such a rate that the office of the Newton Community Chest is working extra hours to try to keep up with them.

Three hundred and thirty Red Feather services of all types will in 1947 be supported by the Greater Boston Community Fund. During the year they will offer the kinds of services which they gave to nearly one-half million men, women, and children in 1946. Hospitals and health services are serving more people and facing continually rising costs of maintenance. Youth agencies must protect children and "teen-agers" from the haz-

Why Not Garden City Associates?

The A. R. P. organization which covered the entire city so effectively during war years was one of the most outstanding groups Newton ever possessed, and failure to let such an aggregation continue to serve the City effectively should be much regretted.

There is an objective which could be worthily developed which much needs organized effort and would bring rewards properly handled. Why not arrange this entire group into a city-wide association, systematically laid out by villages with community sub-divisions with an aim to definitely develop Newton into an idealistic and genuine Garden City?

It is easy to conceive how the individual communities working through village groups, connected with a capable central group could go far to progressively eliminate unsightly or neglected sections, and by study and cooperation bring beauty and warmly regarded improvement to every street and neighborhood. Only an effective means or human touch can bring a worth-while answer to such an effort, and the old A. R. P. group possesses a germ of local spirit that would respond to such an objective.

Obviously this transcends the usual efforts of our excellent improvement associations, which lack organization to accomplish the same ends, and the old A. R. P. organization was built of local groups necessarily covering all sections. The disbandment of the A. R. P. is still sufficiently recent history to recover an excellent start for this movement, and the possibilities are great.

If your love of Newton, your desire to have your home city live up to its Garden City name, is sufficient to lead you to offer your cooperation to such a project, write The Graphic to that effect.

The 41-Billion Peace-Time Budget

When we contemplate tax relief let us constantly expect cuts in Federal expenditures. Deficit operating has been a national habit for years and doubtless the present year is no exception. The following Federal figures indicate by comparison how large 41 billion is:

Three years of World War I	1917-19	$33,190,000,000
Ten years of prosperity	1921-30	$33,810,000,000
Five years free spending	1935-39	$39,799,000,000
One year post-war estimate	1947	$41,500,000,000

and remember that the last figure was scaled down because post-war recovery has not been as bad as gloomy Washington calculated. Out of the 1947 estimate, 18 billions are for war-related costs which could be reduced by improved efficiency, and the balance of 23½ billions could stand plenty of reductions through compelled economies, especially of services which keep the government meddling with and confusing business and farm interests.

Huge expenditures are paid continuously to able-bodied men who reject employment in order to draw $20 per week for 52 weeks. Others draw large salaries to qualify for government allowances on the ground that they are training for still bigger jobs, while again we have seen employers take advantage of job-training allowances to get cheap labor. Veterans must realize that such costs must be paid by them equally with others.

Far too many employees released by war-time agencies find comfortable salary posts in other regular Federal services. Insufficient compelling effort has been made in Washington to greatly reduce the high peak of 3,649,769 Federal employees of August, 1945. Throughout these weaknesses of administration and legislation permeates the obvious explanation of a vote-getting policy. Such unworthy policies and such weaknesses, opposed to normal reasoning and logic, breed results observable in the present turmoil, low production rates of industry, high costs and general lack of horse sense so degrading to honest American citizens. Our legislators want to know our views. Let's strengthen their patriotism.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

Wallace vs. Byrnes

It seems to me that the remark attributed to Senator Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan in his comment on Henry Wallace's latest faux pas hit the nail right on the head. The Michigan solon was quoted as saying that it was possible to cooperate with ONLY ONE Secretary of State at a time. That certainly covers the ground. If Wallace is to be given carte blanche to sound off on any and all matters of policy, both foreign and domestic, so should every other member of President Truman's cabinet be given permission to talk at random on any and all problems of state.

Let's consider for a moment just what our talkative Secretary of Commerce has succeeded in doing as a result of that now famous political speech in New York. Do not forget, incidentally, that this speech was delivered at a regular political rally which was boosting Senator Mead of New York for the Governorship. Do not forget, also, that the PAC of the CIO was heavily involved in this particular rally.

Wallace, at one blow, has seriously hurt the prestige of the United States in Europe and Asia. How can we expect any foreign government, including our problem child, Russia, to have any profound respect for us or for our foreign policy when Wallace goes to work on hard-working Secretary of State James F. Byrnes and practically tells the whole world that the United States is very much divided on the matter of foreign policy? It doesn't make sense, does it? You may imagine the late Mr. Roosevelt allowing the members of his cabinet to upset his carefully-planned strategy? Whatever any of Mr. Roosevelt's critics may have said of him, at least they agree that he exerted real leadership in government, both domestic and foreign. Mr. Wallace would have been thrown out on his ear and consigned to the farm-lands somewhere if he had ignored the then Secretary of State, to say nothing of his chief.

In defense of Wallace, of course, it must be pointed out that he DID, apparently, submit the text of his speech to the President. The latter appears to have approved it, tho' it is now understood that all he INTENDED to do was to indicate his feeling that Wallace was entitled to free speech. It is therefore obvious that President Truman made a ghastly error, from which he has not yet extricated himself.

Consider, now, another possibility. It has been stated over the radio that there is a real chance that Mr. Byrnes may resign his post in the near future. The reason for this is supposed to be the condition of Mr. Byrnes' health rather than the recent mix-up in international affairs. Let us hope that that will be the real reason underlying any possible resignation.

Here is still another angle of vital importance to us all. Suppose that Mr. Byrnes should resign. What happens then? Who ever is appointed to succeed him would, in the event of President Truman's death or resignation, automatically become President of the United States. Think what that could mean. If Mr. Truman should make one of his typical Missouri appointments, we might suddenly find ourselves under the leadership of some man who could never, under ordinary circumstances, get himself elected to the highest office in this country. Of course, President Truman is aware of this situation. In the event of a Byrnes retirement from office, whatever the cause, he would, presumably, make an earnest effort to find a man who would not merely be a good Secretary of State, but who would, incidentally, be thoroughly qualified to succeed Mr. Truman in the White House.

Local Contests

As one of our more prominent Republicans pointed out at a recent meeting, there are three particular reasons why the members of the G. O. P. should turn out in force this coming November. In addition to promoting the Bradford and Lodge candidacies for the Governorship and the U. S. Senatorship, to say nothing of the rest of the state ticket, the Republicans must not take too much for granted in three other contests, two of which do not ordinarily attract a great deal of interest. I refer to Congress, the Governor's Council and the State Senate.

Congressman Herter will, as is customary, depend to a considerable extent on the Newton vote, as well as the nearby Brookline vote, to insure his reelection. He may not have too easy a time of it, despite the fact that his opponent does not seem to have as strong backing as did

The members of President Harrison's family made their first public appearance in Newton in the handsome blue parlor of the Woodland Park Hotel last evening, upon the occasion of an informal reception. It was just six o'clock when Mrs. Harrison, leaning upon the arm of Chief Justice Walbridge A. Eld, entered the reception room, accompanied by Mrs. McKee, who was escorted by Mr. E. W. Pratt, Mr. McKee and Mrs. Joseph Lee, the hostess of the Woodland Park. They were escorted by Mr. I. O. Whitney to their places in the reception room. The ushers were Mr. Irving G. Whitney and Mr. El. I. Iott W. Pratt. After the reception, the Harrison party attended the Waltham river carnival, to which they had been invited by the carnival committee and Mayor Mayberry, representing the city of Waltham.

School has opened with good attendance and hopeful prospects.

The City Hall, West Newton, is rejoicing in a coat of new paint and the old building has assumed quite an aesthetic appearance.

Mr. J. R. Griswold, West Newton, is going to sell out his harness business here and has purchased an interest in a large Boston carriage manufacturing concern.

the Democratic candidate two years ago.

Councillor Otis M. Whitney of Concord, who succeeded the late Frank A. Brooks of Concord, will likewise depend quite a bit on a substantial Newton vote. This is because of our size and general influence in this Councillor district. Whitney has made a first-class record on Beacon Hill, both as a Representative from his home town and more recently as a member of the Governor's Council. He should be returned to office with a fine vote.

Lastly, we have the State Senate. Ordinarily the G. O. P. candidate would have reasonably smooth sailing. However, there is a Democratic ward in Boston in this present Senatorial district and it makes all State Senate contests rather closer than in the old days. Furthermore, Republican Dick Lee has been in the armed forces for a long time and will not have the benefit of the constant publicity which so many candidates for office have had in the past.

All in all, it would seem that Newton voters will be urged to turn out in large numbers this fall.

J. McCammon has opened for business in his new store in the Taylor block, Newton. The store is handsomely fitted up in quartered oak, with large plate glass show windows. A fine stock of boots and shoes will be kept, together with a full line of men's furnishing goods.

The Newton hospital is to be kept in line with all the modern improvements. So far as skill and appliances for the treatment of patients are concerned, it is now the equal of any institution of its kind and size in the country. Recently there was introduced a bacteriological department for analysis, and investigation as to the presence and properties of germs. Now, through the generosity of Mr. F. O. Stanley of Ward Seven, the hospital is to receive an X-ray instrument for use in the preliminary examination of certain surgical cases. It will be of great service in locating the presence of foreign bodies and in giving some idea of the nature and extent of fractures and dislocations. Mr. Stanley's gift to the hospital will be much appreciated.

FIRE PREVENTION SERVICE

The increased use of range, oil burners and portable oil stoves has resulted in a demand for oil storage on the premises. The principal danger of storing and handling a flammable liquid of any kind is its exposure to the air. It is therefore plain that if exposure is minimized and storage is in a safely constructed and installed container, the fundamentals of safe storage and handling will have been provided.

An oil drum of substantial construction, such as used in the oil trade, may be safely used for the permanent oil storage purpose. While it should preferably be located outside the building, it may be permitted inside if kept in an upright position or placed in a suitable metal stand in a horizontal position. Withdrawal of the oil may be by means of a hand operated pump, arranged to discharge into a container subsequently used for filling oil reservoirs of range burners or portable stoves; or it may be an electrically operated pump discharging by means of continuous piping to a constant level device supplying the burner. An approved lock faucet that discharges by gravity is also permitted. When this type is used outside it should be kept locked except when being used.

A vent of at least a 1/4 inch should be provided in the top of the tank or fill cap so that the tank will not rupture by pressure that may be built up by a small fire outside of the tank. For tanks over 55 gallons capacity the vent should extend to the outside of the building.

Portable oil heaters employing a wick probably create the greatest hazard of the number in service, the faults of construction and the portability of the burner. Filling operations should be outside of the building or away from the heater or burner, and never while the wick is burning.

It should be borne in mind that flimsy make-shift storage arrangements, such as glass bottles, pails of various descriptions and improper drums sooner or later invite damage and resultant exposure of the oil through breakage, leakage or overflow. It is well to remember that the handling and storage of oil will involve no danger if exposure of the liquid is prevented; exposure permits the oil to change into vapor and the latter when mixed with air in the proper proportion is flammable and explosive.

The usual size drum for household range oil storage is 55 gallons.

A permit for the storage of ten or more gallons of fuel oil is required by State Law. The applications may be obtained at most any fire station. When the permit is issued it should be posted near the oil storage so that it may be seen by the oil delivery man or Fire Inspector.

For safe operation of your oil range or heater have it cleaned and repaired now for the coming season. Leaky connections should be repaired or replaced with new parts. By having these things done now your equipment will operate more efficiently when you need it most.

It is up to all of us to do our part in making Newton a safer city to live in. Be a good citizen and do your part now.

Elks Dedicate Memorial to World War II Veterans

The impressive limestone and marble Elks National Memorial and Headquarters Building on the shores of Lake Michigan, Chicago, Ill., which was recently dedicated to the veterans of World War II. Ceremonies were presided over by Bruce A. Campbell, chairman of the Elks Memorial Commission, with Charles E. Broughton, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, welcoming the 25,000 Elks from surrounding states and Grand Lodge officers who attended the dedication. U. S. Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, Senate majority leader and member of the Paducah, Ky., Elks Lodge, was the principal speaker. Chief of Police Nicholas Veducchio, Exalted Ruler of the Newton Lodge stated that more than 80,000 Elks served in this country's armed forces in World War II.

Noted Artists at Wellesley Concert Series October 23

Yehudi Menuhin, world-famous violinist, will open the Wellesley Concert Series of 1946-47 at Alumnus Hall, Wellesley College, on Wednesday, October 23. It is Mr. Menuhin's first appearance at Wellesley and promises to be a concert of extraordinary interest to the increasingly large number of subscribers who attend these performances. Most of the eminent violinist's appearances in recent years have been for American soldiers both in this country and in Europe, for Red Cross and other organizations and for the people of Paris and other European cities liberated from the brutality and aridity of Nazi "Kultur". The maturity and continued musical development of this former "enfant prodige" have increased the respect and admiration of the vast audiences who always flock to hear him, of the critics of musical performances and of other musicians. His rich and varied program will surely delight his Wellesley audience.

Ezio Pinza, the handsome and celebrated basso, is no stranger to Boston or Wellesley. But any recital by this Metropolitan Opera star is always crowded by all types of discerning and admiring concert-goers who desire to hear Mozart arias, oratorio music or Italian folksongs sung in the free-flowing style for which this famous artist is noted. His concert will be on December 4.

Among regular concert-goers there is always a group—sometimes large, sometimes small—who invariably prefer chamber music; the string quartet, the violin or cello sonata; or they may feel their greatest musical pleasure comes from listening to 17th and 18th century music played on ancient instruments. For such people, a concert given by Andres Segovia, the guitarist, is an occasion of pure joy. This "unique musical personality" is an artist of rare and exquisite perfection, a virtuoso on his instrument. But so interesting is the instrument, the Spanish guitar, and so enchanting and varied are Segovia's programs that his appeal to all concert-goers is extraordinary. Indeed, people who are not inveterate habitués of the recital hall go to hear Andres Segovia. A native of Granada, he now lives in Uruguay with his wife and daughter and only leaves his retreat for his yearly tours. He will be at Wellesley on March 5.

Karin Branzell is one of the big names in opera. A contralto, her fame and popularity rank her with that other Scandinavian diva, the soprano, Kirsten Flagstad. She has been famous in the past for her Wagnerian roles as well as the contralto roles in French and Italian opera, such as her Amneris in Aida, but recently, in her recitals she has shown herself a lieder singer of great beauty and quality. Also, her programs contain many Scandinavian songs which, for the subscribers, will afford an interesting contrast to the Italian ones sung by Mr. Pinza as well as to the Brazilian, English and Negro music sung last year by Mme. Sayao and Mr. Robinson. Mme. Branzell's recital, on April 23, will be the last one of the season.

Transferred to Fort Lewis, Wash.

T-4 Joseph Mazzola, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Mazzola of 25 Bridge street, has been transferred from Fort Belvoir, Va., to the 539th Engineer Pontoon Bridge Company, Fort Lewis, Wash., it was announced recently.

T-4 Mazzola entered the service May 22, 1943, at Boston, and re-enlisted January 13, 1946. He served overseas from December 7, 1943, to July 1, 1945, earning two Battle Stars. In the States he has been stationed at Mississippi Ordnance Plant, Flora, Miss., and Red River Ordnance Plant, Texarkana, Tex. A graduate of Newton Vocational High School, he was employed as a journeyman machinist, prior to entering the Army.

Sen. Saltonstall Speaker at Joint Meeting of Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions

The Newton Rotary Club was host to the Kiwanis and Lions Clubs at a joint meeting last Monday at the Braeburn Club. About 150 club members and guests attended.

Among the guests of honor were Mayor Paul M. Goddard, Dr. J. Seelye Birby, president of Colby College; President William Sullivan of the Kiwanis Club, and Lions' Club President Frank Dunleavy.

The speaker, Senator Leverett Saltonstall was introduced by Roy Edwards, who in presenting the Junior senator from Massachusetts to the audience expressed the hope that he would be promoted to higher office in the near future. Edwards recalled that the senator started his political career as a member of the Newton Board of Aldermen 25 years ago.

The subject of Senator Saltonstall's talk was his experience as an observer in the Bikini Atomic Bomb Test. He and Senator Hatch represented the U. S. Senate on the president's evaluation committee. Senator Saltonstall said that the designation, "Operation Crossroads" was aptly chosen because of the crossroads the world is at today.

He told of the marvelous feats of "drone" airplanes and "drone" launches which were controlled by radio and radar from mother ships, and sent out without pilots or personnel to gather specimens of air and water which were tested for radio activity.

The senator viewed the tests from an airplane, about 9,000 feet up and 15 miles away. The light was so intense that observers had to wear dark glasses, and even so, Dr. Compton of M.I.T., who had seen previous atomic explosions, had to cover his eyes with his hands.

Senator Saltonstall described the mushroom cloud following the blast and gave as many details about the test as he was permitted to disclose. He said there were three factors evident resulting from the explosion:

heat, pressure and radio activity. Radio activity is deadly within 500 yards, and 80 percent fatal up to 100 yards. The blast took all the water out of Bikini lagoon for a radius of 1,000 yards he said, and shot it upwards 6,000 to 7,000 feet.

Mr. Saltonstall added a personal touch to his talk when he said that because of the international date line, the day lost happened to be his 30th wedding anniversary.

In concluding Mr. Saltonstall stated that our job is to establish a peace with justice, and not tie in with any nation which does not seek to achieve this goal. We must also be ready to make greater sacrifices.

The lessons learned from the Bikini test according to Senator Saltonstall, the "drones" the bombs and the devastation they cause, indicate that the next war will come home to us. "We cannot escape it."

12th District Past Presidents Of Women's Club to Meet

The September meeting of the Twelfth District Past Presidents' Club, one of the first meetings in the district, is being held at the Newtonville Women's Club on Wednesday, September twenty-fifth. A luncheon at one o'clock will precede the meeting at which Mrs. George H. Tracy of Newtonville will preside. Plans and projects for the year will be discussed. The Secretary, Mrs. George G. Davis, of Needham is in charge of reservations.

Trinity Treasure House Opens Thursday, Sept. 26

The summer has not found the women of Trinity Church in Newton Centre, idle, for during the recent vacation period, they all have been working toward another successful Bazaar. TRINITY TREASURE HOUSE will again be opened on Thursday, September 26 from 10 A. M. to 10 P. M. and on Friday, September 27 from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. both days, rain or shine. Mrs. Henry S. Cross, chairman of this annual attraction and her two vice-chairmen, Mrs. L. Lee Street, and Mrs. Edward F. Wales, are presenting the following attractions:

Everything for the Kitchen, that ever-popular household department, will be sold under the direction of Mrs. Frederick D. Robinson and her vice-chairman, Mrs. L. Lee Street and their committee: Mrs. William B. Barkley, Mrs. Irving W. Carney, Mrs. I. S. Dillingham, Mrs. John C. DeMille, Mrs. Edward Fielding, Mrs. John E. Gale, Mrs. William A. Haskell, Mrs. J. H. L. Hill, Mrs. A. Ellis Hunt, Mrs. George B. Lewis, Mrs. Zador Long, Mrs. John F. Milner, Mrs. Harry F. Morse, Mrs. J. E. Masters, Mrs. D. Bradley Rich, Miss Gertrude Robinson, Mrs. H. Edmund Rowley, Mrs. Henry G. Schaffer and Mrs. Francis S. Snow.

Outside on the side lawn, Mrs. D. Allen Smith will preside over a miniature Country Store where fruits, vegetables, flowers, spices and cracker barrels to tempt one will be on sale. Assisting her are Mrs. Harold J. Addington, Mrs. William O. Brockert, Mrs. F. J. Cobb, Mrs. J. D. Jones, Mrs. I. L. Swope, Mrs. Henry J. Warren, Miss Katherine Wilkins, Mrs. Donald H. Woodford and Mrs. F. H. Underhill.

No Bazaar would be complete without the ever-alluring Fortune Teller and the Handwriting Expert and again last year's successful Portrait Sketcher will be on hand to put her clients' likenesses on paper. These three attractions will be supervised by Mrs. Melville O. Liming and her helpers, Miss Pauline Anderson, Mrs. Keith C. Brown, Mrs. George Fleknoe, Mrs. H. L. Mann, Mrs. James Mitchell, Mrs. Jack White and Mrs. Allan J. Young.

One of the most attractive features of the Bazaar is the Mill Bar which will operate all day long under the efficient direction of Mrs. Stephen Pierce and those great American favorites, the Hot Dog and the Milk Shake will be dispensed in his inimitable way by Reederick M. Morris and Mrs. Gustave R. Breitske. Miss Nancy E. Cobb, Mrs. M. Fletcher Eades, Mrs. C. E. Homer, Miss Barbara Homer, Mrs. John E. Grove, Mrs. William H. McLeod, Mrs. Ralph L. Morse, Mrs. Florence Parker and Mrs. Charles N. Waterhouse.

No Trinity Treasure House would be complete without the delicious luncheon which will be served under a tent on the side lawn on Thursday noon, only, under the capable direction of Mrs. Henry T. Patch and her helpers, Mrs. Herbert T. Anderson, Mrs. Stephen R. Berke, Mrs. Joe K. Billingsly, Mrs. Harold R. Bonnyman, Mrs. William B. Bliss, Mrs. Otto A. Both, Mrs. C. E. Gould Capon, Mrs. H. H. Cooley, Mrs. Robert F. Cordingley, Mrs. Orbin C. Condon, Mrs. Townsend H. Cushman, Mrs. Arthur F. Fay, Mrs. Stanbrough Fernald, Mrs. Robert C. Foster, Mrs. Douglass B. Francis, Mrs. William J. Montcrief, Mrs. H. M. Nordstrom, Mrs. H. J. Peratsakis, Mrs. Merrill Hammond, Mrs. W. H. Stetson, Mrs. Anthony Jaureguy and Mrs. A. B. Smith.

The Sugar Shortage has not affected the Candy Table where Mrs. Richard Ellis, chairman and her co-chairman Mrs. William J. Fosseca, promise to offer all kinds of sweets. Their helpers are: Mrs. James D. Blackall, Mrs. James F. Barclay, Mrs. Jean H. Dummer, Mrs. Charles W. Hatch, Mrs. Anthony Leone, Mrs. Arthur G. Muldoon, Mrs. Margaret B. Margot, Mrs. Thomas M. Nee, Mrs. Clarence W. Randlett, Mrs. Charles M. Riley, Mrs. Edmund W. Perry, Mrs. Burton Phinney, Mrs. William J. Stone and Mrs. Allan I. Woods.

There will be no doubt about enticing the patrons to the Food Table where cakes, pastries and other goodies will be sold under the direction of Mrs. Ralph E. Houghton, chairman, Mrs. John E. Merrill, vice chairman and their committee: Mrs. Gilman Conant, Mrs. Florence Davidson, Mrs. Douglas R. Duguid, Mrs. Harold B. Kenton, Mrs. Norman J. Mitchell, Mrs. Philip L. Miller, Mrs. Michael M. Seymour, Mrs. Mildred A. Sircum, Mrs. Harold E. Tingley, Miss Marcia Tingley, Mrs. Herbert A. Winrow and Mrs. Byron Witton.

Mothers and grandmothers will delight in the Needs for the Nursery offered by Mrs. Elmer M. Kling, chairman and Mrs. Frederick M. Morris, co-chairman and their committee: Mrs. Leland L. Arnold, Mrs. Charles H. Cobb, Mrs. Dora Dennison, Miss Marie Dennison, Mrs. Marion W. Dunnell, Mrs. L. E. Hodder, Miss Edith Hooper, Mrs. Christine Morris, Mrs. Gordon P. Small, Mrs. M. N. Smith-Peterson, Miss Marie C. Ulmer, Mrs. F. W. Walch and Mrs. John J. Whittlesey.

Dainty Accessories for the Bedroom and Bath, another popular household department, come under the supervision of Mrs. A. Edward Roys, chairman and her co-chairmen, Mrs. Lawrence Meyns and Mrs. Frank P. Rowbotham and their committee: Miss Lula G. Adams, Mrs. W. Cornell Appleton, Mrs. Leonard T. Clarke, Mrs. David C. Ditmore, Mrs. Arthur L. Drown, Mrs. J. L. Dudley, Mrs. William R. Gerhart, Mrs. W. Thatcher Hollis, Mrs. Matt B. Jones, Mrs. William H. McCabe, Mrs. Frederick J. MacDonald, Mrs. S. Belmont Segar, Mrs. S. Lee Tanner, Mrs. Earle E. Tilton and Mrs. Sidney S. vonLoesche.

Once again Mrs. Harry Ross, Jr., and Mrs. H. Kempton Parker will preside over that fascinating room filled with Antiques and they will be assisted by Mrs. Austin Bittenbender, Mrs. Henry G. Boyer, Mrs. William L. Corbin, Mrs. John E. Eaton, Mrs. George A. Graves, Mrs. L. W. Simonds, Mrs. J. J. Skehan and Mrs. W. H. Sutton.

Gifts of Distinction to suit every taste will be sold by Mrs. John M. Colony and her co-chairman Mrs. A. Gordon Wein, and their committee: Mrs. William J. Battilana, Mrs. John Bergeson, Mrs. Mable Boutelle, Mrs. Nina Carpenter, Miss Eleanor LaBonte, Mrs. F. H. Colony, Mrs. W. L. Cummings, Mrs. J. H. Goodenough, Mrs. W. A. Hinckley, Mrs. R. A. Montcrief, Mrs. H. M. Nordstrom, Mrs. H. J. Peratsakis, Mrs. Merrill Hammond, Mrs. W. H. Stetson, Mrs. Anthony Jaureguy and Mrs. A. B. Smith.

St. Mary's Episcopal Church to Hold New Members' Day

St. Mary's Church Service League starts the year with a New Member's Day on Tuesday, October 1st at 2 p.m. under its new president, Mrs. Lewis Freeman Pike. The speaker is the Rev. Raymond S. Hall, D.D., first paratrooper chaplain in the armed forces, who jumped with his men on "D" Day, was later wounded, captured by the Germans and finally escaped to the Russian lines. He is now chaplain and director of the Seamen's Club of Boston.

Prior to Mr. Hall's talk, there will be a short devotional period conducted by Mrs. Roger W. Bennett and the year's plans, with emphasis on the November bazaar, are to be discussed.

Tea with Mrs. Richmond Seabury as hostess, will follow. There will be someone in the Sunday School rooms to take care of the children during the meeting.

Outstanding features were the shadow boxes with baskets of wild flowers, and the girls' display of little old-fashioned nosegays with paper doilies. Also the home grown vegetables by boys were very interesting.

The judges were: Mr. William Cassidy, Mr. F. S. Frost, Mrs. G. W. McIntosh.

Afternoon tea was served by the following committee: Chairman, Mrs. George Braceland, Mrs. Joseph Valente, Mrs. Albert Proctor, Mrs. Antonio Valente, Mrs. Robert Millar, Mrs. James Doane.

Robert S. Judd, Vice President of Southern New England Telephone Company, was elected Regional Chairman, to succeed Mr. Bierer. Principle speakers were Dr. Albert K. Fretwell, Chief Scout Executive of Boy Scouts of America; Amory H. Houghton of Corning, New York, National President of the Boy Scouts of America. Both speakers lauded Mr. Bierer for his service to Scouting over the years and particularly the past two years when he served as Regional Chairman.

Dr. Fretwell presented a challenge to the Scouters present and urged a mighty effort to meet the problems of the post-war era. Mr. Houghton pointed out the significance of the splendid spirit of loyalty and service displayed by Scouters—volunteer and professional alike.

WHIPS UP A CAKE . . .

An average male, attempting to guide the weaker sex in the manner of our hero, would have been rendered limb from limb, a long time ago. He, however, has been getting away with it for years. Always present at the ladies' bridge parties, although he detested the game, the kitchen lured him, and from that point with his ears flapping in the direction of the gals' voices for any little bit of gossip that might be wafted kitchenward, and his eyes on the range, he'd whip together a cake or something for the bridge players who were trying so hard to be charitable toward their absent members.

The game lingered on, one recent evening, until our hero absently nibbling on the remains of his latest creation in the cake department, sauntered to the kitchen again, where, just so's to keep his hand in, he threw together a batch of fudge. The bridge players, moaning at the lateness of the hour, (it was about 1:45 a.m.) were about to leave when he rushed in with the finished product.

HORRORS . . .

"Gracious," cried the fudge maker, "You simply, you simply must try a piece of my fudge. It's made from a new recipe. You'll simply love it, etc., etc., etc."

So, they all obliged and by the same token, all of the gals must have started chewing at the same time . . . for they all began screaming together, although not in unison. Certainly they spat fudge in all directions in a concerted dash for the cold water tap, as our hero, sensing something had gone amiss, silently slipped outside and vanished into the shadows.

'Twas well for him that he'd made himself scarce for after 12 burning feminine mouths had been cooled by frequent applications of cold, cold water, they went out looking for him with that certain glint in their eyes . . .

Searching for vanilla, so's to flavor the fudge, he'd mistakenly picked up a bottle of rubbing liniment, and pouring generously from said bottle, caused 12 tummy aches, not to mention a change of address on his part . . .

AROUND TOWN . . .

New automobiles are arriving in increasing numbers every day. For weeks, several truck-loads of new cars have been passing through Newton every night — one after the other — until the early a.m. . . The gals are now wearing eyeglasses with frames the color of their clothes. We've been thinking their eyeglass expenses were a major item in the monthly budget, but one of them featuring red frames with a dress of the same color, confessed the other night, that nail polish applied to plastic frames is what's doing the trick . . . Four generations of Turners are living under the same roof on Bridge street. Among them are Frank Turner Sr., famous driver of the equally famous horse drawn piece of fire apparatus, Hose 8 of olden days, and Frank Turner Jr., the night police officer in Newton Corner, recently voted the handsomest man on the Department . . . Roy Edwards is driving a new car in which pretty nearly everything operates by push buttons. It begins to appear that Roy's getting lazy, that's all . . . Hubbard's, Wilfred Chagnon's new store, is rapidly rounding into shape. 'Twill be the latest thing in drug stores, according to Wilfred, when the contractors get through . . . The lonesome dog in town, a Collie, rode around the Newtons with us, last night. He whined, became restless and, his head out the open window, barked at the intersection of Chestnut and Valentine streets, West Newton. His actions suggested that the neighborhood was familiar, so we let him out there. Hope he found his way home . . . They're telling a story around town concerning a Scotch gentleman who answers to the name of Uncle Willie. His chief claim, to fame, so the story goes, is due to the fact that Uncle Willie hasn't put a drop of water to his lips for a period exceeding 20 years. His hatred of water began, at that time, as the result of a dream. A dream in which another, ahem, Scotchman offered him a generous drink of Scotch Pep-Upp, with the inquiry as to whether or not Uncle Willie wanted it served with or without water. Noting the size of the drink, he decided a little water would be alright . . . and while his friend went kitchenward for the water, Uncle Willie woke up! . . .

A Lecture on Christian Science

Christian Science, how it can be studied and applied

Lt. Col. Robert E. Key, C.S.B.
Member of the Board of Lectureship
of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

Before a large audience in First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Newton, Lieut. Colonel Robert E. Key, of London, England, delivered a lecture Monday evening, September 16.
Lieut. Colonel Key was introduced by Mr. Wallace Strathern,
First Reader, who said:

"Friends: On behalf of First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Newton, I extend to you a cordial welcome to our lecture. A Christian Science lecture is always a happy occasion because the word of Truth brings comfort and healing to all who are receptive.

The lecture is entitled—"Christian Science, how it can be studied and applied." In considering this subject our thoughts turn to Jesus' promise to his disciples—"Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst
after righteousness, for they shall be filled," and in the opening words of her textbook,
"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," Mary Baker Eddy, the discoverer and founder of Christian Science, has written—"To those leaning on the sustaining Infinite, today is big with blessings."

Today will indeed be "big with blessings" as we open our hearts and minds to the truths
about to be shared with us.

Another statement from our Leader's textbook is most appropriate for this occasion. Mrs.
Eddy writes—"Willingness to become as a little child and to leave the old for the new, renders thought receptive of the advanced idea."

Our lecturer is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston, Massachusetts.

It is a pleasure to present to you Lieut. Colonel Robert E.
Key of London, England.

The book I hold in my hand is the King James Version of the Bible, and this is the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.
These two volumes constitute the essential working equipment of every student of Christian Science. The student must assimilate the truths contained in these two books in order to bring out the healing in a practical measure.

These text-books teach us of God, of man's relationship to God, of the nature of God's kingdom, and of the power and the glory with which He has endowed man through reflection.

THE BIBLE

The Bible is the Book of Life.
From a literary point of view it includes allegory, biography, history, law, letters, poetry and parales. But the literary point of view is not the one which greatly concerns a Christian Scientist.
"The material record of the Bible," Mrs. Eddy reminds us,
"is no more important to our well-being than the history of Europe and America" but she adds, "The spiritual application bears upon our eternal life" (Miscellaneous Writings 170). Christian Scientists study the Bible from the spiritual standpoint. To a Christian Scientist the so-called miracles recorded in the Scriptures are the natural phenomena of divine law,
and when this law of God is understood and applied, it will be found that the signs and wonders which ushered in the Christian era can be repeated today in a large and ever-increasing measure. The laws of God do not change. They remain fixed and invariable.

As the Book of demonstrable
spiritual law, the Bible was a sealed volume until the discovery of Christian Science. This discovery marks a turning point in the history of the human race. It reveals the long-lost Science of the Scriptures and points the way out of materialism to the spiritual sense of life which is the reality of existence. From Genesis to Revelation we may notice a sharp contrast drawn between the material and the spiritual. In no particular do they unite or mingle. For instance, in the opening chapter of the Book of Genesis creation is described as complete, spiritual and wholly good. The statement is made more than once, "And God saw that it was good" (Gen. 1:10).
In the second chapter of this Book we find the history of mortal man presented in the form of an allegory. It is illustrated by figurative characters named Adam and Eve, who dwell in an ideal garden with an assortment of animals and, among them, one of a species unknown to nature, namely, a talking serpent. This all happens in a dream state, for we read that a deep sleep fell upon Adam "and he slept" (Gen.
2:21). Unaccountable things occurred in this Adam-dream.

A woman was taken out of Adam's rib, a serpent entered into a subtle argument with the woman, and God, like an eastern potentate, walked in the garden
in the cool of the day.
It was an odd dream, and not

unlike the material sense of life
which is filled with such strange and inexplicable contradictions.
On the other hand, when we are aware of the truth of being, all is found to be normal, logical and harmonious.

The material record is characterized by division and discord.
In it we find man separated from God, man separated from woman,
man becoming the mother of a sinner named Cain, and Cain falling to the depths of moral degradation as the result of murdering his brother Abel. Surely a terrible record of division and discord, proving that as long as man is regarded from the material instead of from the spiritual standpoint, division and degradation will persist.

The gross forms of materialism
are expressed today in the most detestable forms of cruelty, callousness and sin. Christian Science comes to rescue mankind
from the abyss of materialism.

I have already mentioned the contrast drawn in the Bible between the material and spiritual.
You will recall the story of Noah and the flood, Abraham
and Lot, Jacob and Esau, Moses
and the Pharaoh of Egypt, David and Goliath, and many other contrasting characters drawn with such sharp distinction that it is impossible to escape the conclusion that they are designed to represent the material and spiritual views of life, and to illustrate the fatal
results of materialism.

God

If you were to ask a group of people who are not Christian Scientists what God means to them, you would very likely receive a variety of answers. One might say in reply to your question, "To me God is a great personality who creates and rules
the universe, but His ways are not understandable." Another might say, "I don't believe in God at all, anyway. If there is a God,
He cannot be known to man."
On the other hand, "What is God?" to a group of Christian Scientists, and you will receive an almost identical answer from each one of them. The answer given would undoubtedly be the definition of God as found on page 465 of Science and Health—
"God is incorporeal, divine,
supreme, infinite Mind, Spirit,
Soul, Principle, Life, Truth,
Love." These terms express the essential "nature, essence, and wholeness of Deity" (S. & H.
465). They are "the same in essence, though multifarious in office" (Science and Health p.
331). If God was not Life, no life would exist. If God was not Mind, no intelligence or wisdom could be expressed. If God was not Truth, no truth would be found anywhere and chaos and lawlessness would reign supreme.

These seven synonymous names
for God would be of little value
to us if we regarded them merely as terms. Christian Science however does not leave God in the realm of theory, it explains
in a practical way His omnipresence, omniscience and omni-action. Divine Life is expressed by man in spiritual awareness, activity, vitality, unflinching interest, being and existence. We know divine Truth through man's reflection of honesty,
justice, integrity. We find divine Mind made manifest in unerring intelligence, wisdom, perception and limitless capacity. We feel divine Love's presence in the evidence of compassion, kindness, consideration, courage, gentleness and strength.

You will see from what has been said that man expresses God by reflection, that is,
through reflecting God-like qualities. You will thus understand what is meant in the book of Genesis when it says
"So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them." (Gen. 1:27).

On the other hand, when we lose sight of man as God's image and likeness, we find ourselves drawn into the deep sleep
of the Adam-dream with all its grotesque injustices and contradictions. The man who hates his neighbor, has begun to dream
the Adam-dream because he has lost sight of God as Love. The man who fails to express wisdom and intelligence has forgotten that God is Mind. The man who defrauds and lies has shut himself out from the presence of the God of Truth. A mortal punishes himself unnee-cessarily when he shuts himself
out from the presence of God.
Like Cain, he condemns himself to dwell in the land of Nod, in the land of forgetfulness.

God is understood through prayer. Christian Science treatment is prayer. Before I became interested in Christian Science, I was accustomed to say my prayers and hope for the best. Now in my prayers as a Christian Scientist I strive to know God in the same way as I try to know a friend, namely,
by becoming more familiar with his nature and character. You might reasonably say of your friend, "Oh, I know him so well
he will do anything for me. I have only to ask and he will supply my needs." Well, we ought to think that way about God. Abraham is described as "the Friend of God" (James 2:23) and we know what wonderful things happened to Abraham. When you understand the nature of God, and know, moreover, that His nature is wholly

good, there is surely no limit to the good that will come into your experience.

Healing

Healing in Christian Science
is the result of understanding
God and His Christ. Mrs. Eddy defines the Christ in her textbook as "the divine manifestation of God, which comes to the flesh to destroy incarnate error" (Science & Health 583). She also says (p. 332) "Christ is the true idea voicing good, the message from God to men speaking to the human consciousness." We can readily see from these statements that the Christ, the divine message from God to men, is always revealing
to us the perfection of man.
God's love for man, and the ad-equacy of that Love divine. Love's provision includes no sin, no sickness, no death. If we begin to see the perfection and beauty of God's creation, we shall understand why John declared that God rejoices in His Creation.
You will remember his words,
"For thou hast created all things,
and for thy pleasure they are and were created." Healing is a spiritual experience and has nothing in common with the use of mesmerism, hypnotism or willpower. Indeed, the action of the human will is detrimental to the practice of Christian Science.

No one can dispute the fact that Christian Science heals the sick. For nearly 80 years, that is, since the discovery of this Science in 1866, countless thousands have been healed and regenerated by Christian Science.
These healings have not been confined to nervous or functional disorders. Healing of organic diseases of the most pronounced types is a frequent occurrence.
But Christian Science does more than heal a sick body, it regenerates a sick mind. In fact, the regeneration of thought is considered the more important part of the cure. Healing frequently takes place from a study of the Christian Science textbook.

The last chapter in "Science and Health," entitled "Fruitage," contains one hundred pages devoted to testimonies from those who have been healed by a study of it. The chapter referred to deserves attention. The testimonies have been well-authenticated and include the healing of almost every type of disease.

One of my earliest friends in Christian Science is one whose testimony appears in these pages.
It is over 40 years since the healing took place, and this Christian Scientist remains well and vigorous. In her testimony she tells of a healing from the effects of a very severe attack of rheumatic fever, followed by two less severe ones. She had lost all love for God, and faith in Him. She could not accept a God who, as she believed, visited sickness
upon His children. In Christian Science she found a God she could love and trust. Healing quickly followed this understanding, and with it came a wonderful joy and spiritual inspiration. At the same time she was healed of astigmatism which had necessitated the use of special glasses for reading or working. At the first reading of "Science and Health" she found
she could read for any length of time and in any light without glasses.

This cure was not a faith cure.
It was the result of a scientific understanding of God's presence, power, and love. A scientific healing is a permanent healing.
Once a condition is overcome
through an understanding of spiritual law, that condition
never returns. When the corrective truth is applied, the body responds to it. How important, then, to know the truth, and how welcome should be the volume that enables you to do so.

What is this corrective truth,
this vital knowledge, this key to salvation, this complete release
from all the ills that flesh is heir to? Let us turn to the pages of history and go back for a few moments to the dawn of the Christian era.

A remarkable man is moving
among the people of Palestine.
He is both physician and priest to the multitude. They flock to him for healing and instruction,
and their needs are satisfied. He speaks with authority. He heals and inspires them. His preaching is revolutionary for it goes against all the commonly accepted standards of that age. When he speaks, his discourse is logical, simple and profound. The more they listen, the more they are convinced that what he is telling them is the truth. The whole country is stirred by his teaching. The religious Jew, the Roman oppressor also take note of his words. His doctrine, they think, will undermine their long-established laws and customs. It will make all men equal—the slave will be as good as his master; it will make all people free.
This heresy must be stamped out, this teacher obliterated.
Thus it came about that the great teacher was scourged and crucified. He was crucified as a malefactor but rose again as a King. They might put a personality out of sight, but they could never hide Truth within a sepulchre.

The disciples of this great man were not spiritually strong enough to establish his teaching on unassailable foundations.
They did their best and they went a long way to keep the embers of Truth from total extinction, but they failed to establish the kingdom of God on earth. The healing Christ was lost sight of, and a Christianity of creed was substituted. For nearly 2,000 years the dark ages

continued.

Now let us turn to the year
1866. Picture a small New England town in the grip of winter.
A woman has fallen on the icy sidewalk, and a little group of people are gathered round her.
She is removed to a nearby house in a serious condition. A physician is sent for, who pronounces her case to be a very serious injury to the spine. The light of hope burns low, as periods of unconsciousness occur.
Her relatives are summoned to await the end. Two days pass, the condition remains unchanged. Then suddenly, to the amazement of her friends, the sick woman rises from her bed
and walks into the adjoining room. She is healed. This woman was Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science.

Writing of this experience,
Mrs. Eddy says:—

"My immediate recovery
from the effects of an injury caused by an accident, an injury that neither medicine
nor surgery could reach, was the falling apple that led me to the discovery how to be well myself, and how to make others so.

"Even to the homeopathic
physician who attended me,
and rejoiced in my recovery,
I could not then explain the modus of my relief. I could only assure him that the divine Spirit had wrought the miracle—a miracle which later
I found to be in perfect scientific accord with divine law."

"I then withdrew from society about three years, to ponder my mission, to search
the Scriptures, to find the

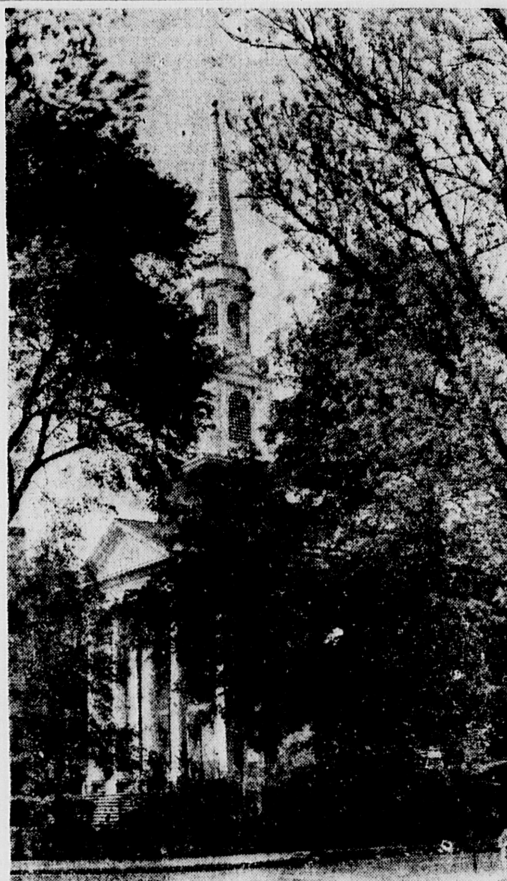

without a first plank.
I propose to spend a few moments in speaking of this great statement.

We notice that it consists of a series of statements, negative or positive. For instance, take the first statement, which one might term a negative one—
"There is no life, truth, intelligence, nor substance in matter."
This statement is followed by a positive one—"All is infinite Mind and its infinite manifestation, for God is All-in-all." The negative here refers to the material, the positive to the spiritual. Throughout the pages of Mrs. Eddy's writings, the fundamental fact is maintained, namely, that the spiritual is real, the material is unreal. We can recall a hundred passages from Mrs. Eddy's writings where this truth is emphasized.

Did the Bible teach this? Did the prophets and apostles of Christ Jesus stand upon this platform? A close study of the Scriptures proves that they did.

I well know the danger of quoting Scripture to substantiate
any doctrine, but here I cannot refrain from drawing
your attention to the words of the prophet Isaiah (40: 6 & 7)—
"All flesh is grass. . . . The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; because the spirit of the Lord
bloweth upon it." The Master said (John 6:63): "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing." Did Jesus teach that the material and spiritual are opposed to one another, and that since the spiritual is real,
that is, abides for ever, therefore the material must be unreal or transitory? Many who are Christians but not yet Christian Scientists will agree that he did.

The allness of God is another fact on which emphasis is laid throughout the Scriptures. "I

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Newtonville

Science of Mind that should take the things of God and show them to the creature,
and reveal the great curative Principle,—Deity."

"Retrospection and Introspection," pp. 24-25.

Science and Health

What, then, is the "Science of Mind" of which she speaks? Is it the long-lost Science of Christianity?

Turning to the Christian Science textbook, "Science and
Health with Key to the Scriptures," we find a chapter entitled "Recapitulation." It is important to refer to "Recapitulation" because it contains the nucleus of the whole subject of Christian Science.

The truths contained therein
are elsewhere amplified and broadened, but the original platform of Christian Science is built into "Recapitulation" and on this basis the whole structure stands. One of the most revolutionary statements ever written appears in "Recapitulation." It is entitled "the scientific statement of being" and reads as follows:—

"Question:—What is the scientific statement of being?"
"Answer:—There is no substance, intelligence, nor life, intelligence nor matter. All is infinite Mind and its infinite manifestation, for God is All-in-all. Spirit is immortal Truth;
matter is mortal error. Spirit is the real and eternal; matter is the unreal and temporal.
Spirit is God, and man is His image and likeness. Therefore man is not material; he is, spiritual."

—S. & H. 468:8-15)

Mrs. Eddy calls it the "first plank in the platform of Christian Science" (Miscellaneous Writings 21:15). From this we understand it to be a statement of the utmost importance, for no platform can be constructed

am the Lord; and there is none else" (Is. 45:18). Thus we are not surprised to find Mrs. Eddy declaring in "the scientific statement of being"—"for God is All-in-all." Christian Science, however, refutes the doctrine of pantheism. The statement "God is All-in-all" does not mean that God is in matter. Mrs. Eddy has written an entire volume on the subject of "Christian Science versus Pantheism." Pantheism is described by Webster as "the theory that the universe taken or conceived of as a whole is God," thus implying that no dividing line exists between matter and Spirit, but that God is included in both.

Again the scientific plank lifts
us high above pantheism by the statement "There is no life, truth, intelligence nor substance in matter." This statement is a complete refutation of pantheism.
Man is a spiritual idea, but this idea is too big to be confined in matter. The Bible tells us that man is made in the image and likeness of God—(see Genesis 1:26). This fact again is clearly stated in our platform
in the words "man is not matterial, he is spiritual."

This brief reference to the scientific statement of being makes it clear that the fundamental propositions of Christian Science are sanctioned by the Scriptures.

These propositions are summarized on page 113 of the Christian Science textbook as follows:—

1. God is All-in-all.
2. God is good. Good is Mind.
3. God, Spirit, being all, nothing is matter.
4. Life, God, omnipotent good, deny death, evil, sin, disease.—Disease, sin, evil,
death, deny good, omnipotent God, Life."

Equipped with these four propositions of Truth, the young student can take his place in what one might term the nursery school of Christian Science.

The two steps necessary for a student's progress in this Science are:—

1. Metaphysical preparation.
2. Practical application.
These two stages are well expressed in Christ Jesus' words:—
1. "Ye shall know the truth"
and
2. "The truth shall make you free." (John 8:32)
Or, again, in the Christian Science text book:—
"Study thoroughly the letter
and imbibe the spirit." (S. & H.
495:27-28).

Prayer

Freedom—freedom from sin, disease and death—comes through prayer. Prayer is the preparation, healing the demonstration.
The two are inseparable, for only through earnest, intelligent praying can the facts of health and harmony be established.

Christian Science treatment is prayer. The Bible emphasizes the importance of prayer, so here
again Christian Science is in accord with the Scriptures. Prayer is understood by Christian Scientists to include not only petition but affirmation of the truth.
For example, in the Lord's prayer Jesus asked for daily bread;
he asked for forgiveness. He also declared the truth, "For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever." We do well to ask God for more grace, for more spiritual enlightenment and to declare for His power, His laws, His activity.

To gain a correct understanding of prayer, the Bible and the Christian Science textbook must be closely studied together. Every Sunday and Wednesday in Christian Science churches these books are read from alternately,
and emphasis is laid on the fact that the textbook of Christian Science is also the "Key" to the Scriptures.

There is a power in prayer
which is as yet but little understood. In an endeavor to bring this fact home to his disciples,
Jesus assured them that prayer
could remove mountains (Matt.
21:21). Perhaps he was not referring to physical mountains,
but certainly he conveyed the idea that prayer would remove hard and colossal difficulties.
"Nothing," he said "shall be impossible unto you." (Matt. 17: 20).

I implore you not to limit the power of prayer by believing that Christian Science is all right for nervous complaints but should not be employed in serious organic difficulties. This was not the teaching of Jesus. Confronted, as we may be, with a so-called hopeless case, these words
of our Master ring in our ears,
"Nothing shall be impossible
unto you." (Matt. 17:20).

To illustrate, may I relate an experience of a friend of mine
who went one afternoon to see a film in which George Arliss took
the part of a famous musician.
In the film story a bomb exploded near him, rendering him completely deaf, and so ruining his musical career.

As my friend watched the film
she suddenly realized that the tragedy portrayed by the picture was entirely fictitious. None of the episodes depicted had happened to George Arliss, for at that very moment when these things were happening on the screen, Arliss himself was entirely untouched by them. Moreover, the whole thing had no real substance. If she went up to the film and poked her finger into it,
she knew that her finger would go through the picture.

On the way home she was walking with a friend ahead of other members of the party, and as they came to a cross-roads, a serious accident occurred. A young man on a motor-bicycle,
traveling at great speed,
crashed into a lorry with apparently fatal results. The lorry driver was unhurt, but the cyclist was taken away in an apparently fatal injury. Suddenly the same clear sense came to my friend, as when she had been watching the film—namely,
that the whole affair was also fictitious. Mrs. Eddy writes on page 470 of "Science and Health,"
"Man is the expression of God's being." How, then, could the expression of God's being be injured by a lorry? It came to her very forcibly that the material
body lying so still on the road was only a false concept of the true man—and it was no more
the true man than the deaf musician had been the real George Arliss. She realized that the young man's individuality was completely untouched by what appeared to be happening.

A great sense of joy came to her, and she thanked God for giving her this glimpse of what St.
John meant when he said, "Beloved, now are we the sons of God." (1 John 3:2). She knew beyond all shadow of doubt that the young man was untouched.
The other members of the party were not Christian Scientists, so she said nothing but went on her way. Her cousin in whose house
she was staying, and who was a doctor, was sent for to go immediately to the hospital to attend
the case.

Later, when the doctor returned from the hospital, he told her there would probably be an inquest and that she might be called to give evidence because she had been nearest to the accident and had seen the whole thing. When she inquired if the man was seriously injured, the doctor replied "He cannot possibly live, in fact he is probably dead now. He has terrible injuries and almost every bone in his body is broken." My friend made no reply, but again that sense of light and joy flooded

her consciousness with the realization that this was only a fictitious concept of God's true creation—a false concept which had no power and which need not be believed, at that very moment
the true selfhood of that young man was perfect, entirely young,
and whole in the way that best met his human need. Now was he a son of God.

Next morning the doctor fully expecting the man to be dead went to the hospital to make all needed arrangements about the man. When he returned he was in a state of astonishment bordering on bewilderment. He told my friend that the young man was absolutely all right, he had not even a bruise or a mark on his body, nor had it affected him mentally in any way. He was as though the accident had never occurred. In fact, he had been discharged from the hospital perfectly well. The young man's only concern was lest his motor bicycle had been injured and he rushed off to find it as soon as he was discharged from the hospital.

This simple, practical knowing which my friend brought to bear upon the case was surely more effective than the doctor's bandages.

Heaven, Harmony

Mrs. Eddy writes on page 213
of "Science and Health," "Mortal mind is the harp of many strings, discouraging either discord or harmony according as the hand,
which sweeps over it, is human or divine." Here we are reminded of the first two verses of Mrs.
Eddy's lovely hymn entitled
"Christ my Refuge."

"O'er waiting harpstrings of the mind
There sweeps a strain,
Low, sad, and sweet, whose measures bind
The power of pain,
"And wake a white-winged angel
throne
Of thoughts, illumed
By faith, and breathed in rap-
tured song,
With love perfumed."

Christian Science Hymnal
Nos. 253-257.

The mind, "the harp of many strings"—I think you will agree that that is a beautiful description.

If we allow divine Love to sweep the harpstrings of mind,
it will sound the deep strong chords of spiritual harmony.

Our thought must be awakened to the harmonies of divine Love, else we shall be unable to appreciate or enjoy them. Suppose you were to attend a symphony concert of great excellence, and go to sleep in the middle of it. Would you hear the symphony? No! While asleep you might be dreaming
you were wandering in a vast forest surrounded by wild beasts.
Instead of hearing the golden tones of the symphony, the dreamer hears the raucous cries of the beasts in the jungle. The discord is a misrepresentation of the music, a distortion caused by the dream. Around you all the time are the harmonies of the lovely symphony. Mesmeric sleep has distorted the music
until it appears to be nothing but discord personified. The original concert is forgotten and a wholly unreal and fantastic dream experience takes its place.

That is what is meant by the word "Mythology." The original is forgotten and another interpretation of life takes its place.
Does your experience seem hedged about with difficulties, with discord, disease, death? If so, your need is to awaken from the Adam-dream. Do you desire to know more of the kingdom of Heaven?

"Desire is prayer" (S. & H.
1:11) and righteous desire will have its reward. Christian Science says to us, as Jesus said to the little maid who lay lifeless upon the couch, "Talitha Cumi" (Mark 5:41)—"Little one, arise." In other words, "Be conscious of your spiritual surroundings, of your spiritual enlightenment."

All around you are the harmonies of Life—Life inexhaustible, eternal, spiritual. All around you is Truth, invariable, unassailable. All around you is

Urquhart - Healey

Miss Mary Robbins Healey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Healey of 11 Waverley place, Newton Lower Falls, was married to Lt. Duncan H. Urquhart, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Urquhart, Sr. of 38 Eldredge street, Newton, on Saturday, September 14. The four o'clock ceremony was performed in the rectory of St. John's church, Wellesley Hills by the pastor, Rev. John J. Donegan. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

With her gown of white illusion the bride wore a finger tip veil of tulle caught to a Juliet cap trimmed with pearls and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli with an orchid center. Mrs. Charles A. Tower of Auburndale, the matron of honor, wore a gown of yellow lace and net and carried peach colored gladioli with a matching flower head-dress. The best man was Lt. (jg) Charles McCarthy, USN.

Mr. and Mrs. Urquhart left by plane for Canada where they are visiting in Montreal and Quebec. On their return they will make their home in Ayr, while Lt. Urquhart is attending Massachusetts State College. During World War II he served in the Air Corps.

Mrs. Urquhart had been employed by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company since graduating from the Newton High School.

Ingraham - Bradley

Baskets of white gladioli and clematis vines decorated the Universalist Church, Gloucester, on September 15, for the marriage of Miss Jean Marie Bradley and Russell Vaughn Ingraham. The four o'clock candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Allan Clark of the Episcopal Church of Danvers. Candelabra and baskets of pink and white gladioli decorated the vestry of the church for the reception. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmont R. Bradley of Gloucester and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Ingraham of 23 Bowers street, Newtonville, and Wheeler's Point, Gloucester.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin styled with a sweetheart neckline and short train. She carried a white prayer book with a white orchid. Mrs. Arnold W. Barden, of Honolulu, was the matron of honor. Mrs. Barden wore an off-the-shoulder gown of pink faille and carried a bouquet of blue larkspur. The bridesmaids were Miss Frances L. Ferris, Miss Marcia A. Clark, Miss Cynthia A. Gilbert and Miss Barbara A. Goodwin, all of Gloucester. They wore ice blue

Billard - Burke

At a four o'clock wedding, Miss Natalie Roakes Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Burke of Newtonville became the bride of Richard Godfrey Billard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Billard of Rowayton, Conn. The Rev. Victor A. Sealie performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride carried an old fashioned nosegay of roses, lace and tulle with her gown of broad edged nylon and heirloom veil of rosepoint.

The bride is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke College and the bridegroom a graduate of Wesleyan University. Both served as officers in the Navy during the war. They will make their home in New Haven Conn.

satin gowns fashioned with a pink net yoke and carried arm bouquets of pink gladioli. Mrs. Bradley in aqua and Mrs. Ingraham in grey, both wore corsages of red roses.

George H. Ingraham, Jr., of Newtonville, was the best man and the ushers included William F. Fagan, of Wellesley, Fred Bradley, II, of Gloucester, Charles B. Fagan, of Newton Highlands, and John MacNeil, Jr., of Newton. The bride is a graduate of the Gloucester High School, and the groom graduated from the Newton High School, and is attending Suffolk Law. Following a wedding trip to Vermont, Mr. and Mrs. Ingraham will live in Newtonville.

THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, September 22, is "Matter."

The Golden Text, "Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob," is from Psalm 114:7. Other Bible citations include: "The (Jesus) arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her. And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her; and immediately she arose and ministered unto them" (Luke 4:38-39).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Our Master treated error through Mind. He never enjoined obedience to the laws of nature, if by these are meant laws of matter, nor did he use drugs. There is a law of God applicable to healing, and it is a spiritual law instead of material" (p. 463).

Military funeral services for William Joseph Gleason who served during World War I with Battery B, 101st Artillery, Yankee Division, were held Monday morning from his home, 42 Wyman street, Waban.

A solemn requiem mass was celebrated in St. Philip Neri church by Rev. Edward Gillis, assisted by Rev. Thomas J. McDonough, pastor, as deacon and Rev. Walter J. Doyle as sub-deacon. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery, Needham with prayers by Fr. McDonough and Fr. Doyle.

Attending the services were former U. S. Senator Sinclair Weeks who served as commander of Battery B, 101st Artillery in World War I, and a delegation of members of Battery B, a delegation from Newton Post, American Legion led by Sergeant-at-Arms Carley and delegations from the Newton Lodge of Elks and the Newton Taximen's Association. Also present were Deputy Chief John E. Corcoran of the Newton Fire Department and William F. Callahan, former State Public Works Commissioner.

Mr. Gleason died on Friday, September 13 at his home. He was in his 53rd year and was born in Waban, the son of Patrick J. and Della A. (Madden) Gleason. He was educated in the Wellesley schools and was a member of the class of 1913, Wellesley High School. He was a member of Newton Post, American Legion, Newton Lodge of Elks and the St. Philip Neri Men's Club. For the past 30 years he had conducted the Waban Taxi Company.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Florence (Pierce) Gleason, a son, William J. Gleason, Jr., who is attending Massachusetts Institute of Technology, a daughter, Miss Ann Elizabeth Gleason; four brothers, John P., Edward H., and Francis R. of Wellesley Hills and George F. Gleason of Long Beach, California, and four sisters, Miss Mary Gleason and Mrs. William V. Kenney of Wellesley Hills, Mrs. Leon R. Le Clair of West Newton and Mrs. Charles A. Hayden of Norwood.

William J. Gleason
Military funeral services for William Joseph Gleason who served during World War I with Battery B, 101st Artillery, Yankee Division, were held Monday morning from his home, 42 Wyman street, Waban.

A solemn requiem mass was celebrated in St. Philip Neri church by Rev. Edward Gillis, assisted by Rev. Thomas J. McDonough, pastor, as deacon and Rev. Walter J. Doyle as sub-deacon. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery, Needham with prayers by Fr. McDonough and Fr. Doyle.

Attending the services were former U. S. Senator Sinclair Weeks who served as commander of Battery B, 101st Artillery in World War I, and a delegation of members of Battery B, a delegation from Newton Post, American Legion led by Sergeant-at-Arms Carley and delegations from the Newton Lodge of Elks and the Newton Taximen's Association. Also present were Deputy Chief John E. Corcoran of the Newton Fire Department and William F. Callahan, former State Public Works Commissioner.

Mr. Gleason died on Friday, September 13 at his home. He was in his 53rd year and was born in Waban, the son of Patrick J. and Della A. (Madden) Gleason. He was educated in the Wellesley schools and was a member of the class of 1913, Wellesley High School. He was a member of Newton Post, American Legion, Newton Lodge of Elks and the St. Philip Neri Men's Club. For the past 30 years he had conducted the Waban Taxi Company.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Florence (Pierce) Gleason, a son, William J. Gleason, Jr., who is attending Massachusetts Institute of Technology, a daughter, Miss Ann Elizabeth Gleason; four brothers, John P., Edward H., and Francis R. of Wellesley Hills and George F. Gleason of Long Beach, California, and four sisters, Miss Mary Gleason and Mrs. William V. Kenney of Wellesley Hills, Mrs. Leon R. Le Clair of West Newton and Mrs. Charles A. Hayden of Norwood.

Estelle Leighton
Funeral services for Mrs. Estelle I. Leighton, widow of Henry A. Leighton, were held Friday afternoon at her home, 67 Elgin street, Newton Centre. Rev. Frederick M. Morris of Trinity Episcopal Church, Newton Centre officiated. Burial was in the Newton Cemetery.

Mrs. Leighton died at her home on Wednesday, September 11, after being stricken ill the previous Sunday at Scituate where she had been employed as a nurse. She was born in Nova Scotia and had resided most of her life in Newton.

She is survived by her son, Herman A. Leighton of Newton Centre.

Newtonville Woman's Club to Hold Shopper's Bazaar

Plans are being rapidly completed for the Shopper's Bazaar which is being sponsored by the Finance Committee of the Newtonville Woman's Club. Miss Estelle G. Marsh, Club President, is General Chairman, with Mrs. Riley J. Hampton vice-chairman. The bazaar will open at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, October 29, and will continue until 10 p.m.

The sandwich bar will be in charge of Mrs. John Cox; the sweet shop, Mrs. Marshall David; the linen shop, Mrs. Harold Osterland; the bib and tucker shop, Mrs. Roger Wheeler; the food shop, Mrs. George Edmunds and Mrs. Horace Orr; the florist shop, Mrs. Philip Goodhue; the what-not shop, Mrs. William Martineau; the second hand shop, Mrs. George Whitehead; the beverage shop, Mrs. Walter Burt; supper, Mrs. Robert Lindquist; decorations, Mrs. Frank Wightman.

A very distinctive feature will be the evening arcade, in charge of Mr. John Clark, and Mrs. Edwin P. McGill.

Club members have been working with great enthusiasm for the various "Shops" and many delightful surprises are in store for those who attend, and a real opportunity is afforded for everyone to do his "Christmas shopping early."

Newton Lions Club

"Some Problems of the Newton Schools" were outlined by the superintendent, Homer Anderson, in his talk before the Newton Lions Club at its regular weekly meeting on Thursday evening of last week at the Newton Y.M.C.A.

Dr. Anderson explained that one of the principal problems confronting the Newton School Department is the shortage of building material which is expected to delay for at least two years the start of the proposed long-range building plan. This plan contemplates the erection of new schools in residential centers which have shifted in the past 30 years. The 23 elementary schools in the city, as now located, leave about one-third of the city without adequate facilities, said the speaker. According to the proposed plan, there will be only 24 elementary schools but, properly located, they will give complete coverage to the city.

A delegation from the Club attended the dinner meeting of the Newton Rotary Club on last Monday, when the Lions and Kiwanis Clubs were guests at a talk by U. S. Senator Saltonstall.

W.C.T.U.

The Newton W. C. T. U. will meet on Sept. 26 at 2:30 p.m. in the Parish House of the First Baptist Church in Newton Centre. Rev. Charles Arbuckle, the pastor, will give the devotional message.

Newton Lodge, BPOE

At Elk's Hall, Newton on last Thursday evening, fourteen new members were inducted into the Newton Lodge. The new members are:

Carl N. Roberts, Benjamin B. Jasper, Hammond E. Genstil, David R. Conell, Gerald R. McCarron, Charles W. Gordon, Robert J. Burns, Jr., Paul J. Marzilli, Alfonso Ferrara, Ernest J. Pescosolido, Edward E. DelVecchio, Daniel Cardella and Robert B. Kirkpatrick.

Secretary Thomas Coppinger presented an eulogy for Kristoffer Eriksson, a member of the lodge for 30 years, who died on Aug. 22, while visiting his son in Boston.

It was announced that the annual "Visitation" will be held by District Deputy Robert C. N. Mulcahy at the meeting of Nov. 14. A challenge was received from the Brookline Lodge for inter-lodge contests.

Refreshments were served under the direction of George Delaney, chairman of the house committee.

The meeting was conducted by Exalted Ruler Nicholas Veducchio. The next meeting of the lodge will be on Thursday, Sept. 26.

Red Cross Home Nursing Courses Again Offered Public

The demand for nurses and doctors continues to be great, therefore the Newton Chapter, American Red Cross is again offering courses in Home Nursing Care to help relieve the shortage in this field. Classes for "Six Lessons in Care of the Sick" will start Monday September 30th, from 7:30 to 9:30 P. M. and continue each Monday and Wednesday thereafter. Those who cannot attend lessons in the daytime, will find it convenient to enroll in the evening classes. For further information and registration please call LAsell 6000.

Red Cross Caravan To Visit Boston

Considerable local curiosity has been aroused by rumors of a Red Cross Caravan which is expected to visit many of the village centers throughout the Newtons in early October. Housewives are urged to watch for details as to the times of its appearances and plan their shopping expeditions accordingly. Displays of interest will be shown, and much valuable information may be obtained by inspection of this unique exhibit.

Nonantum Civic Assoc. To Hold Ladies' Night

The Nonantum Civic Association will open its fall season with a "Ladies Night" on Tuesday evening, Oct. 1.

In charge of the affair are Samuel Fried, Dr. Hyman Shrier, Edward Fahey, Henry Boudreau, Philip Lembo, Robert Norcross and Robert Wombolt.

But, Officer, I just want to be first in line for the B. F. Goodrich Tire that

OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES!

We're not suggesting that you pitch a tepee on our doorstep. But we know how much you, like so many other car owners, want B. F. Goodrich Silvertowns on your car, and we know why. Because you have heard that:

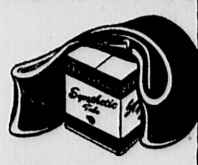

1. The new, better synthetic rubber developed by B. F. Goodrich makes Silvertowns run cooler, wear longer than prewar tires.
2. The 35% stronger tire body is made possible by a new, stronger cord, more cords per inch in the top ply, and an extra shock-absorbing breaker strip.
3. The new wider, flatter "road level" tread puts more rubber on the road to share the wear and provide quicker stops, better traction, and more safety on the turns.
4. More than 2,000 tests and 17,000,000 miles of the toughest kind of actual road service developed that the new B. F. Goodrich Silvertown outwears prewar natural rubber tires.

REV. RANDOLPH S. MERRILL

This week marks Rev. Randolph S. Merrill's fifteenth anniversary as minister of Central Congregational Church in Newtonville. In his sermon last Sunday, he reviewed some of the interesting events in the life of the Church; its struggle during those first years when the country was in the midst of the depression; its success in maintaining through it all its high standard of giving to benevolences and to the support of the Church. Central Church is proud of its growth in these fifteen years during which 856 per-

Citizens' Advisory Committee Closes

The office of the Citizen's Advisory Committee for Returning Veterans, in the Newtonville Library Building, will close permanently at the end of this month, according to announcement today by Roy S. Edwards, chairman of the committee. On and after October 1, veterans are referred to the department of Veterans' Services at City Hall for information and assistance.

ROY S. EDWARDS

"The Committee has been watching conditions carefully for several months," Mr. Edwards explained in making his announcement, "and feels that it is time to close. The demobilization plans of the armed forces are practically complete. Over 8000 men and women have been returned to civilian life in Newton. To the best of our knowledge,

Salvation Army Drive Here Opened With Meeting Last Tuesday

Newton's Goal in 46-47 Appeal Is $25,000

Newton's drive for $25,000 as its share of the Salvation Army 1946-1947 Greater Boston Appeal for One Million Dollars opened Tuesday evening with an enthusiastic meeting of 135 top leaders and group captains, held in the Normandy room at Norumbega Park by courtesy of the management. Philip S. Jamieson, chairman for Newton, presided. Others present included Colonel Richard F. Stretton, chief executive officer of the Salvation Army in New England.

It was explained that the amount of this year's Appeal, $1,000,000, is more than double that of any previous year because for the first time in the history of these Appeals, funds for Capital Accounts are added. Most important of these items is $175,000 as Greater Boston's share towards a new Evangeline Booth Home and Hospital. To

By PAUL CONSIDINE

They've been fixing the roof of the Elks building, 439 Centre street, so's to insure a maximum of protection for the new chrome and leather furnishings there, not to mention the health of the exalted ruler and the good Elks who congregate, nightly, in the lodge rooms.

A protective order, they enjoy a little protection for themselves, occasionally, so that the sound of the roofers' hammers, noise and all, registered as sweet music to those who are inclined to court the cozy comforts...

However, one of the roofers forgot to press the middle valve down, or something, come quitting time last Tuesday, and as a result the heavy rain, shortly after midnight Wednesday, poured torrents of the stuff—water—down upon the heads of the more studious brothers in the Elks library.

A call to the Fire Department sent Ladder 3 to the scene and (Continued on Page 4)

Newton Halowe'en Committees Tackle Huge Task

Running Newton's forthcoming 45 Halowe'en parties is a big job. It's a job, though, that 1500 of Newton's fathers, mothers, teachers and other young oldsters are tackling zestfully, despite a staggering number of details that would challenge the imagination of anyone not on the inside.

But all these grown-ups who are assembling the machinery that will make the parties run smoothly are having a lot of fun out of it. And it will be a toss-up, when the parties are actually in full swing, whether the children or the committees are having the best time.

The entire, city-wide celebration stems from two people who know children and what it takes (Continued on Page 4)

A Job Well Done

In these days of pyramiding bureaus and commissions to delve into every phase of our living, it is worthy of note when a committee has courage enough to realize that their particular task is finished and their work can be carried on by others. This has been the decision of the Newton Citizens Advisory Committee for Returning Veterans.

Created by the Community Council in the closing days of the war to supplement existing agencies in giving all our returning men adequate counsel and help, it has performed an admirable service. Over 9600 veterans have been contacted at least once and Director John Wheelock and his staff of volunteers have had over 1800 interviews during its thirty-three months of existence. Many a Newton returning soldier has found his place easier into civilian life because of the very real assistance from this office.

With the enlargement of the veterans service staff at City Hall and the establishment of a Newton office of the Veterans Administration plus the increasingly small number being released from the services, Roy Edwards and his committee are confident that the permanent agencies in the City can take over their duties.

Newton is grateful for the work of these men during the hectic days of demobilization. Their work adds another chapter in outstanding performance by our citizens in the history of our City.

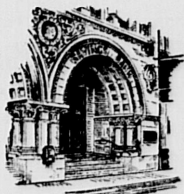

Let Economics Function in America

People find it easy to place blame on someone near them and that is why critics continuously attack local officials as responsible for the lack of housing. Builders lay the situation to Government interference with supplies precisely as in the case of meats.

Housebuilders are waiting 90 days because OPA allowed a raise on lath stock yet held prices down on wallboard. The same machines can produce both but they produce only lath stock. Pipe for plumbing is virtually unobtainable. Prices on steel rods for concrete work are held down so that steel mills must make other steel items to operate successfully. Plenty of lumber and shingles could be bought today from Canada, but OPA prices keep such stock out of the U.S.A. There are a few carloads of green lumber in some yards, but the quality is so low that reputable builders will not stoop to conceal it under plaster and paint. Ask any plywood dealer whether Federal interference has affected output and distribution.

Nails are not being made because of low OPA prices, yet a few nails may be bought for $10.00 a keg in the black market, whereas the old cost was $4.00. Legitimate dealers cannot procure supplies, yet the black markets thrive as did the bootleggers in earlier years.

It is clear that the advocates of excessive controls, be they individuals or organizations, must accept blame for the scarcity of housing and of meat. American farmers and American industry will effectively solve our problems, given a chance to follow the rules of economic balance. The desire to regiment our resources is the lurking, malicious factor. Government regulation has not prevented surpluses of some articles and scarcity of others, and primarily we have no place for managed prices, nor controlled production and distribution in a free America.

"My Bank'll Take Care of That!"

Not everything, of course—but it's surprising how many things our bank will take care of for you, if you'll let us.

For instance—a home of your own. You can lay the foundation by starting a SAVINGS ACCOUNT, adding to it regularly. We'll help it grow faster by adding regular dividends, twice a year. Later, we'll arrange a MORTGAGE to help pay for your home—tailored to your particular needs.

Protection for your family? We'll help you buy it through SAVINGS BANK LIFE INSURANCE—the cheapest form of life insurance available anywhere. We sell it "over the counter" for every member of the family (yes, even the baby!).

Paying bills? With our REGISTER CHECKS we'll help you pay them safely, quickly and give you a permanent record of every transaction. Cost?—just 10c a check (up to $100).

Christmas presents—vacations—taxes, and other once-a-year expenses? We have SPECIAL SAVINGS CLUBS to cover any or all of them.

Yes, a banking connection can help you in many ways—and not the least of them is giving you a place to come to talk over any financial question. Our customers feel free to consult us at any time—because they know us well enough to know we like it!

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

Henry A. Wallace

For many, many years our former Vice-President, Henry A. Wallace, now in the ranks of the unemployed, has been the No. 1 problem-child in the Democratic party. The late Mr. Roosevelt seemed to know how best to handle this very visionary gentleman, but Mr. Truman obviously has not shared his former chief's ability. As the facts of the case gradually begin to unfold, it seems to me that our President made his first big blunder when he received the famous Wallace letter of last July. A show-down at that time between the two men might have spared all the recent confusion and misunderstanding. That lengthy letter made it painfully clear to Mr. Truman that Wallace and his Chief, to say nothing of Wallace and Mr. Byrnes, had very little in common on questions of foreign policy, especially as this policy affected our relations with Russia. In my humble opinion, last July was the time when Wallace should have been eased out of the Cabinet as diplomatically as possible.

The question now arises as to whether or not the extremely capable and diplomatic Mr. Harriman, who has taken Wallace's place as Secretary of Commerce, can repair the serious damage done by Wallace in his Madison Square Garden speech in New York. Remember that it was the left-wing elements in this country and the Soviet press, including the Communist sheets everywhere, which approved of all that Wallace said. Doesn't that make it seem as though the deposed Commerce Secretary was little more than a fifth columnist, operating under respectable circumstances? As for Mr. Harriman, who has served effectively both in London and in Moscow, it should be carefully noted that Marshal Stalin appears to have a higher regard for him than for any other living American. That augurs well for our future relations with Russia, provided that nobody else bobs up to spill the beans.

State Conventions

An absolutely impartial voter would have found himself in a quandary if he read the Boston Herald, the Post and the Globe last Sunday morning. According to the Herald, Mayor Curley made this comment about Governor Tobin: "I don't think any man could be more vicious or cruel than he has been to me."

The Boston Globe stated that Mayor Curley "attacked Gov.

Tobin as having been "cruel and vicious" toward him.

The Boston Post, which never sees anything but the good in our Governor, apparently chose to ignore the most important drama in the entire Democratic convention.

Our independent voters will have to make up their minds as to whom to believe. There is one interesting thought in this connection. It seems to be generally agreed that Mayor Curley indicated that he would vote for Gov. Tobin, despite his pungent and highly critical remarks. What price sincerity in the political arena?

The Republican convention, held in Symphony Hall, in contrast to the more luxurious surroundings of the Democracy in the Copley Plaza Hotel, was a most enthusiastic affair from start to finish. The hall was packed and the ushers were very busy, especially when some lone Democrat got himself a seat in the second balcony and tried to heckle Clarence A. Barnes, Attorney General. Even though this uninvited guest was persistent, his voice was so thick that it was hard to tell what message he was endeavoring to present.

Lt. Governor Bradford made one of his best, fighting addresses to date. Senator Saltonstall and former Senator Lodge were also in fine form. It was my impression that these three men alone could have sold a bill of goods to the half-million unenrolled voters in Massachusetts, if there had been sufficient room in Symphony Hall. Even Senate President Arthur W. Coolidge, who has no special reputation as a spell-binder, did a good job and made a first-rate impression. Russell A. Wood, one of the best orators the G.O.P. has had in a great many years, made a hit with his suggested slogan, presented near the close of the convention. As I heard it, it was, "Give the government back to the people." He hopes that that message will be given to the voters in every section of this state.

Party Platforms

Space prevents a discussion of the platforms adopted. Very unimpressive, as usual.

The new clubhouse of the Newton Club will be a substantial structure, in style "Old Colonial," with broad piazzas, porches, and balconies, giving it a look of cordial and home like hospitality, and is destined to make the club one of the leading features in the "Garden City."

The whole number of pupils enrolled in 1890-'91 was 4487 and the number of children attending schools May 1, 1891 was 4436 an increase of 195 over the preceding year.

The city has purchased a new horse for the use of City Marshal Richardson. It is a sorrel weighing about 1000 lbs. and was shipped here Monday from Vermont.

Dr. Curtis was a passenger on the train which met with an accident near the Columbus avenue station Tuesday and looked after the injured passengers requiring medical attention.

During the past week Auburn-dale has been on the qui vive to know how best to interest the presidential (President Harrison) party. At the Woodland Park last Saturday evening a fine concert was given under the direction of Mr. E. H. Frye of Wellesley Hills.

With all the pomp and ceremony of the Masonic ritual, the corner stone of the new Masonic temple at Newtonville was laid Wednesday afternoon. Nearly every member of the grand lodge of Massachusetts was present, and the corner stone of the imposing structure, which is the future home of the Newton Masonic fraternity, was laid by the grand master in person.

The Newton Cricket Club is now tied with the East Boston for first place and the silver cup.

A hearing has been granted for next Monday night on the question of seizing the bank grounds by the city. This part of the city has at last been pretty well aroused on the matter, although it is rather late in the day, as the bank has gone to the expense of having an architect draw plans for a new building, and has ordered the materials of which it is to be constructed and awarded the contract, not to mention having dug the cellar.

For Saturday, Sept. 26, we will sell 15 lbs. sweet potatoes, 25 cents. C. beef, 3, 5, 7 and 9 cents per pound. Fowls, 15, chickens, 18. Holton hebron potatoes, 55c per bushel at Newton Public Cash Market, 413 Centre street.

Another feather in the cap of the Newton Veteran Firemen's Association. This time it is second prize, $150. If the boys keep on they will lead the societies in this state. They won second prize at the Boston muster, and their friends celebrated the event with enthusiasm.

An Open Letter To Newton Residents, Old and New

The oldest and friendliest drug store in Newton Centre passed another anniversary on August 15th without fanfare or special sale. That date marked the beginning of the third year of Hahn Drug Store under the ownership and management of the Carl Alvord family with the able assistance of Albert Hahn, Ed Ulrich, Mrs. Hynes and others. The older residents of Newton are well acquainted with the Hahn Pharmacy and its 50 year reputation of friendliness and integrity. It has always been a comfortable place to trade ever since the long gone days of Ben Buck. William Hahn maintained that excellent reputation for 37 years, and the Alvord family and assistants are continuing to operate the store in the fine tradition established over half a century ago.

To the new residents of the Newtons, may we suggest that you come in and get acquainted. You will find a mellow, old-fashioned pharmacy, yet sufficiently up to date to provide you with the most important thing: the finest prescription service available, including three pharmacists to fill your prescriptions and the freshest, best quality, and newest drugs with which to fill them. In our cosmetic department, you will find Revlon, Harriet Hubbard Ayer, Tabu, Yardley, Hillshire Downs, and a host of other fine cosmetics. You will be able to buy Hood's fine, rich ice cream in bulk, if you wish, or in their excellent Party Roll. The store carries a complete line of good cigars, pipes and smokers' supplies.

Principally you will be pleased with the friendly atmosphere of the place, and the pleasant greeting you receive upon arrival. You will enjoy being served with alacrity and despatch. And don't be surprised if we say "Good-afternoon" or "Good night" as you leave. It's a custom in Hahn's. There is also a map of Newton on the wall, to help you locate the many parts of our beautiful city. Stamps are always available for your convenience. You may pay your gas, light and telephone bills here. Prices are the same as elsewhere and in line with Fair Trade laws. Come and see us, we will be glad to meet you.

On this anniversary, may we express our deep appreciation for the past two excellent years, and please accept our pledge that we will continue to merit the name: "The Friendly Drug Store."

FEEDING THE BABY

Milk—especially breast milk—contains almost everything that a young baby needs for nourishment. Very early in his life, a newborn baby can be given foods that will supply other things he needs.

When a baby is two weeks old he can be given citrus juices and tomato juice to help him grow and keep well. These juices contain vitamin C, an element necessary for health and normal growth. Freshly squeezed, unsweetened orange or grapefruit juice, which has not been left standing, contains the most vitamin C, but canned orange juice is practically equal to fresh in its vitamin C content. It is certainly easier for a busy mother. Tomato juice is just as good for a baby as orange juice and is sometimes easier to get. But remember that it takes twice as much tomato juice as orange juice to get the same amounts of vitamin C.

Most doctors recommend a teaspoonful of orange juice every day at two weeks old. A suggested schedule, if your doctor agrees, is to give one teaspoonful daily at two weeks; two table-spoonsful (one ounce) at four weeks; two ounces daily at six weeks, and three ounces daily at eight weeks.

Another vital food given to the baby at two weeks is some sort of fish liver oil recommended by your doctor. Fish liver oils supply vitamins A and D. These vitamins will help your baby to rest well, form hard bones, grow strong and tall, form straight legs and a well developed chest.

The amount you give your baby will depend upon your doctor's advice and the kind of oil you are to use. Doctors usually suggest starting with a few drops and working up to the full dosage they prescribe.

It is advisable to give the oil alone, rather than mix it with other foods, so that the baby can learn to like the taste. This will help the baby to gain a taste for this oil and since vitamin D helps in forming teeth and bones, many doctors recommend giving it in some form through adolescence—especially here in New England where our sunny days are often far apart.

Sunshine then is also a source of vitamin D. Ask your doctor about sun-baths for your baby. However, fish liver oils should be continued through the summer months, even if the baby does take sunbaths.

Milk, plus these two important additions, will give the baby the food he needs until the doctor says to give the baby strained, pureed and chopped solid foods, sometime between the third and fourth months.

In addition 25 records were donated by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ellis of Newton, Gold Star parents. Refreshments were served.

Members of the Newton Chapter present were Mrs. John Forrester, Mrs. Rose Castagnino, Mrs. Rose Venuto, John Brown, Mrs. Harry Ellis, Mrs. Alice Paquette, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Belton, Mrs. Mary Rooney, Mrs. T. J. McGrath, Mrs. Charles Duffy, Mr. and Mrs. John Connolly, Mrs. Ethel Burns, Mrs. David Kerr and Mrs. Lewis Wood.

The chapter will hold a bridge and whist party on Friday evening in the War Memorial Building cafeteria. Mrs. Joseph Corrigan is chairman.

The next regular meeting of the chapter will be held on October 2.

Cub Pack 6 to Meet Sept. 27

A meeting of the committee of the Newtonville Cub Scouts Pack 6 was held Sunday night at the home of Mr. James Riggs, 191 Mill street, Newtonville. Mr. Riggs is Cubmaster this coming year.

The officers and committeemen for the 1946-1947 season present at this meeting are: chairman, Mr. Fred Fogg; vice chairman, Mr. Thomas King; secretary, Mr. Aven S. Levenson; treasurer, Mr. Douglas Nielson; committeemen, Mr. Earle Schwartz, Mr. H. Edgar Beaven, Mr. Linden Petts, Mr. Robert Toher; and Cubmaster, Mr. James Riggs.

Plans for the coming year were discussed and the prospects are for a very active and interesting season.

Arrangements were completed for the first Pack meeting, to be held Friday night, September 27, at 7:30 at the Newtonville Women's Club on Washington Park in Newtonville.

NORUMBEGA COUNCIL. Boy Scouts of America, of Newton and Wellesley, a Red Feather agency, installs its newest scout troop at the Peabody Home for Crippled Children, Newton Centre. Members of the new troop, No. 8, at the conclusion of the ceremony, when the new Tenderfoot Scouts received Tenderfoot pins, certificates, and Scout neckerchiefs, are assembled with Senior Scouts and committeemen who will sponsor the troop. Left to right: George Durand, Frank Harriman, Norman Dubois, John Hughes, Herman McDowell, Charles French, and Paul Johnson—all new scouts; John McAloon, Ned Grade, Leonard Kent, John Cummings, Milan Dickinson, Peter Cummings—senior scouts; Henry S. C. Cummings, committeeman; Robert E. Pettit, scout executive; Edward Michaud, Scout Commissioner; E. T. Dickinson and Worthing West, committeemen; and James D. Blackall, who organized the troop. (Camille LaFlamme also qualified for Tenderfoot rank, but was discharged from the home a week before the ceremony to return to his home in Vermont.)

City Employees' Resolutions Adopted At Convention

The 41st annual three-day convention of the Federation of State, City and Town Employees was held at the Hotel Sheraton, Worcester, the past week end.

Two resolutions offered by the Newton City Employees Local 175 were adopted at the convention on which legislative action will be sought. The resolutions are:

That municipal employees be furnished statements of the gross amount of their salary or wages and an itemized list of the accounts withheld therefrom each week; that employees now under the so-called old pension law, laborers, foremen, inspectors, mechanics, draftsmen, and storekeepers, be given an increased pension from one-half of their State, City and Town Employees earnings during the last year of employment.

Delegate-at-large A. L. Moriarty of Newton pointed out that a retired employee who now receives $7 weekly, would get $9.33 under the new plan. It was reported that at the last session of the Legislature a law was passed providing employees who have worked for a municipality for 26 weeks in the aggregate during the preceding calendar year, shall be granted an annual vacation of not less than two weeks without loss of pay.

James Barry of Cambridge was elected president for his second term and William J. Byrnes of Medford was named secretary-treasurer for his 10th term. William Thompson of Waltham was elected auditor.

Newton delegates attending the convention were Edward Coffey, John D. Russo, Joseph L. Landry, Charles Fagan, Thomas J. Moran and Delegate-at-large Moriarty. The next State convention will be in Cambridge.

Dr. Walter A. Maier Lutheran Hour Speaker Here

Dr. Walter A. Maier, internationally-known Lutheran Hour speaker addressed the combined church councils of the Lutheran Church of the Newtons and Christ Lutheran Church in Newtonville. Dr. Maier made a stirring plea for active participation of the layman in bringing the gospel to the unchurched. He cited instances of how the Lutheran Hour has been a missionary agency in the establishing of new churches. The Rev. Arthur H. Block, pastor of the local church, preached the sermon on the topic: "The Master's Message, Messengers, and Method," basing his remark on Luke 24, verses 45-49. A practical demonstration of layman participation was given by the Rev. Victor G. Albers of Christ Lutheran Church of Belmont. An interesting talk on the establishing

Miss Kilburn Named Christmas Seal Chairman

Miss M. Elizabeth Kilburn has been named chairman of the committee which will direct the 1946 Christmas Seal Sale throughout the city to raise funds for tuberculosis control work, according to an announcement made today by the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs and the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association. The campaign is part of a nation wide fortieth annual Christmas Seal Sale which opens November 25, and will continue until Christmas. The Federation of Women's Clubs has divided up the city into ten parts with a chairman for each section. Mrs. Charles H. Clark, of 45 Nonantum street, has charge of Newton. Mrs. F. Payson LeBaron, of 28 King street for Auburndale. Chairman of Newton Upper Falls is Mrs. Norman W. Mahan, of 90 Roundwood road. For Newtonville, Mrs. Richard A. MacMillan, 38 Highland avenue; Waban, Mrs. Frederick Atherton, 71 Neshebe road; West Newton, Mrs. C. Warren Howe, 161 Randlett Park; Newton Highlands, Mrs. Roger J. Gilmore, 51 Rockledge road; Newton Lower Falls, Mrs. E. Gale Whittemore, 1357 Washington street; Chestnut Hill, Miss M. Elizabeth Kilburn, 235 Highland avenue, West Newton. The funds which are raised in Newton by the sale of Christmas Seals are used in conducting the Rehabilitation Program and the Health Education Program of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association, Inc. Miss Kilburn has called a meeting of all local chairmen for this week at the office of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association, 1357 Washington street, West Newton, to plan the details of the campaign.

Home Nursing Class For Busy People

The Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross is again offering its popular streamlined course of "Six Lessons in the Care of the Sick." Mrs. Chester M. Alter, Chairman of Home Nursing, announces that the lessons will be given at the Chapter House, 21 Foster street, on the following evenings:

Sept. 30	Oct. 2
Oct. 7	Oct. 9
Oct. 14	Oct. 16

The sessions will be from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

GREATER THAN THE ATOMIC BOMB

It was the great Sir James Simpson, world-famous scientist, who when he was asked, "What do you consider your greatest discovery?" replied: "That I am a sinner and that Christ is my Savior."

To a world, still dizzy with excitement over the invention of the atomic bomb, this "greatest discovery" of Sir Simpson may not seem to be of much importance.

And yet his was the greatest discovery any man can ever make. Within the reach of every one of us God has placed a power which can spell the difference between heaven and hell. 1 Cor. 1:18-24; 1 Peter 2:6-9.

That power was demonstrated in all its fullness on a little hill outside the City of Jerusalem 1900 years ago. There the powers of heaven met with the powers of hell, and the powers of hell were vanquished. Gen. 3:15; Col. 2:13-15; 1 Cor. 15:55-57; Heb. 2:14, 15.

When Christ died in the place of sinners and the noonday sun became as black as night, when the earth quaked and the graves were opened (Matt. 26:45-53), the power of hell had been forever broken. The sins of all mankind had been atoned!

Throughout the centuries this message of personal redemption through the blood of Christ, which the Bible calls the "power of God," has brought its light and healing influence into the hearts and lives of millions.

The Gospel of Christ has proved to be the only power which can cleanse the guilty conscience, which can bring peace to the troubled soul, and which can change the savage heart of man into the dwelling of the Master!

The world has known no greater "discovery", nor can it ever hope to find one greater.

Large Enrollment at All Newton Music School

Fall Term Opens at New Quarters On Walnut Street, Newtonville

The Fall term of the All Newton Music School opened for daily sessions in the new headquarters at 398 Walnut street, corner of Cabot, Newtonville, on Monday, September 16. The branch at the Pierce School, Chestnut street, in West Newton opened on Tuesday, September 17. Sessions are held here on Tuesdays and Thursdays afternoons for the convenience of residents of Waban, Lower Falls, Auburndale, and West Newton. While young students will continue to have lessons at the branch school, they will go at regular intervals to the main building in Newtonville for coaching, auditions, recitals, concerts and special events, in order to coordinate and unify the work of the whole school. Older students are encouraged to enroll at the main building where facilities are especially good for all music activities.

All during the first week, applications poured in keeping the staff and faculty busy arranging schedules and getting lessons started. A large enrollment of students has filled all departments leaving only a few vacancies still open. There is a waiting list for piano instruction, but every effort will be made to place those who have applied as soon as possible.

The various music groups which form a very important part of the Music School's curriculum, will begin early in October. Junior and Senior orchestras will begin rehearsals during the first week. Classes in Theory of Music will start during the second week and will continue for thirty weeks through May 1947. These classes provide a foundation in the knowledge and skills essential to the trained musician. The aim of the theory work is to make the student thoroughly familiar with the various elements of which music is made, to develop the ability to listen intelligently, to develop rhythmic sense through exercises and the rhythm band, to provide a musical vocabulary based upon experience in sound and rhythm, and to foster and develop creative impulse leading to experience in composition. Marion Whitley, well known in musical circles of Greater Boston and Cape Cod, will be in charge of theory classes.

The All Newton Music School is fortunate in having a faculty of superior musical background, training, and experience, many of the group having been with the school for several years. Teachers of piano include Beulah French Bell, Theresa Caruso, Mary Festinger, Eleanor Goings, Marion Greene, Leona Macgregor, Lillian Mudge, Agnes Olson, Ruth Spencer, Ellen Starkweather, L. Marie Taylor and Lillian West. In the string department, Irene Forte and Mary Scipione are teachers of violin and orchestra leaders, and Edna Tucker, teacher of violoncello. The woodwind department includes Frances Snow Drinker, teacher of flute and Edna Toll of clarinet.

net. Leslie Kyle is in charge of voice culture and choral work. The directors of music are Irene Forte and Lillian West who supervise and coordinate all the various departments of the school. Miss Forte is a graduate of the All Newton Music School and Miss West has been head of the piano department since 1912.

The executive staff of the Music School consists of Mabel B. Worth, Executive Director, Marion Chidsey, Financial Secretary and in charge of the Pierce Branch, Helen Chartrand, office secretary.

Church—

sions were taken into its membership.

Besides serving his own parish, Mr. Merrill has held the following offices: President, Boston Congregational Club, President, Newton Minister's Association, Member, Prudential Committee of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

He is at present, trustee of Jaffa College, Ceylon; Moderator, Suffolk West Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers; President, Boston Association of Alumni of Union Theological Seminary.

On Friday evening, September 27th, the whole church is joining in a reception and party to express their appreciation of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill's work and in wishing them many more happy years here.

After the reception and a program of community singing led by Mr. James H. Remley, who is also acting as Master of Ceremonies, there will be a period of reminiscing, including "We Found a Minister" by Mr. Frank Willson and "We've Been Glad Ever Since" by Mrs. Irving O. Palmer.

Miss Esther Height will sing—as will a male quartet. There will be a "Parade of the Years," and then the three charming Boudreau sisters will represent the Church School by offering three selections, singing in part harmony. The rest of the evening will be spent in square dancing—the callers being Miss Barbara Brickett and Miss Audrey Ross—the pianist will be Mrs. Walter Sears.

Those in charge of the program are: Mr. and Mrs. Winslow C. Aury, Mrs. Robert L. Monroe, Mr. James H. Remley, Mr. Wallace M. Ross, and Mrs. Frank W. Warren.

Red Cross Caravan to Visit Village Centers

On October 3 and 4, most of the village centers throughout Newton will receive a visit from a Red Cross Caravan. The vehicles will contain displays which will be of timely interest to the women of the city. The schedule of stops is as follows:

Thursday, Oct. 3 — 9:30-10:45, Nonantum; 11:15-12:30, Newton; 1:30-2:45, Newtonville; 3:15-4:30, West Newton.

Friday, Oct. 4 — 9:30-10:45, Auburndale; 11:15-12:30, Waban; 1:30-2:45, Newton Highlands; 3:15-4:30, Newton Centre.

Advisory—

there are less than a thousand Newton men still in service, and they are those who have adopted the services as a career, or have recently enlisted and have a definite term of years to serve."

The Citizens' Advisory Committee was appointed near the end of 1943 by Mayor Goddard, complying with the request of Governor Saltonstall that communities prepare themselves for the problems arising from the return of large numbers of service men and women to civilian life, and set up an organization which would coordinate existing agencies and direct the veteran to the place where he would get exactly the information or help desired. The Committee's headquarters were established in the Public Safety office, with John F. Wheelock as executive secretary.

In April 1944, the Committee became a recognized member agency of the Newton Community Chest; since that time the city has continued to provide the quarters in the Library Building and the Community Chest has supplied the funds necessary for operation. The Committee consisted of Charles B. Floyd, who retired as chairman in November 1945, Roy S. Edwards, James P. Gallagher, David Greer, Theodore R. Lockwood, William B. Plumer, Stanton J. Ten Broeck, and Mayor Paul M. Goddard, ex-officio. Mrs. Chester S. Merrill and Mrs. Maurice B. Strauss have acted successively as office assistants, full time and a great deal of valuable volunteer assistance has been given by Dr. Dwight G. Burrage.

"During three years of existence the Committee has assisted over 2500 veterans," Mr. Edwards pointed out, "more than 1800 by personal interview. A complete file of those in service, with addresses, has been maintained and kept up to date. Except within the last few days, as soon as notice was received that a man had been discharged, he was sent a letter asking what his plans were and setting forth the services offered by the Committee. These included free photostats of discharge papers; free physical examination by the Committee physician, Dr. Allen R. Barrow; job referrals; government insurance adjustments; and help in all phases of veterans' rights under the G. I. Bill. Employment guidance was provided by the Mayor's Committee on Employment, Howard W. Selby, chairman; and free legal advice by a panel of Newton lawyers. Total referrals on all these subjects has been close to 4000."

"It is anticipated that this program will be carried on in substantially the same way by the expanded department of Veterans' Services at City Hall. The Newton veteran will also be substantially helped by the recent opening of a local branch office of the Veterans' Administration at Newton Corner.

"The co-operation of Newton agencies and Newton's citizens has been very active and effective. It is our belief that the great majority of Newton veterans have made a completely satisfactory return to civilian life, and that those few who have not will continue to find ready assistance in many quarters. The question of housing still remains difficult and very unsatisfactory, and has been from the start a problem on which the Committee was unable to furnish adequate aid. The outcome is not easy to see, but what is clear, immediately, is the obligation of Newton citizens to recognize the veterans' position and do everything possible to give him preference."

STORIES...
Mr. James P. Gallagher, clerk of the Newton District Court, known as 'Jim' to his friends and to a couple of million others as the best story teller this side of Hollywood, kept this writer grinning during the Newton Kiwanis Club's luncheon meeting, at the "Y," last Wednesday, but as is always usual with the good ones, Jim's yarns weren't for publication. One of them—they were all true, incidentally—concerned an incident that occurred after midnight, too, and would have done wonders for this week's offering.

However, the guy's pretty important up around the courtroom, knows all the judges, and being as how this department may forget to depress the brake pedal at one of the thousands and thousands of stop and enter intersections we feature in our town, one of these nights, it's maybe just as well that the rules be observed and the friendship of the gentleman be cultivated, ahem, just in case...

DEDICATION OF FIRE ALARM SYSTEM...
One story about a Newton Kiwanis Club achievement that concerns a job undertaken by the Club a year ago, heard at high noon, can be mentioned here because the club worked night and day to put it over. A good job, well done, it's worth a couple of minutes of anybody's reading time.

It all began when Robert H. Wilcox, chairman of the Newton Kiwanis Club's activities at the New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children, discussed with Fire Chief John L. Keating, about one year ago, ways and means of doing something for the protection and safety of the little sufferers up there. At that time, because of the Home's location in the highest point in the Oak Hill section of Newton, within yards of the Brookline boundary line, and an exceptionally long run for the nearest of Newton fire apparatus, it was decided that a modern fire alarm system was the most urgent need...

Gene Krupa and his orchestra was then playing at Totem Pole, Norumbega Park. The famous band leader was packing 'em in, and Newton Kiwanis arranged with Norumbega's Roy Gill for two Sunday concerts by Krupa, the proceeds going into the fund for the fire alarm system.

SYSTEM'S COMPLETED...
At this writing, the new, modern fire alarm system is in operation at the Peabody Home. Boxes, or stations, as they are known to the fire officials, are conveniently located throughout the buildings. An automatic alarm set-up is in operation, too, and a siren atop the main building, automatically lets go, also, arousing the entire personnel housed in the various dormitories on the grounds, immediately an alarm is sounded.

Wednesday, October 2, the staff of the New England Peabody Home and the entire membership of the Newton Kiwanis Club will attend the dedication ceremonies at 2 p.m.

AROUND TOWN...
There will be three new lieutenants appointed to the Newton Police Department in the near future—probably next week... West Newton's Duke Jordan is home after traveling around the world during the past two years, entertaining U. S. fighting forces. Talking with Duke at his home on Auburndale avenue, this morning as the clock struck the hour of two, he said he'd met innumerable Newtonites during his travels around the globe. Climbing over Burma's mountains, he said, so's to entertain the fightingest regiment in that section, he discovered it was commanded by Colonel Edward Hickey, of Austin street, Newtonville. Recently returned, Duke was surprised to learn that Eddie now operates a liquor store in Newton Upper Falls... A 1912 Packard automobile chugged to a stop in Newton Corner yesterday about dawn, and its proud owner, claiming great speed and stamina for his ancient vehicle, was interrupted by Officer Martin Greeley who, representing Officer John McArdle, challenged him to a contest of speed between the Packard and McArdle's weary Dodge, "The Bluebird." Miles McNeil, who claims to have suffered a back injury while a passenger in McArdle's car, has agreed to act as judge at the finish line. He'll have a nurse in attendance there, he added... Uncle Willie, the Scotchman who heartily detests water, created a furore in a Boston Night Club last week. Nearsighted, he thought the sign over the Ladies' Room read "Ladies!"

and friends on "World Events as They Effect Main Street, U. S. A." at the fall meeting of the Newton Community Council on Thursday, October 3, at 8 o'clock in the Auditorium of the Newton Y.M.C.A., Mrs. John F. Brown, Program Chairman, announced today.

Mr. Markham has a varied background and should have an interesting story to tell. He is a graduate of Washburn University, Kansas, Union Theological Seminary, and Columbia University, and started his career as a missionary and teacher in Bulgaria. During World War I he was in Russia with the Y.M.C.A. In recent years he has been a foreign correspondent for the Christian Science Monitor. He returned to the United States this past summer, having been expelled from all Russian-controlled countries. He is known as a thought-provoking, down-to-earth speaker.

The Newton Nutrition Center will serve coffee at the conclusion of the meeting.

Hallowe'en—

to make their eyes sparkle with delight: Mr. F. Ewing Wilson, Commissioner of the Recreation Department and Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, Supervisor of Recreation. These two enthusiastic officials have "started the ball rolling" for all of Newton's annual Hallowe'en parties. And stimulated by their inspiring leadership, almost 1500 co-workers have each year kept the ball in motion until the last Hallowe'en lights were switched off.

To dispel any idea that entertaining 45 parties for 12,000 children is child's play, consider the behind-the-scenes procedure. First a general chairman is selected; which was no problem, this year, inasmuch as Mr. William G. Read, who filled that position last fall, agreed to serve again.

The next step is enlisting a coordinator for each of Newton's 12 villages. The coordinator is responsible for all the parties in his village; he must be ready at all times to iron out the countless problems that arise; he must be an executive, an administrator, a judge, a diplomat and, always, a human being who will remain as cool under pressure as an ice cube in a refrigerator.

The Village coordinator's first job is the selection of building chairmen—each in charge of all parties in a particular building, such as a school. These building chairmen then pick their room chairmen, who run the individual parties. Working with these chairmen are numerous committees made up of parents, teachers and other men and women who will mingle with the children on Hallowe'en and make sure that they are having the time of their young lives.

Anyone who has ever organized a single committee knows the effort it takes. Multiply that single committee by two hundred or more—the number required to handle Newton's parties—and the size of the job is staggering. Here, for instance, are some of the committees, many of them duplicated for each separate party: Program; Refreshments; First Aid; Publicity; Prizes; Chamber of Horrors; Movies; Trucking; Music; Facilities; Tickets; Posters; Transportation; Physical Activities (social recreation, games, social dancing, square dancing);

Drama, including quiz programs, charades, puppetry, amateur stunts, fortune tellers, magicians, story telling and many other features.

A thousand duties devolve on the committees. Programs must be worked out in minute detail; pianists, orchestras and juke boxes must be hired; 12,000 servings of ice cream and nearly a ton of cookies must be bought and delivered; first-aid supplies must be on hand and people designated to use them if the need arises; decorations have to be planned, collected and set up; clever and laughable stunts must be conceived and the stuntsters trained; Chambers of Horror have to be designed, built, installed and lighted; "side shows" must be devised. All of which gives just a mere hint of the countless details to be tracked down and tamed. And each detail has its own sub-details, besides!

A new feature being considered this Hallowe'en will be movies of the parties taken by amateurs. Mrs. Hovgaard says that she will appreciate hearing from any Newton movie camera fans interested in taking such movies, films being furnished without charge. She may be contacted at the Recreation Department, City Hall, Bigelow 4700.

All down the line, committees are rapidly being formed and will shortly be ready to begin plans for an evening that will linger for long in the memories of thousands of children. Their personnel has not as yet been reported. But the Supporting Committee is, with two exceptions, complete and has already held its first meeting. In addition to Mr. Read, Mrs. Hovgaard and Mr. Wilson it comprises the following:

Mr. Nicholas Vedeccio, chief of police; Dr. Homer Anderson, supt. of schools; Mr. Harold Gores, ass't supt. of schools; Mr. William J. Jasset; Mr. Rupert C. Thompson, secretary, Newton Chamber of Commerce; Mr. E. F. Haberstroh, publicity chairman; Mr. Irving Selzer; Mr. Norman Payne; Miss F. Eleanor Elliott, supervisor of art, N. H. S.; Mr. Arthur S. Swanson, supt. Eng., School Dept.; Mr. Albert Genske, Newton Highlands coordinator; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ellis, Waban coordinator; Mrs. Leroy Crawford Newton coordinator; Mrs. Serefin Tornabene, Thompsonville coordinator; and Mrs. R. Former Flt. Surgeon Talks on Methods of Preventing Illness

Dr. Donald E. Bowen of 379 Austin street, West Newton, former flight surgeon with the Army Air Forces, addressed the congregation of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Sunday evening on methods of preventing illness.

A large crowd listened with great interest while Dr. Bowen discussed sanitation, immunization of children, isolation of patients with communicable diseases, and the early discovery of illness as the patient's methods of preventing ill health. He stated that regular physical examinations are extremely important since now a days many diseases may be cured if they are discovered in the early stages.

Dr. Bowen described the causes and preventions of measles, mumps, whooping cough, scarlet fever, lock jaw, and many other diseases. Cancer can be controlled, he said, largely by a regular physical check up and immediate care when abnormal bleeding or unusual lumps or growths are noticed.

He said, too, that in the prevention of cancer any change in the usual bowel habit should be referred to a physician. He explained that tuberculosis is caused by a germ and can be prevented by finding cases early before the patient feels sick.

The talk was sponsored by the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association. Miss Ruth N. Brooks, Health Educator, of the Association, showed a film entitled, "Lease on Life." Dr. Bowen was introduced by the pastor of the church, the Rev. J. H. Dennis.

Hill coordinator; Mrs. Herbert Read, Newton Lower Falls, coordinator; Mr. Richard S. Tobin, Auburndale coordinator; Mrs. F. H. Underhill, Newtonville coordinator; Mr. Edward Fahey, Nonantum coordinator; Mr. Robert C. Densmore, Newton Trade School; Mr. Frank M. Grant, city clerk; Mr. Guy S. Baker, Bigelow Jr. High School; Mrs. Bainerd A. Thresher, school committee; Mr. Carlon W. Ray, Angier School, Waban; and Mr. Harold Young, Mayor's office, City Hall.

Edward C. Michaud Appointed Norumbega Council Scout Commr.

Mr. Edward C. Michaud of 202 Neholmen Road, Waban, was appointed Scout Commissioner of Norumbega Council Tuesday, September 24, at the first fall meeting of the Council's Executive Board—filling the vacancy created when Mr. Raymond D. Leonard, elected Scout Commissioner at the Annual Council Meeting in June, moved to Springfield, Mass. Mr. Michaud has been serving the Council as Acting Commissioner since August 1st, when Mr. Leonard resigned.

Mr. Michaud has a broad background in Scouting. He was a First Class Scout at Belmont, Long Island, 1915-1916-1917, and served as Troop Committeeman of Troop 10, Waban, for two years and Scoutmaster of the same Troop for two years. During the past two years he has headed the Council Swimming Program, which expanded to include an annual outdoor swimming meet. He also has served as Training Course Leader on many occasions in the past—last November he was Director of The University of Scouting.

Mr. Michaud will announce the personnel of his Council Commissioner's Staff in the near future. President F. Brittain Kennedy presided and members present were Grovesnor Marcy, Richard Thornton, George Broadhead, John Starkweather, Charles Richter, Howard Rich, James C. Walton, Frederick Garon, George Shannon, Richard McKown, Albert C. Blunt, Jr., Edward C. Michaud, and Scout Executive, Robert E. Pettit.

Camping Chairman, John Starkweather, reported an extensive program for outdoor camping at Nobscoot Reservation during the coming year. Organization and Extension chairman reported the installation of a new Scout Troop at Penbody Home. He announced that the Program of Membership expansion would be realized by the end of the year. Training Chairman, Charles Richter, reviewed the extensive Training Program scheduled for the fall, winter and spring, which included monthly round-table Training Conferences for Scoutmasters, the second Monday of each month. Cub Scouting Chairman, George Shannon, stated that Den Mother Training, Den Chief Training, and Cub Scout Training, would take place in October and November. An innovation to Cub Scouting is to be a series of District Cub Pack Meeting observation sessions—or when certain Packs of the five Districts will play host to Cub Scouters in the Council. During the course of his report he observed that it was the aim of the Cub Scouting Committee "to recruit many men to do many jobs, rather than a few men to do many jobs."

Mr. Michaud, the new Scout Commissioner, reviewed the status of the Units of the Council and the fall Program. He announced that Scoutmaster Henry D. White of Wellesley had been appointed Director of the Swimming Program, and that swimming periods would be made available by the Newton YMCA on the first and third Thursday of each month from seven to eight P. M. (two one-half hour periods). He outlined the Program for the Junior Leaders Training Conference to be held at Nobscoot Reservation, September 28-29, and the Cub Scouters and Scouters Round-up at Nobscoot Reservation the afternoon of October 6.

The Scout Executive reviewed the Program and Activities of the past summer. He announced that John C. Adams had been promoted from Field Executive to Assistant Scout Executive.

The next meeting of the Executive Board will take place at the Scout Office, October 13.

Annual Fall Festival At St. Paul's Parish House

St. Paul's Parish has announced their Annual Fall Festival will be held Saturday, Oct. 5, 1946 at the Parish House, Walnut street, Newton Highlands.

Several Groups of the Parish are working night and day to make this year's event better than ever and will sponsor games for the children in the afternoon, a Church Fair, a Church Supper beginning at 5:30 p.m., and entertainment in the evening, including fortune telling by a famous tea leaf reader and vaudeville by the Old Parish Players.

The groups are headed by John Bowen, chairman; Edgar Swail, asst. treas.; and Wilbur Leinberry, treasurer.

Special Community Services at Lutheran Church of Newtons

On each of the five Thursdays in the month of October, special services are being held at the Lutheran Church of the Newtons located opposite the High School on 430 Walnut street, Newtonville.

Outstanding Lutheran leaders will be the guest speakers at these services. The first service will be held Thursday, October 3rd at 8:00 p.m. Dr. A. W. Brustat of New York City, director of religious education in the Atlantic District of the Lutheran Church, will be the first speaker.

Dr. Brustat has been pastor of the Lutheran Church of Our Saviour at Mineola, Long Island and was recently elected to the post of director of religious education. He is a dynamic speaker whose services are in demand in many parts of the country. He is known far and wide as the author of many articles on church work and is one of the editors of the American

Local Woman Earns $45 on WNAC's Tello-Test Program

Mrs. W. L. Leighton, of 150 Woodward street, Newton Highlands, earned $45 Monday night by giving Fred Lang, of the WNAC "Tello-Test" program, the right answer to his question, thanks to the speedy assistance from a neighbor across the street.

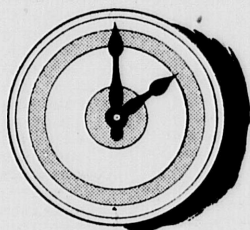

The minute Mrs. William Souff heard Lang say he was going to call 150 Woodward street, she raced to the Leighton home, crying out, "Ithica!"

The question of the night was "What was the name of the island ruled over by Homer's famous character, Ulysses?" Mrs. Leighton asked the genial "Tello-Test" quizmaster to wait a second till she asked her husband, a former teacher of Latin at the Boston English High School. But Mrs. Souff was right there with the right answer.

Eastern Standard Time

Turn backward,
Turn backward,
O Time in thy flight,
(And let me sleep an hour longer
Just for tonight!)

Oddly enough, you actually do turn Time backward when you set your clocks back one hour from Daylight Saving Time to Eastern Standard Time—and get an extra hour for sleep in the bargain.

We are now headed straight for the season of shorter days and longer nights, the season when you will need more and better light in your home and your place of work.

So check your lamps and lighting fixtures now. Is every socket fitted with the right-size bulb? Have all old and darkened bulbs been replaced with bright new ones? Are all bulbs, reflectors and lamp shades clean and free from light-absorbing dust and dirt? It takes very little time to look over your lighting equipment and it will repay you bountifully during the long fall, winter and spring season ahead when you will want to be sure that you have better light for better sight.

EYESTRAIN PICKS ITS VICTIMS YOUNG

One school child in five, on the average, has defective vision. Four college students in ten are victims of eye troubles. Accustomed for centuries to outdoor living, mankind has never adjusted eyes to lower levels of indoor lighting.

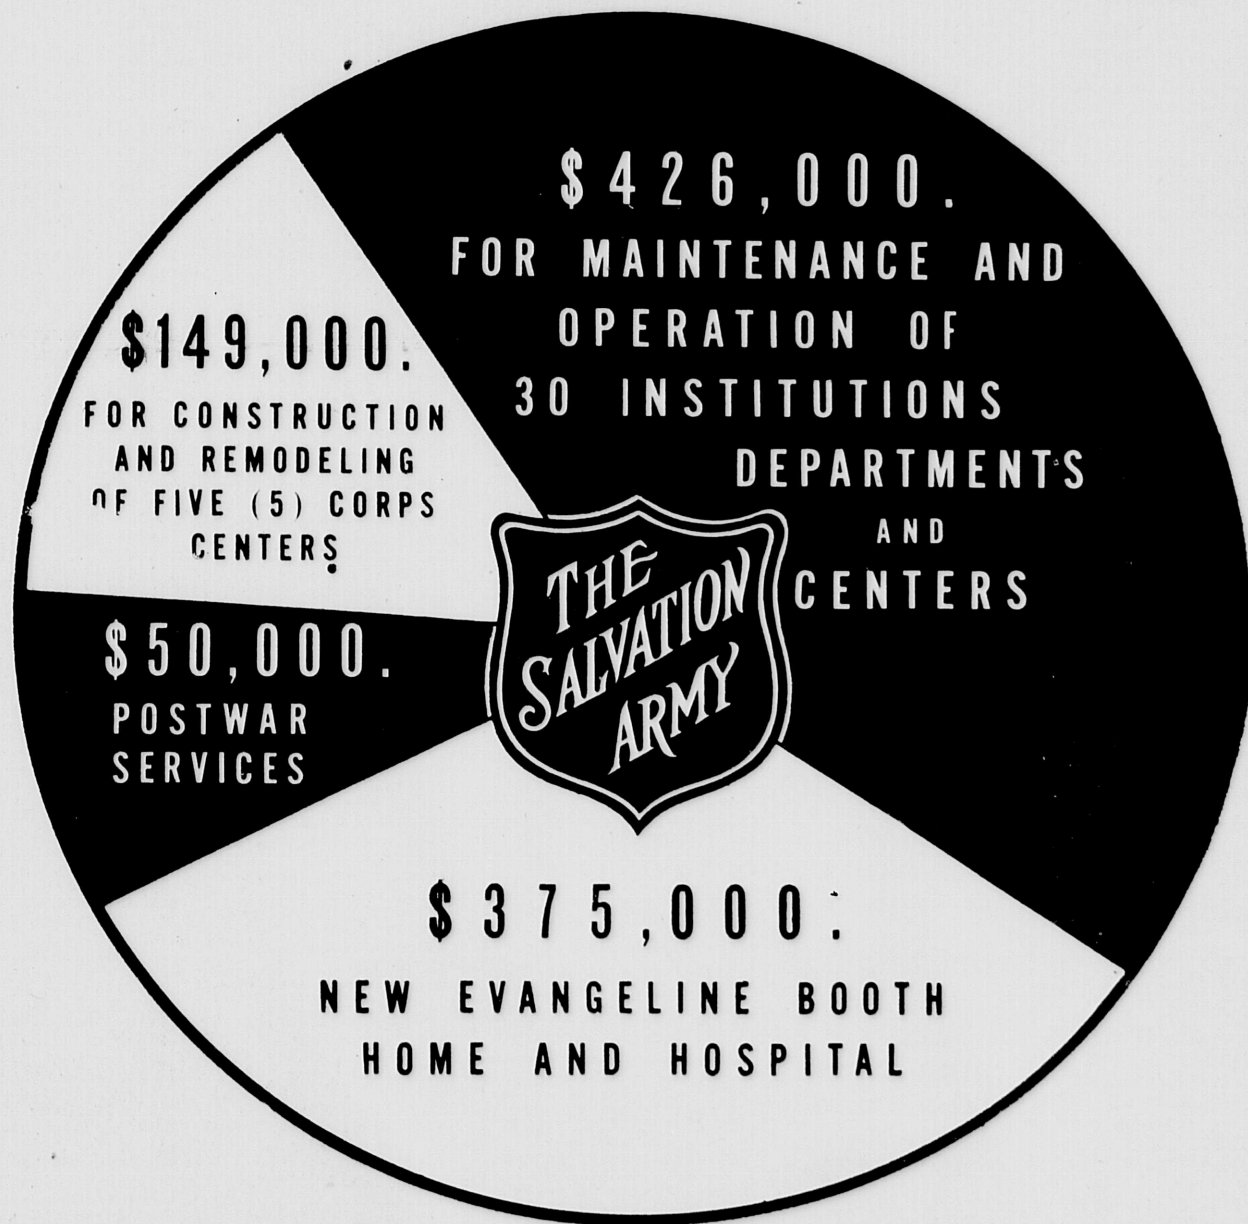

Fortunately, science is bringing sunlight indoors. And the science of seeing is teaching us how to use indoor light with least danger of eyestrain. Below are four simple rules for eyesight conservation it will pay every family to follow.

REMEMBER THESE FOUR SIMPLE RULES

1. Do all reading, studying, sewing close to a good light source, preferably a modern reading lamp.
2. Avoid glare from bare bulbs. Don't sit facing the light. Glare strains eyes.
3. Avoid shadows. Make sure you have good light directly on your book or work. Shadows strain eyes.
4. Have eyes examined regularly. If eyes are defective, vision can be greatly helped with proper glasses.

S.A. Appeal—

codes, the institution at 202 West Newton street, Boston, is to be replaced.

One of the leading speakers at the meeting was the superintendent, Major Marion S. Kimball. She stressed an important distinction between the work of the Home Department, where unmarried prospective mothers are given shelter and guidance, and the Hospital Department, which meets a definite need for good obstetrical facilities for middle-income families.

"Money is spent freely and without question for the breeding of cattle and other livestock, dogs and cats and other pets," Major Kimball said, "but the highest priority should be given to the care and welfare of our babies. A new-born child is the most important thing in life."

"The majority of the girls coming to us are young, immature, and still struggling with the problems of adolescence. Too often they come to us from broken homes where they find little affection or security. With feelings of guilt, fear, and the attitudes of friends and neighbors, desperately lonely, they seek protection at the Evangelical Booth Home."

"A home has always seemed the barest necessity for a woman facing maternity. It is the natural birthright of a little baby. In the section of our Hospital reserved for her special seclusion, her baby is born, rightfully receiving the same benefits made available to the baby ushered in under the sacrament of marriage."

"The unmarried mother in a hospital maternity ward is in no fit condition physically or emotionally to decide the future of herself and her child. The Home gives her the opportunity to defer so important a decision until she is physically fit and normally situated."

An outline of Salvation Army operating and maintenance needs for its 30 Institutions, Departments and Centers in Greater Boston was presented by Colonel Stretton. These account for $426,000 of the million dollar total. The institutions benefited include the Staniford Street Day Nursery, where the children of mothers who must work to keep the family together are cared for, the South End Boys' Club, Charles Hayden Memorial, with a membership of 1,000 and a waiting list, the fresh-air camp, "Wonderland," at Sharon, and the Mercy League, which regularly visits the aged, infirm, wounded, and mentally sick in civilian and military hospitals.

The Appeal, Colonel Stretton explains, also includes $149,000 for major repairs, remodeling, or reconstruction at five Neighborhood Centers, which are concerned with the family circle, uneducated or underprivileged children, as well as religious and physical welfare in general.

An impressive recital of achievements of the Salvation Army Newton Service Fund was given by its treasurer, William M. Cahill of the Newton-Waltham Bank & Trust Co. This fund is created from a portion of each Salvation Army Annual Appeal in Newton, and is retained there for use under local supervision, in special cases of local need where immediate aid is necessary, or where help from other agencies is unavailable or inadvisable. Expenditures of the Services Fund Committee during the twelve months ending with June of this year totalled $3,973.20. They included the payment of a variety of household bills for hard-pressed families, surgical operations, hospital bills, dental work, transportation, emergency furniture repairs, insurance payments, various items of bedding, clothing for children, summer school tuition, rent, etc. Twenty-five boys and girls were given vacations at "Wonderland" fresh-air camp, Sharon, through the Service Fund.

It was also brought out that from 1941 to 1945, inclusive, twelve young women from the Newton were given 1,054 days' care in the Evangelical Booth Home and Hospital, at a cost to the Home Department of $2,638. Mayor Paul M. Goddard gave strong endorsement to the Appeal, relating personal experiences from earlier years in his life to explain his high regard for the Salvation Army.

Other speakers included Ralph Sanborn, chairman of the Metropolitan Division of the overall Appeal, and Maxwell P. Gaddis, Newton vice-chairman.

Also at the head table were Rev. Robert Clyde Yarbrough, of the Second Church in Newton, who gave the invocation; John E. Wilson, president of the Salvation Army Greater Boston Advisory Board; Mrs. Andrew Y. Atwell, Metropolitan Division co-chairman; Brigadier Charles A. Beachell, Salvation Army Provincial Secretary, and W. A. Nicol, Executive Director of the Greater Boston Appeal. Adjutant Edward Brewer, in charge of Salvation Army activities in Cambridge, sang several selections to his own accompaniment on the accordion.

League of Women Voters Holds Open Meeting

That Mrs. John Q. Citizen has developed an outstanding interest in matters political was amply evidenced by the record turnout at the Newton League of Women Voters' first meeting of the year held on Monday, September 23 at the work shop in Newton Highlands and dedicated to the one hundred and eleven new members of the local League.

A short business meeting at which the President Mr. William Barber presided was followed by the keynote address which was delivered by Mrs. John Glessner Lee, president of the Connecticut League of Women Voters and a member of the National Board. Mrs. Lee highlighted her speech with a survey of the concerns facing us as citizens today: the problem of atomic energy, the business of the United Nations; the Peace Conference and such national concerns as the problems of labor and management, race discrimination, permanent full employment, the fair distribution of wealth and inflation.

A social hour followed the meeting at which Mrs. Philip Paisner and Mrs. William Wells acted as hostesses.

Newton Kiwanis Club Hears Reynolds, Newton Welfare Head

Thirty three members of the Newton Kiwanis Club listened, Wednesday, at the noon meeting in the YMCA building, to Mr. James Reynolds of the Newton Welfare Department, compare welfare costs in this city today with those of fifty years ago.

In that long gone day, according to Mr. Reynolds, much of the city's problem, as concerned welfare, was occasioned by tramps. Lodged in the police station on overnight stays, they were required to perform a little labor the next morning, then after being fed, were sent on their respective ways with the sum of ten cents to help them along. In one year the city housed 3,300 transient gentlemen of the road. A burial by the city cost $18 then, and the year's welfare expenses amounted to about $12,000.00.

Today, Mr. Reynolds continued, his department's cost, with the Federal Government and the State assisting, amounts to $612,000.00. Revenue from horse and dog tracks are a tremendous help in raising this sum. Continuing on, concerning the various activities of his department, he gave the amusing information that when women got the vote, many of them admitted to being 30 years of age when 42 would have been closer to their actual time on this earth. Consequently, when those in the above mentioned category reach the actual age of 65 and are eligible for old age benefits, they find themselves in great difficulty, and often find it difficult to collect.

Newtonians, with but few exceptions, accept welfare only when it is desperately needed, Mr. Reynolds concluded. The average citizen of our city prefers to earn his living, he said.

Past Presidents' Day will be observed at the Nov. 20th meeting. Mr. John J. Delmonte, President of the Central Union and a member of the Boston Port Authority, will be the speaker at next week's meeting.

District Governor of Kiwanis, Clyde W. Robbins and Executive Secretary Russell L. Norton will be present when the new Natick Kiwanis Club observes its "Charter Night," Oct. 8, at the Natick Army Gov. and Mrs. Maurice Tobin will be the guest of the Natick Kiwanis Club and prominent stars of the screen, stage and radio will entertain. Neil Musco, picture editor of the Boston American arranged the entertainment program and Kiwanian Paul Ambler's famous orchestra will furnish the music at the gala affair.

One year ago, the Newton Kiwanis Club began the task of raising funds, so to install a badly needed modern fire alarm system at the New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children. Situated on the highest point of the Oak Hill district, the Home, housing upwards of 100 crippled youngsters, needed, in the opinion of Fire Chief John Keating, alarm boxes at easily accessible points throughout the huge rambling structure.

Under the direction of Chairman Robert H. Wilcox, the funds were raised by a series of concerts given at Norumbega Park by Gene Krupa's famous orchestra. Installation of the new fire alarm system has recently been completed and next Wednesday, Oct. 2nd, it will be dedicated at the Home by the entire Kiwanis Club and the staff there.

Mayor Paul Goddard will be guest speaker with James P. Gallagher, clerk of the Newton Center representing the Newton Kiwanis Club on the speakers' platform.

Dining With Jane and Bill

Jane—Hi, junior, what did you learn in school today?
Junior—Oh, lots of things. I did learn that an apple a day keeps the doctor away.

Jane—That sounds like a broad hint for one of these apples I'm fixing for supper.

Junior—I sure would like one, but, no kidding, we really did learn about apples today. They have iron in them, and, uh, I can't remember just which vitamins, nearly every one from A to Z, though.

Jane—You do deserve an apple for that! Now, I'll tell you a few things, not only are apples good for you, but there are plenty on the market right now and they aren't very expensive.

Junior—Then can I have two, please?

Jane—Not so fast, young man! You can have one now, but I'm going to bake the rest of these for dessert tonight.

Junior—OK! I think we're having a lesson on chocolate cake tomorrow, so will you bake one for me, please?

Jane—You can't fool me that easily, besides I've other apple recipes up my sleeve and they are much better for you.

JANE'S RECIPE FOR BAKED APPLES

Wash apples thoroughly and core them without cutting through the blossom end. Place the apples, blossom end down, in a baking dish. Fill holes with a mixture of brown sugar or honey, raisins softened by soaking or chopped soaked prunes, a bit of butter, and chopped nuts, if desired. The dried fruit is suggested because it adds sweetness and helps save sugar. Add just enough water to the pan to keep apples from sticking. Then cover the dish. The steam held in by the cover makes the apples cook faster and more evenly. Bake at a temperature from 350 to 400 degrees F. Baking will take about half an hour, depending on the size and variety of apples.

When apples are soft throughout when tested in the center with a fork, they are done. Serve hot or cold, with or without cream.

Over 200 rugs will be on display, among them a 9x12 oriental and a 6x8 1/2 floral and scroll.

Exhibitors from Newton will be: Mrs. Hubert Ames, Mrs. Lillian Wilson, Mrs. George Webster, Mrs. J. E. Roche, Mrs. George Peters, Mrs. Beryl Dwight, Mrs. Chester Reed, Mrs. Myles Wellington, Mrs. Russell Cook, Mrs. George Howland, Mrs. Esther Fairweather, Mrs. George Pinkham, and Mrs. Norman Peterson.

D.U.V. Holds Meeting

A meeting of the Mrs. A. E. Cunningham Tent, D.U.V., was held in the War Memorial Building, Newton Centre on Friday.

Mrs. Velma McKay, president, reported on the recent National Convention in Indianapolis which she attended and also announced that she has been named national press correspondent by the new national president, Miss Cora Gillis of Jamestown, New York.

The next meeting of the Tent will be on Saturday, October 5, at 2:30 p.m. when plans will be made for the annual "Inspection."

The quartermaster corps is studying the effects of temperature, humidity, and solar radiation on tents.

Junior College Classes Begin September 30

One hundred fifty students registered in the Newton Junior College at Newton High School last Monday and Tuesday to begin studies in the different programs offered. Applications are still being accepted and several more are expected to be registered in time to begin classes next Monday, bringing the enrollment up to a possible 175.

Between 75 and 80 per cent of the students are veterans and the rest are high school graduates who found it impossible to get into a regular four-year college. The veterans are from all branches of the service: Army, Navy, Coast Guard, and Marines, and have served in all the different theaters of operations.

The majority of students are from Newton, while others are from Watertown, Wellesley, Brookline, Needham, Natick, Littleton, and other parts of suburban Boston.

The large enrollment was in the pre-engineering curriculum, followed by the Business Administration and Liberal Arts courses. These curricula are designed to give first-year courses to students who expect to transfer to larger colleges and universities next year.

The Division operates under the approval of the State Department of Education, according to Chapter 532 of the acts of 1946. However, the Newton Public Schools cannot guarantee acceptance of Newton Division credits by other institutions of advanced learning. Each senior college will decide for itself on the acceptability of the credits earned.

Dr. C. Elwood Drake, Director of the Division, said: "These students were selected from about 270 applications sent to the Division, so we are highly optimistic for a very successful school year." Applications are still being accepted by the Division, however, a charge of $5.00 will be made for registration after October 2.

The school calendar for 1946-47 is:
September 30—Classes begin
November 1—Armistice Day holiday
November 27 (noon)—December 1—Thanksgiving recess
December 23-January 1—Christmas vacation

February 1—Payment of fees
February 12-March 2—Winter recess
April 4—Good Friday holiday
April 18-23—Spring recess
May 30—Memorial Day holiday
June 13-19—Examinations
June 20—End of school year.

How I HELPED MY HUSBAND SAVE MONEY ON HIS $5000.00 LIFE INSURANCE

John was looking over the rates offered by several different life insurance companies, when I brought home a booklet on Savings Bank Life Insurance. "Best thing you ever did!" he told me, after figuring what we could save each year by buying insurance "over the counter".

You see, this way, the cost is naturally less! The $110.95* yearly premium we pay for $5000.00 of Savings Bank Life Insurance — would only pay $4000.00 an another company, and only $3950.00 in still a third. John also found that we could pay our premiums annually, semi-annually or even monthly.

Why don't you compare costs and terms, too, before buying? Policies are available in amounts from $250.00 to $25,000. Just ask your local Savings Bank for details.

Cong. Herter Calls Hearing to Discuss Meat Shortage

An official Congressional hearing to determine whether New England is getting its fair share of the available meat supply and whether anything can be done to increase meat shipments to this area, has been called by Congressman Christian A. Herter, the only New England member of the Congressional Committee to Investigate Food Shortages, for 10 a. m. next Monday, September 30th in the Gardner Auditorium at the State House.

Congressman Herter is arranging for the hearing, which will go into all phases of the meat famine, under official authorization given him by Congressman Stephen Pace of Georgia, Chairman of the committee set up to investigate food shortages. It is expected that at least one other member of the committee will sit in with Herter in holding the hearing. It will be the first food investigation to be held since meats were placed back under OPA controls on September 5.

"I have called this public hearing because the meat shortage in this area is worse than it has been at any time during the entire war period," Congressman Herter explained.

"The purpose of the hearing is to determine whether this section of the country is being discriminated against, and to develop specific recommendations to correct what appears to be an entirely unnecessary situation.

"The hearings will be official hearings of the Committee of the House of Representatives to Investigate Food Shortages, authorized by vote of the last Congress. The hearings are being called by me under authority and by direction of the Chairman of the Committee, Congressman Stephen Pace of Georgia."

All Federal agencies which have anything to do with the meat situation will be directed to send official representatives to the hearing. Meat packers, slaughterers, wholesalers, retailers, hotel men and leather dealers also will be invited to testify.

Congressman Herter said the investigation would concern not only the meat famine but also shortages of leather and medicines which are by-products of slaughtering.

In a telegram to Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson announcing the scheduled hearing, Congressman Herter said:

"In view of extreme seriousness meat shortage including leather and other by-products from packing houses this area am conducting public hearings select Committee to Investigate Food Shortages 10 a. m. Gardner Auditorium, State House, Boston, Massachusetts. This hearing officially authorized by Chairman Pace Committee. In order to get full authoritative information from Department of Agriculture request you assign to rearing individual best qualified give your version regarding facts in meat situation. Would appreciate your advising me soonest possible who I can expect to represent you at hearing."
